CASH PRIZES FOR RADIO FANS

Gastonia, N. C.: The Gastonia Gazette has just come out with an article that will be at interest to all Radio fans to the effect that Michael & Biven, Inc., of this city will stage a great Radio amafeur builders contest. Valuable cash prizes will be given for the best sets.

The first prize will be $25.00 cash; second $15.00, and the third $10.00. The radio receiving sets will be judged on three points as follows: Audibility, mechanical workmanship and appearance. The Southern Radio corporation will send special programs from station WBT for the benefit of the fans at the Gaston County Fair. Night programs will consist of music, speeches, news items, - etc. Special aerials will be constructed and the sets will be judged by radio experts. Michael & Bivens, Inc., will have a specially constructed booth /to show radio equipment.

They extend a special invitation to all amateurs in this section to bring their sets to the fair and enter them free of charge for the competition. Members of Michael & Bivens, Inc., are not eligible for this contest.
