(Correspondence of The Daily Gazette.)

BESSEMER CITY, Nov. 6.—A theatre party that was inadvertently omitted last week was a jolly masquerade party given by Messrs. Lawrence J. Rhyne, Fred O. Adams, Rhyne, Carl Carpenter, A. Wolfe, Lyle Collins, and Henry Young to the young ladies of the school faculty. Each member of the party wore a Halloween costume, and after enjoying a good picture they went to the home of Mr. Fred Ormand where they enjoyed ghost stories and jokes. Delicious refreshments were abundantly served.

This place has had plenty of amusement for the past week. The Cole circus was here Thursday and that night and gave a good performance with the side shows that always catch the crowd. The Unique Amusement Co., with all sorts of amusements was here all week. From the penny arcade to the fortune wheels, where quite a number of cupid dolls, jewelry, and other prizes were won.

This company reports a good patronage here. They are in Gastonia this week, and expect big returns Armistice Day.

What "white folks" are there, that do not enjoy the colored peoples' singing? A colored minister and his congregation gave a praise service Saturday afternoon on the platform at the depot. A sermon was delivered by one of the Stump town preachers, prayers by the sisters and a number of songs by the congregation during which of course, the hat was passed for the collection. This performance attracted the attention of a good crowd of white people, among whom were quite a number that had never witnessed a service by the coloreds before.

Next Thursday night the "Last of the Mohicans" will be shown at the Piedmont Theater.

Mr. Betrolis Nasar who recently opened a dry goods store here, in the building formerly occupied by Mr. Thomas Cuddy Kitchen, has a fine display of gents' and ladies' ready made clothing, also a beautiful line of furs. Mr. Nasar is assisted by Misses Thelma Pearson and Stella O'Brien.

NO EXTRA EDITIONS OF EVENING NEWSPAPERS

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—With interest in the election greater than it has been for years, New York tonight had no extra editions of evening newspapers after 7 o'clock as the result of an agreement entered into by newspaper publishers when notified that the pressmen of the New York Evening World had elected not to work after that hour.

Under the provisions of the recent Manton award, the pressmen are given the option of working after the regular hours, which on the Evening World end at 7 o'clock.

The agreement of the newspaper owners, entered into when the pressmen announced their intention of ceasing work at the regular hour despite the press of election news, provided that morning papers should not issue extra editions before 10:30 p. m.

Thousands jammed before bulletin boards near Park Row and in other centers were forced to avail themselves of incomplete election editions which were turned off the presses of four newspapers before 7 o'clock.

CHANGE OF LIFE

Florida Lady Was in a Miserable Condition, But Says She Found Cardui Helpful, and Got Well.

Altha, Fla.—In explaining how she found Cardui so helpful during change of life, Mrs. Ella M. Bailey, of Route 2, this place, said: "I became so weakened it was an effort for me to get around. I knew what was the matter, but I felt I couldn't give up. "I just dragged, and I certainly was nervous. I was so restless I could not sit down long—yet so weak I couldn't get about. It is a most miserable and such a helpless feeling. "I would get depressed and out of heart. "I began to feel, after awhile, there was no use to try to get well. This is all wrong, for it makes a person worse. "I had heard of Cardui, and thought it might strengthen me. A neighbor had used it with good results. "I took one bottle (of Cardui), then I saw I wasn't so nervous, so kept it up. "Gradually the nervousness left me. I began to eat and sleep better. Was soon well, and all right. Cardui did wonders for me, and I certainly do recommend it." Thousands of other women have written, to tell of the beneficial results obtained by taking Cardui, and to recommend it to others. Sold everywhere. Try it. NC-146
