

CHERRYVILLE CHAT.

(Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.)

CHERRYVILLE, July 10.—Mr. Grier Dellinger and little daughter, Dorothy, of Greenwood, S. C., spent the week-end in Cherryville.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rudisill and children and Mr. Lloyd Sumner went to Blowing Rock Saturday for a short stay. Mr. Sumner went on to Boone Sunday afternoon to visit friends for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Thornburg (of Bessemer City) were Cherryville visitors Sunday.

Mrs. C. B. Fetner and children, C. B. Jr., and Merrill, of Charlotte, are spending the week here with Mrs. Fetner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Mauney.

Hon. C. B. Fetner, of Charlotte and Mr. Prentiss George went to Boone Sunday.

Mrs. E. O. Counts and little son, Howard, of Charlotte are visiting Mrs. Counts' mother, Mrs. Sidney Dellinger, at Lyell farm this week.

Mrs. S. S. Mauney was the guest of Mrs. Carpenter at Bessemer City, Monday.

Quite a number of people from Cherryville and vicinity visited the historic battleground of Kings Mountain Sunday. Among those going were: Messrs. Sylvanus A. T. Coris, Durham, Sidney, Cleveland and Few Dellinger; Messrs. R. Frank, Alexander and Henry Putnam, Mr. S. Woeaster and Mr. Joe Hall.

Mrs. O. S. Jones and Mr. Marvin Price are in Iva, S. C., today attending the golden wedding anniversary of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Price. Mrs. Jones will spend some time in Iva, with relatives.

Mrs. Beatrice Deitz, of Charlotte, spent Sunday and Sunday night with friends here, going on to Coroleen Monday morning to visit her sister, Mrs. Candace Childers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Falls spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Stroup near Sunny-side.

Mrs. Doris Radisill, who is working at Clover, S. C., this summer, was Sunday to see his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Radisill.

Mr. R. J. Dellinger, assistant superintendent of the Imperial and Health Insurance Co., of Asheville, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dellinger.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Radisill, Mr. Roy and Joe Billy Dellinger, of Lugoff, S. C., are a few days in Cherryville.

Mr. Jones Deal, a public accountant, of Charlotte was in Cherryville on business last week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McBride and attractive little daughter, Nancy, left for Wrightsville Beach Sunday morning. Mr. McBride is manager of Efrud's department store here. While at Wrightsville Beach they will be the guests of the Efrud brothers, who are entertaining the managers and their wives at a get-together meeting.

Mrs. Graham Dellinger and children, of Shelby spent several days here last week. They returned to Shelby Friday evening.

Mrs. J. A. Radisill and children, Katherine and Jacob, Jr., of Charlotte, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Radisill.

Messrs. J. H. Radisill and D. R. Mauney were in Gastonia on business Monday.

On last Friday afternoon Mrs. C. A. Radisill gave one of the most delightful parties of the season in honor of her guests, Mrs. Graham Dellinger, of Shelby, and Miss Ann Rutledge, of Mr. Holly. Rook was played at three tables and during the afternoon delicious punch was served.

Miss Ann Rutledge returned to her home at Mr. Holly, after spending some time in Cherryville with friends.

Mr. N. E. Kale, a merchant of this place had quite a narrow escape last Sunday afternoon as he was returning from Shelby. On the narrow bridge across Buffalo an automobile driven by a Mr. Smith of Stanley ran into Mr. Kale's horse bruising it considerably but breaking no bones. Fortunately Mr. Kale saw his danger in time to jump from his buggy before it was struck, and was unhurt, except for the shock to his nerves. Mr. Smith's brakes were defective and it seems that in coming down the grade he lost control of his car.

There is very much activity in real estate lines at present. Mr. Clyde Harris has just purchased from Mr. M. L. Radisill a large vacant lot in the north-western part of town, on which he expects to build a modern nine room house in the near future. It is one of the most desirable sites in Cherryville. At the same time Mr. and Mrs. Howe sold to Mr. C. A. Radisill four and one-half acres adjoining Carlton Heights, in the eastern part of town. This land is intended for a private home for Mr. Radisill, who will have entire charge of the Carlton yarn mills. Land in this section sells for about $250 per acre.

The Rhyne-Houser Manufacturing Co. sold to Mr. J. M. Leonhardt a small tract of land in the north-eastern part of town. A deed is also made in connection with all these transfers, by Mr. J. M. Leonhardt and wife to the Rhyne-Houser Manufacturing Co., for a small tract of land for mill purposes.

The progress made by the Carlton yarn mills is a matter of interest to many of our people. The excavation for the main building is practically completed and the grading for the side track was finished last week. Kendrick Bros. have much material on the ground for tenant houses. No time is being lost by any of the contractors in carrying along all departments of the work and it is expected that all construction work in connection with the mill will be completed in August.

Hadn't Seen It
"Eliza," said a friend of the family to the old colored washerwomen, "have you seen Miss Edith's fiance?"
"Eliza" pondered for a moment, then bent over the laundry tub once more. "No, ma'am," she said, "it ain't been in th wash yet."

THE BIG CONVENTION.

There are conventions of business men and conventions of professional men, conventions of religious and of educational associations, and conventions of various labor and sales organizations, but the Farmers' and Poultry Women's Convention at Raleigh, August 1, 2 and 3 bids fair to be the biggest of them all, and why not?

Farming, although the least lucrative, is the biggest and most important business of them all.

It needs attention and will receive it at this convention.

Railroads will grant reduced rates. Meals will be furnished by the College at 50c each. Lodging free. Each visitor will take sheets, pillow cases and toilet articles.

Slogan: "Times Rather Squally, Help Mend Them At Raleigh."
