

NATIONS ARE DEADLOCKED IN NEAR EAST CONFERENCE

Pasha Says If They Don't Get What They Want They'll Take It

Tells The Allied Generals That If Turks Can Not Get Thrace Peacefully They Have The Means To Enforce The Determination—His Declaration A Bombshell To Conference.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—(By the Associated Press.)—A new crisis has arisen in the near eastern situation, which had seemed on a fair way to settlement. The armistice conference of allied, Greek and Turkish military leaders at Mudania was adjourned suddenly yesterday after a dramatic passage in which Ismet Pasha, representing the Ankara government, demanded that the Turks be allowed to occupy eastern Thrace as a precedent to any peace conference. Ismet Pasha told the allied generals that if the Turks could not have Thrace peacefully, "we have the means to enforce our determination." Earlier in the day the Greek delegates had declared in no less certain terms their readiness to fight, if necessary, to retain the province.

That the Turkish demand had been duly weighed and calculated is evidenced by the almost simultaneous receipt of an Ankara dispatch quoting Mustafa Kemal Pasha as declaring before the national assembly: "The evacuation and surrender of Thrace must occur immediately, especially as since the Greek revolution the Moslem subjects are in great danger." Ismet Pasha's bombshell was followed by another when the French delegates announced they were instructed to support the Turkish demand. This created a definite split, with the Turks and French opposed to the British and Italians, the latter holding that evacuation of Thrace and reoccupation by the Turks should follow and not precede the peace conference.

The allied generals thereupon adjourned the meeting and left for Constantinople to consult with the high commissioners, and the British and Italians to ask definite instructions from their home governments with the understanding a further meeting would follow their receipt. A message from Brigadier General Sir Charles Harington caused immediate action in Downing street. Cabinet ministers were hurriedly summoned by telegraph and special messengers and went into a session which did not break up until early this morning. General Harington's message was published in transmission and it was thought advisable to wait for a repetition before taking any decision. London newspapers this morning appear without any of the details of the conflict at Mudania, which are known in the United States through dispatches to the Associated Press. The British press is being badly served in Constantinople, where, according to the Daily Telegraph's diplomatic expert, the British military authorities have established the most stringent censorship.

SOUTHERN TARIFF ASSN. SEEMS GREATLY PLEASSED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The Southern Tariff Association met here today "to give public expression to the gratitude of the South" for the new tariff law, which includes most of the products of that section on the dutiable lists. Announcement of the purposes of the two day meeting, by John Kirby, of Texas, the organization's president, characterized the convention as a "victory congress" commemorating the "fair and generous treatment" accorded the Southern producers. The new customs law, the statement asserted, had the salvation of Southern industries generally and added that the sixty industries an more than 6,000 banks affiliated with the association, desired the country to know of their appreciation of the work of Congress.

FOREST FIRE SITUATION SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

DULUTH, MINN., Oct. 6.—A decided feeling of optimism prevailed throughout most sections of the northern Minnesota forest fire zone today. Fire fighting crews able to make considerable progress yesterday and last night. Foggy weather and decreased wind velocity helped them. No new outbreaks had been reported early today. Several crews reported that during the night they had gained the upper hand on fires which had been threatening to get beyond control. Fire breaks have been improved in nearly all sectors.

A. F. GUY, OF GREENVILLE DEAD IN CHARLOTTE

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Oct. 6.—Alonzo F. Guy, superintendent of the F. W. Poe Manufacturing company of Greenville, S. C., died early today in a hospital here, where he had been under treatment for several weeks. He was 51 years of age and is survived by a widow. The body will be sent tomorrow to Augusta, Ga., for interment.

TWO QUARTERBACKS OUT OF YALE LINE-UP

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 6.—Charles O'Hearn and Joe Beckett, regular quarterbacks on the Yale varsity football team, were on the sick list today. Neither is expected to play against North Carolina tomorrow, and it is doubtful if O'Hearn, one of the team's best running backs, will play against Iowa a week from tomorrow. Neillinger will probably be at quarterback in the North Carolina game. He has never played the position before. O'Hearn is in the hospital with a pulled tendon. Beckett has severe bruises.

KEMAL SAYS THE WHOLE WORLD IS WITH HIM

ANGORA, Oct. 6.—(By the Associated Press.)—Mustapha Kemal Pasha has sent the following message to "the people of Constantinople." "I offer greetings to my friends in Constantinople and hope soon to meet them personally. Peace will be concluded with the realization of our national aspirations. "The whole world is with us. Humanity applauds us. The saner spirits even of Great Britain favor our cause, and many of her public men who hitherto have misguidedly opposed us, have seen the truth and changed their sentiment toward us."

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS RALLY IN LARGE NUMBERS

Seniors, Intermediates And Juniors Entertained By All-South, State And County Officers At First Presbyterian Church—Union and Olney Societies Take Home The Banners.

Gaston County Christian Endeavorers to the number of 270, assembled for the Fall Rally at the First Presbyterian church Thursday night. Preceding the night service 100 Juniors from six churches, Gastonia First, Armstrong Memorial, West Avenue, Olney, Union and Belmont Presbyterians, assembled at 4:30 and were held entranced for two hours by Miss Mamie Gene Cole, of Atlanta, Ga., Executive Secretary of the All-South Christian Endeavor Junior work. Miss Cole, petite in stature, proved a power in expression and charm. She was a living demonstration of consecrated vivacity and practical "pep." For two hours the 100 kiddies were wined, eyed, open mouthed, and brimful of answers to the pointed queries of the speaker. The Junior Society of Olney church, Mrs. C. P. Robinson, superintendent, was awarded the banner for the largest per centage of a society in attendance, having an enrollment of 16 with 16 present at the Rally.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The first break in the long drought which has gripped the greater part of the country for the last four to five weeks, was seen today in the weather bureau forecast which announced that showers would occur tonight in many states of the South followed by others on Saturday or Saturday night.

At least some temporary relief was in sight for the whole South in the next 24 hours, the bureau predicting showers in Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, and Kentucky tonight and Saturday. Showers also were forecast tomorrow or tomorrow night in Virginia, North and South Carolina.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—With another twenty-four hours of generally fair weather forecast for the entire section of the country from the plain states eastward, the United States weather bureau saw no immediate prospect today for a break in the protracted drought which has gripped a greater portion of the country. Attending high temperatures for the season, which yesterday established records at a number of points in the east and middle west, also were expected to continue at least until tomorrow night.

Until the weather elements—the winds and barometric pressures—get back to a natural course, meteorologically speaking, weather bureau officials say the present dry spell, during which there has been little rain to speak of, in any section of the country with the exception of the Pacific coast, Florida and the east Gulf coast, for the last four or five weeks, will continue. The air, they explain, simply is showing a sluggishness and a lack of movement which is barring the inswamp of moisture bearing air over the country.

Despite the extent and intensity of the drought, however, the damage to crops has been exceedingly small, agriculturists declare, because of the harvest generally being practically over. The most serious effect has been the retarding of winter wheat sowing. Rural communities in wide areas also have suffered from the drying up of streams, wells and reservoirs.

The menace of forest fires, already causing huge damage, and threatening additional loss of life in Canada, in addition to areas, aggregating about 100 square miles, now burning in northern Minnesota, is by far the most feared consequence of the drought. It has caused officials of the forest service of the Department of Agriculture to repeat warnings against lighting fires in the woods. This is the time of year, it is declared, when the "second forest fire" period can be expected, "and with a continuance of the dry weather the spread of

U. S. Ships on Way to Levant

One of the 12 destroyers the United States is sending to Constantinople to protect our interests there. All the 12 are of this type. Inset, Captain Chester Tozer, commander of the ships.

First Break in Long Drought Is Predicted; Rain Promised Today

Weather Elements Are Not Acting Right—Many Areas Where No Rain Has Fallen For Weeks—Forest Fires In Minnesota—Weather Officials Can Not Explain It.

The weather bureau announced that with a marked change in pressure distribution that has taken place during the last 24 hours the indications are that showers will occur in the whole south within the next 36 hours to 48 hours in the states east of the Mississippi river.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The first break in the long drought which has gripped the greater part of the country for the last four to five weeks, was seen today in the weather bureau forecast which announced that showers would occur tonight in many states of the South followed by others on Saturday or Saturday night.

At least some temporary relief was in sight for the whole South in the next 24 hours, the bureau predicting showers in Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, and Kentucky tonight and Saturday. Showers also were forecast tomorrow or tomorrow night in Virginia, North and South Carolina.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—With another twenty-four hours of generally fair weather forecast for the entire section of the country from the plain states eastward, the United States weather bureau saw no immediate prospect today for a break in the protracted drought which has gripped a greater portion of the country. Attending high temperatures for the season, which yesterday established records at a number of points in the east and middle west, also were expected to continue at least until tomorrow night.

Until the weather elements—the winds and barometric pressures—get back to a natural course, meteorologically speaking, weather bureau officials say the present dry spell, during which there has been little rain to speak of, in any section of the country with the exception of the Pacific coast, Florida and the east Gulf coast, for the last four or five weeks, will continue. The air, they explain, simply is showing a sluggishness and a lack of movement which is barring the inswamp of moisture bearing air over the country.

Despite the extent and intensity of the drought, however, the damage to crops has been exceedingly small, agriculturists declare, because of the harvest generally being practically over. The most serious effect has been the retarding of winter wheat sowing. Rural communities in wide areas also have suffered from the drying up of streams, wells and reservoirs.

The menace of forest fires, already causing huge damage, and threatening additional loss of life in Canada, in addition to areas, aggregating about 100 square miles, now burning in northern Minnesota, is by far the most feared consequence of the drought. It has caused officials of the forest service of the Department of Agriculture to repeat warnings against lighting fires in the woods. This is the time of year, it is declared, when the "second forest fire" period can be expected, "and with a continuance of the dry weather the spread of

BRITISH SAY THE TURKS ARE DEMANDING MORE THAN WAS OFFERED IN THE ALLIED NOTE

FANS SORE BECAUSE UMPIRES CALLED GAME WITH THE SUN SHINING

Crowd Hoots Umpires And Then Turns To Commissioner Landis—Receipts Of Game Are Given Over To Charity.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—(By The Associated Press.)—The Giants and Yankees, having attempted to appease thousands of fans who weren't a whit satisfied when the second game of the world's series was called by the umpires in the tenth inning with the score tied 3-3, by giving the entire day's receipts to disabled soldiers and charity, returned today to the business of settling the championship. The umpires said it was too dark to play when they called the halt, but there were few fans who agreed with them about the conditions of daylight. It may have been too dark; may be Umpire Hildebrand was fooled by Goggin's bluff, which plays queer tricks with its shadows sometimes. Anyway, there was quite a difference of opinion in the matter.

Some three or four thousand of the fans couldn't forget their dissatisfaction. They had watched the Yankees fight a long, uphill battle after Irish Meusel's homer into the left field bleachers had counted three runs for the Giants in the very first inning, and they wanted to see a finish. They couldn't understand why this wish should not be granted them. And they railed at the umpires until the umpires found cover, then, because there was no one else left on whom to vent their feelings, they turned to Commissioner Landis, the boss of all major league baseball, and they said to him "we don't want anybody to think the game had been called deliberately so that they could play another game and take in more money, so, after consultation with Landis they decided they wouldn't keep one red cent."

And so the third game, with the Giants "at home," again is on today. McGraw's men still have the edge, having won the first game, and today they will play behind Pitcher "Deacon" John Scott, who displayed quite some curving ability during the season. Miller Huggins has selected Waite Hoyt, the youth who caused the Giants no end of worry in the 1921 series, in an effort to even things. Ryan and McQuillan are in shape and ready to assist Scott, should the Yank batters take too kindly to his delivery. Carl Mays, with his subway style, warmed up yesterday when it looked as if Shavkey might not go so well, and he is allotted the same job today.

Casey Stengel, the Giant regular center-fielder, probably will be replaced today by the youthful Cunningham. Stengel, after beating out a slow roller to Scott in the second inning, of the second game, pulled up lame at second after Snyder had hit safely. McGraw removed him and Cunningham ran. It was reported this morning that Stengel may be out for a couple of days.

GEORGIA BEAUTY COMES TO SAD END

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 6.—Eflie Pope Hill, whose glittering romance began with her elopement with Edward B. Alsop, Pittsburgh millionaire, only to come to a tragic end when he divorced her and who now is in a New York hospital, was a former belle of Washington, Wilkes county, Georgia, it was learned here today.

The young woman, who was famed for her beauty when she eloped with the millionaire ten years ago, is a member of a prominent Georgia family. She is the daughter of the late Dr. James Hill, of Washington. Her mother is a member of the Pope family and is said to reside in Macon.

Mrs. Alsop was found hysterical in a dingy room in New York by neighbors. She was carried to a hospital, where it was reported she is suffering from alcoholism and venereal poison. She became a telephone operator after she was divorced. Alsop was 67 and the Georgia girl 17 at the time they were married.

WORCESTER, MASS., Oct. 6.—Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Anne H. Reilly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius J. Reilly, of this city, to Wilfred (Roy) Ryan, the Giants' pitcher, who held the Yankees scoreless in the last two innings of the first game of the world's series.

Prish, 3b; E. Meusel, lf; Young, rf; Kelly, 1b; Cunningham, cf; Snyder, cf; Scott, Ryan or McQuillan, p. Umpire: McCormick. (National) behind plate; Owens, (American) first base; Klein, (National) second base; Hildebrand, (American) third base.

COLE L. BLEASE WILL DEFEND BILL FARRIS

Former South Carolina Governor Will Assist McDow, Of York, In Defense Of Clover Man Who Shot Up Taylor Family Few Weeks Ago.

YORK, S. C., Oct. 5.—That Cole L. Blease, of Columbia, former governor of South Carolina and noted criminal attorney, has definitely been retained to assist in the defense of William C. Faries, whose rampage at Clover a month ago claimed a toll of four lives, became known here today. Blease will be associated in the case with Thomas F. McDow, of York, who was retained by the defendant's family shortly after the tragedy. Mr. McDow has the reputation of being one of the ablest and most successful criminal lawyers of South Carolina and is connected with virtually every murder case tried here.

That the battle between the legal talent when the case is tried here at the term of court convening November 20 will not be one-sided is evidenced by the fact that J. K. Henry, of Chester, the veteran solicitor of the sixth circuit, will have the assistance of John G. Carpenter, of Gastonia, N. C., one of Gaston county's most resourceful and successful attorneys. It is also understood that C. M. Austin, of Gastonia, will be associated with the prosecution, his services having been secured by a fraternal order of which Claude Johnson and Fred Taylor, two of the victims, were members. Mr. Carpenter and J. M. Taylor, father of three of the dead, who has since moved from Clover to Gastonia, were in York a few days ago in the interest of the case.

A true bill was found by the York county grand jury at the September term of court against Faries in each of three indictments for murder, with a fourth indictment pending. The grand jury passed on the indictments charging Faries with the murder of Claude Johnson, Fred Taylor and Miss Lela Taylor, the indictment for the killing of Newton Taylor not having been presented to that body before it adjourned.

When the case was called for trial Thomas F. McDow moved for a continuance to the November term of court on the ground that he had not had time to prepare the defense. He pointed out that it was then only six days after the killing and that he had not had an opportunity to confer with his client since being retained, Faries being in the state penitentiary in Columbia for safe keeping. Mr. McDow advised Judge Pennington that in some of the cases against Faries he saw no defense except on the ground of insanity and that he had been without the opportunity of having Faries examined by alienists. He also alleged that the state of public sentiment just then, fanned by newspaper publicity, might be prejudicial to a calm consideration of the case.

Judge Pennington granted the motion for a continuance, saying he thought it possessed merit in the light of the argument advanced by the defense's counsel. Faries is still in the state penitentiary, where he was hurried a few hours after the killing as a precautionary measure. He is taciturn and moody and has nothing to say on any subject to those who come in contact with him, according to information reaching here.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 6.—

Seated dispatches from Turkish sources in Mudania telling of the arrival of Colonel Plastiras, chief Greek delegate to the armistice conference, say the Greeks are not given the privilege of active participation in the conference but are acquainted by the Allied representatives with all decisions taken. The result of all deliberations here was not announced. It was conceded that the situation was very serious, but it still was hoped that a basis for common agreement among the British, French and Italian delegations could be reached.

The warships bearing the Allied delegates were scheduled to leave at noon, arriving at Mudania at about 2:30 o'clock.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 6.—(By The Associated Press.)—After conferring for most of the night with the high commissioners and military experts here the allied generals this morning prepared to leave again for Mudania, for a resumption of the armistice conference.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 6.—(By The Associated Press.)—The continued arrival of British Naval and Military units has made a further reassuring effect on the Christian population of Constantinople.

The steamer Empress of India came in yesterday with the Grenadier Guards, the latest troops reinforcements. Applications for passports have decreased somewhat and reservations on the Orient Express are again obtainable. The steamship companies are still maintaining inflated prices for outward passages with first-class rates reduced to third-class accommodations.

British And French Governments Must Confer Before Deadlock Is Broken.

THRACE IS THE QUESTION.

Lord Curzon Leaves For Paris To Confer With Poincare.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—(By The Associated Press.)—The Mudania conference is not ended, it was officially stated at the conclusion of the British cabinet meeting this morning, but it is deadlocked and cannot be resumed before the British and French governments have conferred over the situation.

Lord Curzon, the British Foreign Secretary, will leave immediately for Paris to see Premier Poincare.

It was also officially stated, in rough outline, that from the British point of view the Turks are demanding more than was offered in the Allied note, and on the other hand that they were not accepting the conditions of that note. It was asserted that the Turks want to obtain the concessions of the note without the conditions.

The officials decline to give in detail what the Turks were demanding. The British Cabinet today debated the situation in its entirety but the main point appeared to be the question of Thrace. It is understood the British view is that there should be some consideration given the Greek minority population there and what might happen to it if the Turks were permitted to enter.

There seems to be no difficulty over the question of the Chanak area which the British have been occupying.

On broad lines the British policy, it was stated, is the same as it has been in the past. It is understood that the British are opposed to the Turks crossing the straits before the peace conference. It is considered possible several days may elapse before it can be determined whether the divergencies between the British and the Turks can be reconciled so they can enter the peace conference.

The French, however, have not the same positive views with regard to Thrace as have the British, and it was stated that until the various viewpoints could be brought closer together the British could not reply regarding the peace conference.

The Greek attitude in Thrace continues to be an important factor. The Greeks are threatening to arm themselves to fight for Thrace, which means that the British are opposed to the Turks crossing the straits before the peace conference. It is considered possible several days may elapse before it can be determined whether the divergencies between the British and the Turks can be reconciled so they can enter the peace conference.

The French, however, have not the same positive views with regard to Thrace as have the British, and it was stated that until the various viewpoints could be brought closer together the British could not reply regarding the peace conference.

The Greek attitude in Thrace continues to be an important factor. The Greeks are threatening to arm themselves to fight for Thrace, which means that the British are opposed to the Turks crossing the straits before the peace conference. It is considered possible several days may elapse before it can be determined whether the divergencies between the British and the Turks can be reconciled so they can enter the peace conference.

The French, however, have not the same positive views with regard to Thrace as have the British, and it was stated that until the various viewpoints could be brought closer together the British could not reply regarding the peace conference.

The Greek attitude in Thrace continues to be an important factor. The Greeks are threatening to arm themselves to fight for Thrace, which means that the British are opposed to the Turks crossing the straits before the peace conference. It is considered possible several days may elapse before it can be determined whether the divergencies between the British and the Turks can be reconciled so they can enter the peace conference.

The French, however, have not the same positive views with regard to Thrace as have the British, and it was stated that until the various viewpoints could be brought closer together the British could not reply regarding the peace conference.

The Greek attitude in Thrace continues to be an important factor. The Greeks are threatening to arm themselves to fight for Thrace, which means that the British are opposed to the Turks crossing the straits before the peace conference. It is considered possible several days may elapse before it can be determined whether the divergencies between the British and the Turks can be reconciled so they can enter the peace conference.

The French, however, have not the same positive views with regard to Thrace as have the British, and it was stated that until the various viewpoints could be brought closer together the British could not reply regarding the peace conference.

THE WEATHER

Probably showers in west and increasing cloudiness in east tonight; Saturday showers, little change in temperature.