(By MRS. JOE GIBBLE)

Laura Werno Ladies Quartet Coming November 3.

DALLAS, Oct. 24.—Interesting information has been received and is on display in the city concerning the Laura Werno Ladies Quartet, the first Lyceum number to appear in Dallas November 3, under the auspices of the Woman's Club. A ticket sale contest will be put on Friday and Saturday by the Red and Blue committees composed of members of the club. Your dollar spent for ticket will have double value—and the Woman's Club in civic improvement and provide an evening's program of thoroughly picturesque and entertaining musical and dramatic episodes.

High School Boys and Girls Have 'Possum Hunt.

A hunting party composed of a large number of high school boys and girls chaperoned by two members of the faculty, Misses Katherine Cooley and Bunnah Jones motored out three or four miles distant toward the South Fork river Friday night and returned with six lanterns and dogs left the cars and hit the trail for old Brer 'Possum. After some time spent traversing the rendezvous of old Brer Rabbit, dodging among trees and underbrush the dogs set up a mighty yelping assembling the excited crowd who were overjoyed in their first 'possum catch. A baby 'possum was spotted later on but no effort was made to capture it. Peanuts and popcorn provided amusement and strength betimes. 'Possum hunting is great sport, so they say.

Social and Personal Items.

A delightful dinner party Sunday noon, of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Durham, were their daughter, Miss Lela Durham, and friend, Miss Ella Lowe, popular member of the Thomasville school faculty, here for the week-end; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Darby, the latter a daughter, and little son, Richard, of Lowryville, S. C. visiting for the week; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Robinson, Miss Willie Webb, of Dallas; Misses Modena and May Durham, of Gastonia.

Mr. Charley White, the only son of Mrs. Mary White, was honored at a delightful gathering Sunday when his mother prepared and served a delicious dinner at her home in celebration of his 25th birthday anniversary. The table was beautifully arranged with the large birthday cake, a gift of his aunt, Mrs. Orr, of Chester, S. C., adorned with 29 candles as the center decoration.

The guests, besides Mr. White, Mrs. White and two children, were sisters and brother of Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cookran and son, Mr. Arthur Benfield, of Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Groves, of Gastonia; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Orr, of Chester, S. C. Mr. Orr was recently re-elected superintendent of Chester County Home entering upon his tenth year and relates this bit of interesting news concerning Uncle Billy Estes, an inmate there for the past eight years. "Uncle Billy" as he is known, is very skilled in the use of the pocket knife making excellent butter knives, wooden spoons, wooden biscuit cutters and other articles for which he finds ready sales thus providing a little cash for his personal use.

Misses Corinne and Arlee Puett had as their guest for the week-end, Mrs. Ellen Dohman, of Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hoffman motored to Waxhaw Sunday visiting the latter's relatives and were guests at dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Massey, the latter a sister.

Mr. Purvey E. Summey, of Mount Holly, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Summey, en route from New Orleans where he was state delegate to the American Legion convention, which was a delightful trip and the meeting full of inspiration and pep.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Galyan Saturday and Sunday were his mother and sister, Mrs. Mary Galyan and Miss Eva, of Mount Holly.

Mr. E. M. Rhyne and Mr. Haskell Clemmer spent Sunday at Bessemer City with the former's brother, Mr. E. J. Rhyne and family. Mr. Rhyne is slowly improving from an attack of flu. Their little son, Boyce, is out again after an illness of scarlet fever.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Lee and family were Dallas guests at a happy gathering of relatives about 50 strong at the home of his father, Mr. J. H. Lee, at their lovely country home, "Parkdale Farm," near Bessemer City, Sunday. Dinner was served at the spring and consisted of a variety and abundance of good things to eat.

Guests at dinner Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Robinson at their home on Fairview street, were the former's brother, Mr. Walter Robinson and family, of Charlotte, and later on by Mrs. Robinson's brothers, Mr. Clarence Smith, of Charlotte, and Mr. Owen Smith, of Stanley.

Mr. and Mrs. Welch Galloway en route to their home in Brevard from attending the Methodist Conference at Monroe stopped over for the week-end with Mr. E. O. Webb and family.

At "Clover Ridge Farm," the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Rudisill, for the week-end were Misses Evelyn Gibbins and Muriel Balminkle, of the Dallas school faculty, and Miss Katherine Rudisill, of Lenoir College.

Miss Grace Rhyne, of Lenoir College, and Miss Alena Rhyne, of the Belmont school faculty, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Rhyne.

Members of the school faculty out of town for the week-end were Mrs. Clara W. Geer, with the home folks at Rutherfordton; Miss Nellie Wise, with her brother at the home of Mrs. W. Adickes, York, S. C.; Miss Bunnah Jones, with relatives at Forest City. Miss Wilhelmina Pasour, of King's Business College, Charlotte, and Miss Altha May Hastings, of the P. & N. office, Charlotte, spent Sunday at their respective homes.

Those attending the Textile Exposition at Greenville, S. C., were Mr. E. S. Ray and Bob Putnam, of the Dorothy Mill, who joined Mr. P. Murphy and others at Lowell going down Friday. Mr. A. M. Harwell and Mr. T. R. Eidson going Tuesday and Mr. F. H. Robinson, J. E. Durham and G. W. Ballard, of the Moroweb Mill, going at different times.

PAYSOUR MTN. NEWS

(Correspondence of The Daily Gazette.) PAYSOUR'S MOUNTAIN, Oct. 23.—The farmers in this section are about done picking cotton. The cotton is short this season in this section on account of the boll weevil and the dry weather.

Gathering corn, turning land for wheat, oats and rye is the order of the day. The hunters of this section are enjoying a fox hunt every Friday and Monday nights. There is a wild fox in this section and they are certainly having some fun trying to catch him, for he knows his range. He is a gray fox. Some nights they have run him as long as six or six hours.

Mr. Fletcher Tate, of Bessemer City, spent Sunday with his brother, Mr. Zoll Tate.

Mr. L. T. Wyant and sons, Craig and Webb, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Wyant, at Kettle Shoals.

Mr. W. T. Huffstetler and family spent Sunday with Mr. E. D. Tutherford near Lincolnton.

Little Miss Kathleen Wyant spent Saturday with Miss Genevieve Tate.

Mr. Clifton Tutherford, of Lincolnton, spent Sunday with Mr. T. J. Wyant.

Miss Ola Mooney spent Sunday with Miss May Mitchem.

Mr. Oscar Huffstetler and wife spent Sunday with Mrs. Thomas Wyant.

Miss Dovie Lynch, of Laboratory, spent Sunday with Mr. E. L. Johnson.

Mr. Noah Hester and family spent Sunday with his mother.

Trying Automobile Stuff, Eh? (Whitley City Cor. McCreary Co. (Ky.) Record.) Last week, the spotted pony owned by Jailer Cooper which has been throwing the boys so easily, undertook to throw a freight train; and—well you can guess the result. Anyway, the section men collected about 700 pounds of bologna sausage from the track.

Messrs. J. L. and L. D. Gribble visited their aged mother Mrs. Nancy Gribble, Sunday at the home of their sister, Mrs. L. V. Bradley, at Charlotte. Mrs. Gribble is growing weaker daily following a fall sometime ago and is, now under the care of Miss M. L. Sharp, R. N., of Gastonia.

Don't forget to be on hand at the Wilmer Minstrel Saturday night.

Mr. Forest Rhyne Receives Surprise Birthday Dinner Provided By His Sisters.

A happy occasion Sunday was the surprise birthday dinner to Mr. Forest Rhyne at his home at the Myrtle Mill, Gastonia. The old saying, "a woman can't keep a secret" proved false in this case as all provisions were secretly planned by his sisters, he being their only brother. The scheme of telling Mr. Rhyne off to relatives early Sunday morning by his nephew, Mr. Merion Moore, a boarder in the home, worked like a charm. Upon their return about eleven o'clock the home was surrounded by autos and about 40 relatives and friends came out to greet him which was a shocking yet a most pleasant surprise.

The table was spread on the lawn and bountifully filled with delicious viands along with hot coffee and oyster stew.

Special guests were Mr. Williams, superintendent of the Sunday school and Mr. Carter, an excellent singer and song leader of the same Sunday school and their families. Messrs. Williams and Carter gave appropriate talks following the dinner and led the crowd in a number of songs while Mrs. Carter presided at the organ.

This being the assemblage of the immediate family, family worship was conducted by Mr. Williams and a touching prayer offered brought the occasion to a fitting close.

Those present were his sisters and their families, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Queen, Mr. and Mrs. William Carpenter, Mrs. Lizzie Philmon, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hayes, the latter a niece, and stepmother, Mrs. Sarah C. Rhyne, of Dallas. Mr. and Mrs. Sid Pasour and son, Mr. Henry Pasour and wife, of Beaver Dam and several families, friends and relatives of Mrs. Rhyne.
