Charlotte Marble and Granite Co. Awarded Contract For Memorial To Belmont Boys Killed In France.

The committee appointed to purchase the monument to be erected to the Belmont boys killed in the late war met Friday afternoon and received sealed bids for the erection of the monument. The committee, composed of Mrs. W. B. Puck, Mr. E. L. Stowe and Mr. H. B. Gaston, awarded the contract for building the memorial to Mr. C. R. Scoggins, of the Charlotte Marble and Granite Works. This memorial will be placed in the circle in the center of the cemetery. Some idea of its size may be obtained by the dimensions, which are five feet square at the base and twenty-five feet in height, making a very imposing shaft. The contract calls for the delivery of the monument by July 15th. The exercises at the unveiling of the memorial will be in charge of the American Legion, under whose auspices the fund for building the memorial was raised. The local post of the Legion has been called the Stowe-Auten Post, in honor of the two young Belmont boys who gave their lives in Flanders field.

There Was A Reason.

Taste is a matter of tobacco quality

We state it as our honest belief that the tobaccos used in Chesterfield are of finer quality (and hence of better taste) than in any other cigarette at the price.

"The man who wins my regard," she said as she reached for another olive, "must be tall and dark, with raven hair tossed back from an alabaster brow. He must be brave, yet gentle. I would have him a Chesterfield as to manners. He must be strong and manly. He must be a chivalrous gentleman, and don't you forget it!"

That evening a red-headed boy wearing striped trousers and smoking a bulldog pipe stopped at the front gate and whistled. She upset the four flower pots running to meet him.

JUNE 16 IS DATE SET FOR ELECTROCUTION OF FOX

COLUMBIA, S. C., May 23.—June 16 was fixed as the new date for the execution of S. J. Kirby, C. O. Fox and Jesse Gappins, the trio convicted last September of the murder of William Brazell, Columbia taxi driver, who was sentenced in the court of Lexington to hang today.

The men appeared without counsel, but under heavy guards, taken in automobiles from the penitentiary in Columbia to the Lexington courtroom, twelve miles away. Each said he had not had a fair trial and Gappins, who claimed not to be guilty of part in the murder asked that he be allowed to live as long as possible.

Following the sentencing the men were brought back to Columbia and lodged again in the death house.

The crisis for which the men were convicted caused a sensation over two states last fall. On the witness stand the three confessed to the whole affair. They gave notice of appeal and their execution, originally set for October 21, was postponed to the 16th of June. Gappins' appeal alone was perfected, but the supreme court recently threw it out as being without merit.

The execution date for the trio follows by one day the date for the execution of E. M. J. Banks and Ira Harrison, who are sentenced to die on June 15 for the murder of J. C. Annette.

MOTHER GAVE IT

Virginia Lady Suffered With Aches and Pains Until Mother Began Giving Her Cardui.

Dublin, Va.—Miss Mary Alice Huggett residing on Route 2, near here, recently told a visitor of her interesting experience with Cardui. Miss Huggett said: "I had been suffering for some time with painful... I was pale, didn't feel like going. Would just drag around, and couldn't rest to do any good. I would suffer once a month with my back, sides and head. My limbs would ache and I didn't know what to do, but I knew I must do something, for I didn't get well by letting it run on."

"My mother is a believer in Cardui, for she saw what it did for others as well as herself, so she began giving it to me."

"It wasn't long before I saw a change. It was just what I needed. It regulated me. I began to eat and sleep, and the pain stopped."

"Cardui is without doubt the best female tonic made, and I am glad I can recommend it to others."

If suffering with symptoms such as Miss Huggett mentions, or other ailments peculiar to women, why not begin Cardui at once? Its merit is well established by successful use for more than 40 years.

For Ten Dollars and Ninety Cents—This 30 x 3 1/2 Usco

THE 30x3 1/2 tire situation today is just this—

The man who buys an USCO at $10.90 is justified in believing that his money is going farther in tire value than it ever has gone or could go before.

Naturally he appreciates the quality of USCO. That was established long ago.

It is still fresh in his mind that USCO led the national market into the $10.90 price range.

The makers of U.S. Tires always intended the 30x3 1/2 USCO to be the highest value in its field.

At $10.90 it creates a new classification of money's worth.
