RANDOLPH-MACON FINALS.

Attractive invitations to the graduating exercises of Randolph-Macon college, Lynchburg, Va., have been received. Miss Mary Robertson LaFar, of this city, a member of the senior class. The invitation follows:

The Class of Nineteen hundred and twenty-one Randolph-Macon Women's College requests the honor of your presence at the Commencement Exercises, June fifth to seventh, Lynchburg, Virginia.

BLUE BIRDS ENJOY OUTING.

The Blue Birds of the Gray Mill village enjoyed a delightful outing at Crowders Mountain Saturday through the courtesy of Superintendent N. G. Thompson, making the trip by automobile. Ferns and flowers were gathered in the woods and numerous games enjoyed. About 22:30 p. m. a delightful luncheon was served and after more games the cars were lavishly decorated for the return trip, everybody making plans for another similar outing.

The Blue Birds are a very lively flock and are very much interested in making money for their organization. They recently staged a very successful play, presented a dance and made money for their uniforms. An ice cream supper has already been given, the proceeds to be applied to some good cause. Miss Carrie Howe, its assistant queen and very kindly helped the young folks to make their suits.

MUSIC CLUB AFTER DINES.

The Music Club is putting on a drive for a "feet of dimes", each member having pledged herself to solicit a foot of dimes, seven in number, the funds secured to be used to promote interest in music and to enable the club to offer better and more efficient service to the community. This drive was inaugurated by the national federation of music clubs and is being put on by music clubs all over the country. One half of the proceeds goes to the state federation and one half remains in the local club. By means of the funds secured the club will be enabled to purchase new music and in many ways fit itself to do more and better work.

The Music Club has never asked for money since its organization but has given freely and generously of its services both as a club and as individual members. It is hoped that this call will meet with a generous response and in return the club is ready and willing to serve the community on musical programs whenever called upon. Those so invited will wear yellow bands on their arms and will greatly appreciate the gift of a dime without having to request it.

held at the home of Mrs. M. O. Winstead, honorary president of the district. This meeting was widely attended, representatives from every chapter in the district being gathered together. Mrs. Wilson went next to Elizabeth City, where she attended an all day district meeting and delivered the principal address. A lovely mid-day luncheon was served and an elegant reception given in the evening in honor of the visitors. Before returning home Mrs. Wilson made a brief visit to Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Wilson at Huffman, near Pinehurst.

PARENT-TEACHER MEETING THURSDAY.

The Parent-Teacher Association will hold its regular May meeting Thursday afternoon at 2:30 in the auditorium of the central school. The topic for the afternoon will be "Child Welfare" and Miss Weir, the school nurse, will speak on this subject. The Open Forum will be conducted on a question pertaining to child welfare. A full attendance is particularly urged.

ABERNETHY-MOORE WEDDING.

(Charlotte Observer.)

A wedding of much social interest in Gaston and Mecklenburg counties was that of Miss Frances Margaret Moore and Mr. Reid Ernest Abernethy, which took place Thursday afternoon at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Goode Moore, "Lingerberry," near Stanley.

Rev. K. J. Thompson, pastor of Hawthorne Lane Methodist church, and a cousin of the bride, officiated, using the ring ceremony. Mr. Thompson was assisted by the bride's pastor, Rev. Albert Sherrill.

The cows were spoken in the living room which was lovely in floral decorations of pink and white sweetpeas and mountain laurel, and brilliantly lighted with numerous white tapers.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. George Shelton, of Matthews, aunt of the bride, rendered "Barcarolle," from "Pills of Hoffmann."

The ribbons were held by cousins of the bride, little Misses Rose Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Moore, of Stanley, and Jane Goode, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Goode, of Lincolnton. They wore dainty white frocks of ruffled organdy. Little Miss Marie Moore, the four-year-old sister of the bride, carried the ring. She was daintily dressed in pink ruffled organdy. The bride and groom entered the room together. The bride wore a handsome suit of dark blue tulle, with light of dark blue georgette. She wore a corsage of pink sweet peas and valley lilies. During the ceremony Mrs. Shelton rendered "Very Softly," "To a Water Lily," by McDowell.

Following the ceremony there was a reception. The dining room was beautiful in Dorothy Perkins roses and pink sweet peas. The centerpiece, a large cut glass basket filled with roses, was reflected in a mirror beneath, and lighted with pink tapers in crystal holders with pink shades. Cut glass dishes held pink and white mint. Chicken salad with asparagus was served by Mesdames John Shelton, T. E. Moore, Robert Goode and Margaret McClure.

Mrs. Abernethy is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olin Goode Moore. She is a brunette of the prettiest type, is bright and attractive and is admired by all who know her. She has been connected with the Gaston county public schools for the past two years.

Mr. Abernethy is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Abernethy, and is a young man of sterling qualities. He commands the highest esteem of a wide circle of friends in Gaston and the surrounding counties. He is a most promising young planter of east Gaston county.

Mr. and Mrs. Abernethy were the recipients of many handsome presents.

MRS. T. W. WILSON RETURNS TO CITY.

Mrs. Thomas W. Wilson, state president of the U. D. C., returned Saturday night from an extended visit to Tarboro, Rocky Mount, and Elizabeth City. Mrs. Wilson was invited to Tarboro to make the address before the William Dusey Pender chapter of that city on Memorial Day. Mrs. Wilson's address was very faithful and appropriate and was very widely commended upon. At Tarboro Mrs. Wilson was a house guest of Mrs. Jessie Daniel Thrash, a former state president, who entertained a number of distinguished guests at a home party. Other guests were Mrs. R. P. Holt, of Rocky Mount, third vice president generally; Mrs. F. M. Williams, of Newton, registrar generally; and Mrs. Felix Hervey, of Kingston, ex-state president. Following Memorial Day Mrs. Thrash entertained in honor of her guests at an elaborate afternoon reception to which were invited every member of the local chapter, the secretary, and managers through out the district. From Tarboro Mrs. Wilson went to Rocky Mount where she was an honor guest at a chapter meeting.
