LALLAS DOTS

(By MRS. JOE GRIBBLE)

DALLAS, May 30.—To refuse to play when the Dallas M-D baseball team met the Tuckasee team on the Lora diamond Saturday afternoon would have been perfectly justifiable, as by previous arrangement the two teams agreed upon no fresh recruits for this special game, but instead the Tuckasees took stage fright and secured a special pitcher and catcher for the occasion, coming with full determination to shut the "six-footers" out. As it was the home boys, rather than disappoint those who had come to witness the game, handed them over a stiff fight, losing only 3 to 1.

The game was interesting, but would have been so much more so had the Tuckasees come in their own strength and had they been just a little more familiar with the baseball rules of 1921.

Fields' pitching and the double play of Wayne and Clemmer in the second inning featured for the home team, while the team as a whole showed marked improvement.

The score by innings:
Dallas M-D 000 000 010
Tuckasee 111 000 000

The Morowebb team on the local diamond Saturday played a ten-inning game with the Piedmont team, running the gauntlet nip and tuck and keeping interest high until the final score in the tenth when the Morowebb landed 4 to 3.

Misses Velma, Mamie and Opal Ratchford, Mr. Carroll Ratchford, of Catawba county, and Miss Ratchford, of route one, formed a delightful week-end house party at the home of their kinsfolk, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ratchford, on Gastonia street.

Miss Clara Lineberger was the guest of Miss Edith Lineberger at their home on North Bank street Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. M. E. Rayfield and Mrs. L. J. Allen, of Gastonia, were spend the day guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lingerfelt Saturday.

Miss Grace Robinson, an efficient nurse at the Wesley Long Sanatorium, Statesville, arrived Thursday of last week for a few days visit to her father, Mr. W. S. Robinson, and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mings, of Charlotte, cousins of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Willis, were their guests a few days last week.

Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Hamiter and little daughter, Jennie, Miss Annie Hamiter and Miss Lela Durham motored to Black stock, S. C., the latter part of the week, making a short visit to friends and relatives. Miss Durham stopped over at Loxysville to be with her sister, Mrs. J. E. Darby, and Mrs. Hamiter remained for a longer visit.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Rhyno, Saturday, May 28, 1921, a daughter.

Miss Bertie Brown, of Charlotte, visited home-folks Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Graham, of Laurins, S. C., are the guests of Mr. L. D. Gribble and Miss Rosa Sistrup for a week or more.

A series of services to last ten days will begin at the Presbyterian church Sunday, June 5, by Dr. Leonard Gill, synodical evangelist. Dr. Gill will make the meeting interesting to young people, for he is especially interested in them. It is hoped a large congregation will greet him each time. All are most cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Griffin motored up from Greenville, S. C., Sunday afternoon to spend a few weeks with their daughter, Mrs. A. R. Martin, and family.

Those arriving in town from the various colleges and from teaching the past winter are Miss Dora Rhodes, of Wilson county; Mr. James Gribble from A. & E. College; and Messrs. High Rhyno and Lewis Carpenter, of Lenoir College. Messrs. Rhyno and Carpenter will leave Wednesday to be with the Rev. Cliff Chautauqua, traveling through the New England states during the summer as tent managers.

A large congregation heard a splendid sermon at the Methodist church Sunday night delivered by Rev. Clifford Ervin, young son of the pastor, Rev. J. O. Ervin. Taking for the basis of his remarks a part of the Lord's prayer, "Thy Kingdom come," he commented upon four distinct ways by which God's people can help to answer that petition and closed with a strong plea to the young people for the consecration of their lives to service.

Miss Anna Puett is now in Roland at tending the commencement exercises of the school, where she was an efficient teacher for three years. Miss Puett will visit friends at several other places before her return.

MANNING, SLAVE OF WILLIAMS, UP FOR TRIAL

COVINGTON, Ga., May 30.—Trial of Clyde Manning, negro, who confessed to aiding in the killing of other negroes on the Jasper county farm of John S. Williams, scheduled to begin here today, was not expected to prove of long duration. The negro testified at the trial here of Williams that in fear of his own life he aided in drowning all three of the negroes whom the state claims Williams brought into this county and killed to block a peonage investigation. Williams was convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment and is now seeking a new trial. Should Manning be able to convince the jury he was coerced by fear of death he could not under Georgia law be convicted of the killing.

Joshua Gunter, aged over 70, pleaded guilty in Madison Superior Court last week to the illicit manufacture of liquor and was given a year on the roads.

BUDGET OF LIVE NEWS ITEMS FROM BELMONT

By Mrs. Adelaide Smith Beard
Revival Meeting at East Belmont Baptist Church.

Rev. Wade Rimmer, of Lincolnton, opened the revival meeting at the East Belmont church Sunday. The hour for services will be 7:30 p. m. and 8 a. m., in order that the night hands at the mills may be able to attend the morning service. The meeting bids fair to be one of the largest ever held in Belmont, and wonderful interest has been shown so far, all available space being filled Sunday night, and the adjacent Sunday school rooms were also crowded.

The choir has been enlarged and special music will be rendered at every meeting. The public is cordially invited to attend the services which will extend through next Sunday and probably into the week.

Camp Fire Girls Have Successful Lawn Party.

The Loscha Camp Fire Girls held a very pleasant and successful ice cream supper Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Hall. The lawn was attractively arranged with tables placed about and on each table was a bowl of flowers. Japanese lanterns added a festive touch to the scene until the rain came and everything had to be moved to the porch. However, in spite of the unpleasant weather a very good crowd was present during the evening and enjoyed the refreshments which the girls had to offer on the spacious Hall porch. The girls cleared $23.65 which they will add to their camping fund.

Belmont Police Make Liquor Hall.

Chief R. H. Mings and Officers Ballard and Whitlow tracked down a blind tiger Saturday when they found 25½ gallons of whiskey at the home of Lee Prossley at the National Mill. Prossley was arrested and gave bond for his appearance at justice's court. He has been giving the officers here trouble for some time, but this is the first time they have been able to catch him with the goods.

Miss Tucker Celebrates Birthday.

Miss Mary Tucker was hostess at an enjoyable birthday party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Tucker, Friday night from 7 to 10 in celebration of her thirteenth birthday. A color note of pink and white prevailed throughout the decorations, Dorothy Perkins roses and white daisies being used in profusion. A county contest was first entered into, after which various games afforded much pleasure to the young folks. A beautiful pink and white birthday cake, holding thirteen pink candles in pink rose holders, formed the centerpiece on the attractive table. Mrs. Tucker, assisted by Mrs. J. D. Tucker, served ice cream and cake to the thirty guests invited. Misses Thelma Mauney and Eunice Springs, from Mt. Holly, were guests for the party, remaining over for the week-end with Miss Tucker.

Misses Mary Denny, Celeste, and Estelle Hall, and Master James Hall have returned to their home in Statesville after a visit of several days to their grandmother, Mrs. Annie E. Hall.

CLOVER CULLINGS.

CLOVER, S. C., May 30.—Mrs. R. A. Jackson delightfully entertained the Andrew Jackson Chapter of the U. D. C. Friday afternoon at her home on Church street. Mrs. W. P. Smith read a paper on "The Life of Sidney Lanier." Miss Lila Jackson, vice president of the chapter, gave a most excellent and enthusiastic report of the district U. D. C. meeting which was held at Woodward, S. C. Miss Jackson was the delegate from Clover. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. L. J. Campbell, Misses Dela McCully and Bertha Jackson, served a most delicious salad course. The next meeting of the chapter will be with Miss Lila Jackson.

The Thursday Afternoon Club met last week with Mrs. J. E. Brison. During the afternoon ruck was played at four tables. After a number of pleasant games the hostess, assisted by Mrs. O. A. Neil and Miss Annie Lee Adams, served delightful fruit salad, chicken salad sandwiches, stuffed peppers, crackers and iced tea.

Mr. M. L. Smith and Edward Smith and Mesdames E. P. Smith, J. E. Berryhill and Mrs. Maloy, Misses Louise Smith and Agnes Youngblood spent Thursday in Charlotte.

Prof. Reid and Cochran spent several days in Clover last week. Prof. Cochran purchased from Smith Brothers last week a lot on Constitution avenue and will build a winter home. He hopes to start work this week.

Miss Bess Jackson, of Rock Hill, spent Sunday with home-folks. She was accompanied by little Misses Louisa Neely and Sue Deihl.

Mrs. J. A. Page attended the minstrel in Kings Mountain last Friday night, given by the Gastonia Legionnaires.

Mr. Fred Redifill, of Charlotte, spent several days here last week.

Mr. M. L. Smith and son, Edward, spent the week in Abbeville, S. C.

The Young People's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church gave a silver tea in the opera house last Wednesday night. A neat sum was realized.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Allison and son, Billy, spent Sunday in Sharon.

Mrs. H. L. Wright and son, Herbert Wright, Jr., Mrs. A. Neil, Miss Annie Lee Adams and Mrs. J. W. Campbell, of Gastonia, spent Wednesday evening in Charlotte.

Master Tom Craig Smith is spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. John C. Robinson, of Gastonia, route three. Mesdames J. A. Page, Maloy Berryhill, W. P. Smith, John M. Smith and Jack, Dorothy and Grace Page and Elizabeth Smith spent last Tuesday afternoon in Gastonia.

Mr. O. N. Youngblood died suddenly Wednesday morning at the home of his son, Mr. Dave Youngblood. Mr. Youngblood was night watchman at the Hawthorn Mill. He is survived by one son, Mr. Dave Youngblood.

The fifth Sunday school convention, held in the Presbyterian church Friday, Saturday and Sunday, was attended by large crowds of interested Sunday school workers and others. Numbers of fine addresses were made and enjoyed by all.

Misses Annett and Mamie Moore, Grace Page, Vera Hambricht and Margaret Knox spent Thursday in Gastonia shopping.

Mr. J. Meek Smith was a business visitor in Charlotte Saturday.

The Clover Town Rounders baseball team took sweet revenge on the American Legion Larruppers of York on the local diamond Friday afternoon, Clover winning by the score of 8 to 1. Johnny Walker was on the mound for Clover and was in the best of form.

Clover defeated the strong Rando team Saturday at Rando, the score being 3 to 2. The game was exciting throughout.

Quite a number of homes are soon to be built near the graded school, which will improve this part of the town.

OLNEY LOCALS.

OLNEY, May 31.—Mrs. E. B. Mendenhall and sons, Paul and Brooks, of McConnellsville, S. C., visited Mrs. Mendenhall's mother, Mrs. M. M. Robinson, Saturday and Sunday. They also visited other relatives in the Olney neighborhood.

The Woman's Auxiliary will meet Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the church. A large attendance is desired.

On Sunday we decorated the graves of our World War boys, thus observing Memorial Day on Sunday instead of Monday.

On Sunday a congregational meeting was held at the church, at which time it was decided to call a pastor for all his time to act as assistant to the present pastor, Rev. G. A. Sparrow. For the last few years the work of this church has been growing so rapidly that it seems necessary to have a pastor in the field all of the time, Mr. Sparrow can only give us one half of his time, Union claiming the other half.

The young people of the neighborhood often have good times, but one of the best was a few nights ago when twenty young girls met at Mrs. Jennie Kerr's and enjoyed a social hour and served ice cream and cake in unlimited quantities.

"Prof." B. A. Coley, of Columbia, S. C., claiming to be a "healer," was run out of High Point Saturday by irate citizens. He spent two weeks there and seems to have reaped a financial harvest. The citizens finally decided they could get along better with "Prof." Coley elsewhere.

Old U. Tellem sez:

"There are many kinds of castles besides those in the air. For instance, man houses, hen houses and garages. The same principle builds them all. Castles in the air were never as comfortable for me as those more humble structures on the ground. We need more of the latter and I know a good place to buy materials. I'll tell 'em heads; you've been strong."

REOLO
BUILDS STRENGTH AND ENERGY
Are You Worn Out and Tired at the End of the Day?

Too Weary to be Efficient

A hundred people describing their weary condition would each tell it differently. One can't think another is drowsy, the next feels weak, others are irritable, moody, depressed, apprehensive, as the case may be. To this great class of sufferers comes Reolo, one of the grandest, reconstructive agencies ever devised for definite accomplishment. It intensifies the activity of the vital processes, provides increased flesh, stimulates the production of red corpuscles, contributes to the defense of the system against depletion and consequent exhaustion and in many other ways arouses the functional processes to make you feel that something has touched that one flickering light spark you thought would catch and go out. No amount of description can adequately convey the difference between the feeling of lack of energy, speed and the boundless freedom, the liberation from depression that cause so many men and women to fall in their tracks, to get no sleep at the switch or stand still when the order is to go ahead. If you would really like to get acquainted with your real self get a $1.00 box of Reolo today.

Your druggist can tell you about the wonderful results from Reolo that he has witnessed.
