

GOWAN REMAINS THROUGH THE YEAR UNLESS STATE DIRECTOR INTERVENES

Recommendation of the Board Is That He Be Retained Through 1922.

TO BE REPLACED THEN

Commissioners Get Out of Hole With Good Grace, Say Some.

After a lengthy session of the county commissioners held Thursday, in which Assistant to the Director, J. M. Gray, was present, as was also County Agent C. Lee Gowan for a part of the time, the following resolution was adopted and sent to Dr. B. W. Kilgore, State Director, at Raleigh:

"The Board of County Commissioners recommends to the Agricultural Gowan be retained until December 30, 1922 and to cease as far as he is concerned on that date and that another county agent be sent here at that time to take his place."

As is generally known the State Department had decided to withdraw its proportional part of Mr. Gowan's salary after July 1, and announcement to that effect had been made. Whether the above recommendation, signed by all the commissioners will have any effect on the State's previous decision is, of course, problematical. Director Kilgore was in Washington and the matter was to be presented to him by Mr. Gray on his return to Raleigh. A reply is expected within a few days.

The action of the board of commissioners Thursday in adopting this method of settling the Gowan controversy is really a compromise, say those who have kept up with the affair. The Gowan opponents ought to be satisfied, they say, in that the agent is finally to be removed from the county. On the other hand, the Gowan supporters ought to be equally satisfied that he is to remain through the calendar year.

"It is about the best way out the commissioners had left," is the universal opinion among the people who are familiar with the case.

And so it stands unless the State Department sticks to its original decision to remove Mr. Gowan July 1.

DR. PLATO DURHAM LAUDS SPIRIT OF GASTONIA

Compliments Rotary Club On Decision to Build Park and Camp Ground for the Boys of the City.

Although he was almost crowded off the program of the Rotary Club's luncheon Thursday by the long drawn out discussions of the members over trivial matters, Dr. Plato T. Durham, of Emory University, Atlanta, held the attention of the club for 15 minutes while he pictured the Gastonia of the future, as being a "city interested in the golden heart of a growing boy."

"It will bring you more fame and renown," said Dr. Durham, "than your cotton mills and all your money. I am going to New York this summer, and in a speech I shall deliver in that city, I shall refer to Gastonia and this club as having the interest of the boy life at heart."

"When I was young, and when you were growing up, they did not understand the spirit of adventures during that is found in the heart of a boy. It was looked upon as dangerous and something that ought to be curbed. We were not allowed to camp and tramp in the woods, to swim and hike and live in the great green outdoors."

"Thank God, you men are catching a vision of what the boy life needs and I am proud of Gastonia and the Rotary club for taking this step."

Dr. Durham's remarks were occasioned by the recent decision of the club to buy 36 acres of land near Crowders Mountain for the purpose of establishing a Rotary park and camp site for the boys of the city.

CITY COUNCIL TO HAVE BUSY MEETING TONIGHT

The city council will hold a special session tonight at the city hall at 7:30 o'clock. Several very important matters will come up that will be of interest to the public in general.

The fixing of the rate of taxation for the year from May 31, 1922, to May 31, 1923, will be brought up. Another matter of greatest importance to parties concerned had one that will take up considerable time will come up for discussion. The passing upon the applicants for licenses to operate public cars for hire during the coming year will be carried out. Up to noon today 36 jitney drivers had filed their applications with the city tax collector. The question of character and efficiency will be considered in each case. It is probable that the city fathers will have to sit up unusually late burning the midnight oil at the meeting if all current business is disposed of.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., June 16. — Jerome Stewart, a cadet at the United States Military Academy at West Point, was killed at Allaire, near here today, when a Pennsylvania Railroad train struck his automobile at a crossing. A young woman who accompanied him, escaped by jumping.

Kirby, Gappins and Fox Pay The Death Penalty For Murder Of William Brazell Last August

Trio Go to Their Deaths Singing and Praying, at 6 This Morning.

FOX NATIVE OF GASTON

Kirby Feigns Insanity and Is Forced Into Chair By Attendants.

COLUMBIA, S. C., June 16. — S. J. Kirby, Jesse Gappins and C. O. Fox were electrocuted at the penitentiary this morning shortly after 6 o'clock for the murder of William Brazell, Columbia taxi-cab driver, near Leesville, on the night of August 7, last.

The trio went to their deaths singing and praying. Kirby went first, and he feigned insanity and tried to get his hands from the straps. The officers told him he better take it easy, but a second time he slipped his hands from the straps. Then four guards took hold of him forcefully; the straps were made tighter than usual, and the current was sent through his body, the man being deprived, because of contrary behavior, of the privilege of making a last statement. Gappins went second and Fox last, the entire procedure consuming forty minutes. Fox and Gappins made last statements in which they warned young men against bad company and evil conduct.

The penitentiary officials took the curious by surprise, and staged the executions at an early hour instead of noon as is usual. This is the first time a white man has been executed in this state since 1913, and it is the first time three men were ever electrocuted in the State the same day.

The three men were convicted last September 14, 1921, of the murder of William Brazell, a young taxi driver of Columbia. They were first sentenced to die October 21, but appeals, which were never perfected, caused postponement of the date and made re-sentencing necessary.

The murder which was respited this morning was committed during the night of August 7, 1921. The trio engaged the young man to take them to Lexington to "see some girls." When they got about 15 miles from Columbia they blackjacked the young driver, their aim being to take his car and sell it in Florida. The blackjack broke and they stabbed him to death to get away with their plan, according to their confessions. They were later arrested in Augusta and for several days they were chased through Georgia and South Carolina by a mob of men bent on punishment.

C. O. Fox, named in the above story, is a native of Stanley, Gaston county. He was formerly employed in a Gastonia cotton mill and his wife and children were living here until a short while ago. A brother also lives here. Fox's parents, both of whom are aged, live at Stanley.

DECLARES KU KLUX KLAN AN UN-MASONIC ORGANIZATION

(By The Associated Press.) BOSTON, June 16.—A letter declaring the "Ku Klux Klan an un-Masonic organization, utterly without Masonic support or sympathy," has been sent to all Masonic lodges of the state by Arthur D. Prince, grand master of the Massachusetts grand lodge. The letter made public here today, says that as a grand lodge "we would have no interest in this organization, but the attitude of those who followed the lead of those who followed Lee and Jackson, Buchanan and Sherman today number about 45,000, and this figure is being lowered rapidly. The average age of the veterans is now past 75 years. Therefore, Richmond has prepared to don her best bib and tucker to welcome the old Graycoats in elaborate style.

Entertainment features during the reunion will be many. Confederate balls will take place each night. The closing ball will see the women in costume, representative of the days of the 'sixties. There will be band concerts, receptions and many forms of other entertainment. Reduced railroad fares will attract an unusually large crowd, and some place figures of expected visitors as high as 50,000, but more conservative estimates base the attendance upon all organizations at 30,000 to 35,000. Attendance of the veterans is placed at from 3,000 to 5,000. While all hotel beds have closed their registration books and demands on boarding houses for accommodations next week are hourly increasing, thousands of Richmonders have come forward with offers of quarters in the private homes to accredited visitors. All visiting veterans will be met upon their arrival, caused to register, will be presented with their credentials and assigned to lodging if reservations have not been made in advance. Each day of the Reunion the veterans will be entertained at dinner and supper in local armories as the guests of the city of Richmond and Commonwealth of Virginia.

Among the principal speakers at the Reunion will be Hon. W. Tate Brady, of Oklahoma; United States Senator Pat Harrison, of Mississippi; and Dr. Henry Lewis Smith, President of Washington and Lee University.

One of the most impressive ceremonies of the Reunion will be the laying of the cornerstone of a monument to Commodore Matthew Fontaine Maury, C. S. N., to whom all nations have paid tribute as "pathfinder of the seas."

BANKHEAD AMENDMENT REJECTED BY COMMITTEE

(By The Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, June 16.—Without a record vote the house merchant marine committee today rejected the Bankhead amendment to the ship subsidy bill providing that no government aid should be allowed ships on which liquor was sold.

The Edmonds proposal which would extend the Volstead law to the sea by fining all ships of any registry touching American ports on which liquor selling was permitted, was not acted on and the committee ordered the bill reported by a straight party vote.

RICHMOND DONS BEST BIB AND TUCKER TO WELCOME GRAY GLAD VETERANS

30,000 Visitors to Be In Confederacy Capital for the Reunion.

VETERANS TO BE FETED

Thin Gray Line Is Growing Thinner and Many Are Unable to Attend.

RICHMOND, VA., June 16. — Miss Mary D. Ransour, of Milton, N. C., will be the sponsor for the South at the annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans, which opens here Tuesday (June 20) having been selected for this important honor by General Julian S. Carr, commander-in-chief of the U. C. V. General Carr has also appointed Miss Kate P. Irvin, of Danville, Va., as staff sponsor; Mrs. Beulah Mimms, of Winston-Salem, N. C., as matron-of-honor and Mrs. E. D. Hotchkiss, of Richmond, chaperone.

General C. B. Howry, of Washington, D. C., commanding the Army of Northern Virginia, has appointed Mrs. Frank Melane, of Spray, N. C., as sponsor for the department and Mrs. J. C. Hubbard, of Portsmouth, Va., matron-of-honor. General James A. Thomas, of Dublin, Ga., has named Miss Agnes Person, of Orlando, Fla., as sponsor for the Army of Tennessee. Miss Adele L. Lamb, St. Elmo, Tenn., chaperone and Mrs. J. W. Stone, Frankfort, Ky., matron-of-honor. General E. W. Kirkpatrick, of McKinney, Tex., commanding the Army of Trans Mississippi, has appointed Miss Elsie J. Pritchard, of San Francisco as sponsor; Mrs. W. Moore Scott of Batesville, Ark., chaperone.

Richmond is making preparations to welcome and entertain about 30,000 visitors. While thousands will be attracted here by the Confederate Reunion, other thousands will come for the annual conventions of the Sons of Confederate Veterans and the Confederate Southern Memorial Association. The meetings of these auxiliary organizations will start on Monday (June 19) and close the following Thursday when the veterans end their reunion. Richmond is still the capital of Southern memories and this will undoubtedly be the last of the big conventions of the Confederates which can be held in this city. Survivors of those who followed Lee and Jackson, Buchanan and Sherman today number about 45,000, and this figure is being lowered rapidly. The average age of the veterans is now past 75 years. CIVIC ORGANIZATIONS OF CITY ENTERTAIN THE SOCIAL WORKERS MEET

C. W. Coleman, of La Grange, Ga., Is New President of Social Workers.

ADJOURNED LAST NIGHT

Next Meeting Place to Be Decided By Executive Committee.

The fourth annual conference of the Southern Textile Social Workers came to a close Thursday evening when the delegates were entertained at the high school building by the local civic organizations. The business meeting of the conference, which was not finished Thursday morning, was continued Thursday afternoon at three o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium. A constitution was drawn up and passed upon and by-laws were adopted. The annual fee was raised from one dollar to two dollars in order that the treasurer might be able to meet all expenses.

In the constitution that the workers adopted several articles of interest to the public were included, among them the definition of a member and who were eligible to become members. The clause, "Any person actually engaged in and vitally interested in community work may become a member," was written into the constitution. The question as to who should decide upon the meeting place of next year's conference and time of same was discussed. It was finally agreed that the executive committee, made up of the officers and three members of the body elected at large, was to select the above. At a meeting of the latter yesterday noon, they were unable to decide upon the place and time. Many invitations were presented by various cities but none was accepted. The past conference once have been held in Greenville, Rock Hill, Spartanburg and Gastonia. Suggestions were made that the business meeting Thursday morning that since North and South Carolina had already been hosts to the workers, Georgia and work may become a member. The past conference once have been held in Greenville, Rock Hill, Spartanburg and Gastonia. Suggestions were made that the business meeting Thursday morning that since North and South Carolina had already been hosts to the workers, Georgia and work may become a member. It was finally agreed that the executive committee, made up of the officers and three members of the body elected at large, was to select the above. At a meeting of the latter yesterday noon, they were unable to decide upon the place and time. Many invitations were presented by various cities but none was accepted.
