HARD ON CHICKENS

Apropos of the Methodist Conference, which convenes at Durham on Wednesday of this week, L. G. Turner, of Burlington, expenses of doing business is quoted Rev. Mr. Norman, a Methodist preacher of blessed himself:

the house and crowed, "N-o-r- trip to town to spend his money. m-a-n-s G-o-i-n-g! N-o-r-m-a-n-s G-o-i-n-g! N-o-r-m-a-n-s G-o- advertisers of The Messenger, i-n-g!" And then a guinea came deserve the patronage of the out of the bushes and replied, home folks. "Ain't I glad! Ain't I glad! Ain't I glad!" And when the guinea BARTLETT YANCEY got through rejoicing an old duck came waddling up out of the water and threw his head up in the air, and said, "H-a-a! H-a-a! H-a-a! H-a-a!"

Real Snappy, Stylish Stuff In Correct Clothes

This week we would address the man who cares-the man who is particular about his clothes.

And let us say right off of the reel that we can furnish the careful dresser with fabrics, cuts and styles that are not surpassed in America.

We are catering to the discriminating taste of the man who cares. Our store is now featuring high-class suits, overcoats, hats, shoes, underwear. It is quality merchandise to which attention is called this week.

On display in our new modern haberdashery, 238 Main Street, are to be found the latest creations in suits and overcoats that are warm without undue weight; modish and well-tailored without being freakish; correct in fit without being stiff; low in price without being cheap in quality.

In BOYS' SUITS, we have nobby patterns in the latest styles that will make the youngster look like a prince. In boys' school clothes, we have pants with double seat and knees. This is a real trouble saver for the mother.

Our perfectly tailored clothes impart to the man who cares a sense of self-confidence and wellbeing, which assures a ready entrance into the company of those who care. If the reader will allow us the privilege of fitting him we will guarantee that in fashion, fit and color his toggery will not offend the artistic taste of his most discriminating friend.
