MRS. ROSALIND GOFORTH.

Mrs. Rosalind Goforth, wife of Mr. I. B. Goforth, mother of Mr. D. K. Jackson and the only sister of Mr. J. K. Dixon, died at her home in Kings Mountain at 5 o'clock this morning following a serious illness of ten days. Prior to becoming ill shortly after Christmas, Mrs. Goforth was in good health. Her death has cast a shadow of sorrow over Kings Mountain where she was universally loved and admired. She was in her sixty-first year, having been born August 14, 1861.

Deceased was a daughter of the late Columbus Dixon, a prominent citizen of Cleveland county. She was born and reared near the town of Kings Mountain where she has lived for many years past. The only surviving member of the 31, 1921 immediate family is Mr. J. K. Dixon, of this city. Mrs. Goforth was twice married. Her first husband was the late A. Campbell Jackson. As a result of the union three children survive, Mr. D. K. Jackson, agent here for the P. & N Railway; Mrs. Elizabeth Thorn, of Greenville, S. C., and Mrs. Anne Hudgins, of Pelger, S. C. Her second husband was Mr. I. B. Goforth, who survives together with one child, Mrs. W. H. Cren shaw, of Mount Holly.

Mrs. Goforth was a loyal and active member of the Kings Mountain Metho Marmaduke, Ark .- Speaking of dist church. She was actively interested church and her town and gave unstinted ly of her sympathy and her services to Mrs. Mary E. Hill, of Route 1, this every good cause.
