

CHERRYVILLE CHAT.

(Correspondence of The Daily Gazette)

CHERRYVILLE, Oct. 9.—The lovely home of Mrs. John J. George was the scene of a brilliant reception last Friday afternoon, when the Mothers' Club entertained in honor of the Cherryville teachers and the mothers of the town. The rooms were artistically decorated with potted plants, dahlias and other autumn flowers.

Promptly at 5 o'clock the guests began to arrive. They were met at the door by Mesdames R. J. Morrison, J. E. Holt and M. A. Stroupe, who conducted them to the spacious living room and presented them to the receiving line. Those in the receiving line were Mrs. Julia Hall, active vice-president of the Mothers' Club, Mrs. John J. George, hostess, and the following teachers: Prof. A. C. Warlick, Mr. Claud Moser, Mrs. E. E. McDowell, Miss Bona Bumgardner, Miss Janie McMill, Mrs. George S. Falls, Mrs. Hunter Carroll, Miss Ethel Topping, Miss Clara Sullivan, Miss Linnie Kendrick, Mrs. Kimmie Warlick, Miss Browne, Miss Hays, Miss Annie Howell, Miss Annie Rutledge and Mrs. Falls.

The guests were then ushered into the beautiful sun parlor by Mrs. Caldwell Howell, Mrs. M. L. Mauney and Mrs. A. C. Warlick. Presiding at the punch bowl were Mrs. L. C. McDowell, Mrs. D. R. Mauney and Miss Linchen George.

The afternoon was spent very pleasantly, mother and teachers becoming better acquainted. The club is vitally interested in the teachers and the school and the members are striving to make the teachers feel at home in Cherryville.

Another charming social affair of last week was the stag dinner given by Mrs. C. B. Fetner in honor of the birthday anniversary of her husband, Mr. C. B. Fetner. Mrs. Fetner's guests at this dinner last Wednesday evening were Mr. D. P. McClure, Mr. M. C. Mauney, Dr. W. H. Houser, Mr. M. L. Mauney, Mr. West B. Rhyne, Mr. C. A. Rudisill, Mr. D. R. Mauney, Mr. Ezra Moss, Mr. S. S. Mauney, Mr. J. J. George and Mr. Clyde Farris.

Mrs. Fetner served a delicious five course dinner, as follows: Fruit cocktail, fried chicken, stuffed tomatoes, mashed potatoes, celery, fruit salad, ice cream, cake, coffee, cheese.

Mrs. Clyde Farris entertained the following young ladies at dinner last Tuesday evening: Misses Dunlap, Carolyn Douthit, Ruth Dellinger and Linchen George.

JAMAICA (N. Y.) NEWSPAPER MAN KILLS BARTENDER

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Harry Sutphin, owner and editor of the Queensboro Bulletin, of Jamaica, shot and killed William Biermann, a bartender, today, in front of Sutphin's apartment house in Jamaica, the police announced.

Sutphin, who is 64 years old, is one of the best known residents of Jamaica. According to the police Sutphin and Biermann, after spending most of the night at a hotel in Jamaica, were driven toward Sutphin's home in a taxicab and the shooting followed a quarrel. The driver of the taxicab told the police that both men had been drinking and that Sutphin had accused Biermann of abusing him.

Sutphin suddenly drew a pistol, he said, and fired one shot. He then commanded the driver to take him to a hospital.

LAND RECLAMATION IN ITALY PROVING SUCCESSFUL

ROME, Sept. 19.—Pursuing a policy of land reclamation the government, working with private associations, has brought under cultivation 500,000 acres of land which otherwise would be virtually worthless.

In the Ferrara and Modena districts a drainage basin covering over 200,000 acres has been completed, and 150,000 miles of ditches have been built. This work has cost already 30,000,000 lire, and further drainage and irrigation projects will cost as much again.

In the Polesine-San Giorgio district 125,000 acres of swampy malarious land has been converted into some of the most fertile grain fields of Italy.

LOWELL LOCALS

LOWELL, Oct. 9.—Lowell high school girls have again won the State U. D. C. medal for an historical essay. This was won by Miss Hazel Lewis, and was on Matthew Maury. This is the third year in succession that a Lowell high school girl has won this medal. In 1920 Miss Thelma Titman won it on an essay on "Reconstruction Days in Dixie." In 1921 Miss Roberta Rankin, on "Robert Edward Lee," and this year Miss Hazel Lewis, on that wonderful inventor and geographer, Maury. When a great dinner was given after the laying of the Atlantic cable, Cyrus Field was asked to make a speech, he rose and said, "British men furnished the money, I did the work, but Matthew Maury furnished the brains." It was Matthew Maury who first laid out the tracks across the pathless oceans, and discovered the trade winds, and invented the depth bombs. The world owes him a great debt; and these essays must have been wonderfully interesting. The Woman's Club by its Education Department, has greatly influenced these young ladies in their writing, and both high school and club are proud of them.

Friday quite a number of the Presbyterians went by auto to Barium Springs to the dedication of the new building, the funds for which were contributed by the Presbyterian women of the State. There was an interesting program, and dinner was served to the visitors in the large dining room on long rows of tables, with card board plates, forks and spoons.

The Barium Springs girls had done the work and some were up all night making sandwiches, etc., for the visitors. Those who went from Lowell were Mesdames Holland Hand, J. L. Thompson, B. F. Leonhardt, J. W. Reid, J. R. Titman, W. J. Roach, S. M. Robinson, and Coit Robinson, and Misses Nell Titman, Janie Young and Edith Robinson, and Rev. W. J. Roach, and Mr. Holland Hand. The day was a great pleasure and enjoyed by all.

Miss Janie Young spent the week-end at her home in Troutman. She took with her as her guest, Miss Nell Titman, both returning to Lowell on Sunday.

Miss Clara Titman, of Greenville, S. C., spent the week-end at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Lewis, of Dallas, spent Sunday with Mr. Lewis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Reid.

The Men's Bible Class of the Methodist church, with Prof. J. A. Smith as their teacher, had a banquet on Friday night in the "Annex," which was gladly loaned to them for the occasion. There are more than twenty members and there were also some visitors, among the number were Rev. W. J. Roach, Mr. J. M. Alexander, Mr. C. H. Had, Rev. R. H. Hemmington and Mr. Harley B. Gaston.

Mr. Gaston, who is the member of the Assembly from this section, made the men a splendid talk. The refreshments that refreshed the inner man were very delightful and finely served. It was a chicken dinner with plenty of accessories and ice tea and a fruit salad, and that most soothing of dainties, lemon puddings.

These were made in the domestic science department of the school.

The occasion was one of great enjoyment to all, and many thanks were given to those who helped in serving the refreshments and for the loan of the "Annex."

On Saturday night Miss Annie Smith entertained her Sunday school class, also of the Methodist church; this again was in the "Annex." The girls toasted marshmallows and had pickles and cakes for refreshments. It was a great frolic and they all had a good time.

On Sunday morning Rev. Sykes, editor of The Christian Advocate of Greensboro, preached in the Methodist church. The services ended with the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

In the evening the officers of the Epworth League were installed. The league had been organized a week before. Messrs. C. L. Hagar and Harley Gaston, of Belmont, had helped in this. The officers are: Mr. Bernard Wilson, president; Miss Eaves, vice-president; Mrs. A. B. Wilson, superintendent of first department; Miss Annie Smith, superintendent of second department; Mr. G. C. Leonhardt, superintendent of third department; Miss Evelyn Holmes, superintendent of fourth department; Miss Roberta Rankin, agent of Epworth Era and superintendent of fifth department; Miss Covington, superintendent of sixth department; Miss Grace Lowe, secretary, and Mr. Harvey Holmes, treasurer. There are about 40 members.

GIRL BUDDIES TO HOLD FIRST CONVENTION.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 11.—Girl buddies of the soldiers of France, comprising the membership of the Women's Overseas Service League, will meet with the boys they formerly aided for the first time, at the annual convention of the American Legion here.

Though they served side by side with the men in France the overseas girls, including in their ranks canteen workers, searchers, hospital hut workers, entertainers and librarians, are not eligible to Legion membership because of their civilian status during the war.

Already 2,000 former overseas women in thirty cities, are enrolled in the organization formed a little more than a year ago, according to officers. Red Cross, Salvation Army, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Jewish Welfare Board, National Catholic War Council and American Library association women are included in the membership.

A bill to incorporate the league now is before the senate judiciary committee, the house having passed favorably on the measure. Miss Louise Wells of Chicago, national president, announces the organization is non-political and will undertake no legislative program. "Our aim is to give government recognition to the women who were asked to serve their country," said Miss Wells.

Oh, well, the Massachusetts hen that laid an egg exactly the shape of a peanut is a Rhode Island red and probably is merely trying to revolutionize the industry.

HURT ALL OVER

Texas Lady Couldn't Sit, Stand or Lie With Any Comfort. Says "Cardui Did World of Good."

Bartlett, Texas.—Mrs. Nannie Messer, of Route 3, this place, states: "About three years ago I was in a very critical condition. I had been suffering for some time. To tell how I hurt would be impossible. "I just hurt all over. I couldn't sit, stand or lay with any comfort, my back, sides and head all gave me a great deal of trouble. "I was especially bothered with a light swimming in my head. My people were very uneasy about me and sent me to my relatives to see if a change would do me any good. "I stopped at a sister-in-law's and she being a great believer in Cardui, asked me why I didn't use it. I decided to try it. "I had only taken a few doses when I felt it would do me good. This gave hope and I used it right along and it did me just a world of good, since which time I have never ceased to praise Cardui."

Cardui is for simple female complaints and womanly pains and has been found to benefit in thousands of such cases when not due to malformation or that do not require surgical treatment. Try it. NO-126a
