SERVICE

WHILE You are in Danville selling your tobacco—or just on a visit—drive your car into our shop to get that little (or big) repair job done that you have been putting off so long.

PERHAPS You have been too busy to take the car to the shop. Those curtains should be keeping you nice and dry and warm. That hole in the top has been leaking. The broken windshield does not keep the cold wind out.

IF The connecting rods are tightened the motor will sound like a smooth new one—grinding the valves and cleaning the carbon will make it pull "that hill" in high again—in fact a little tightening up here and there will make you proud of the "Old Bus."

FOR Top, curtain and glass repairs drive in on the third floor. For motor, axle, and tire jobs go to the second floor. We can handle any job—big or little—that you might need done to your Ford, at standard prices. We use only Genuine Ford Parts.

LET US DO THE REPAIRS WHILE YOU ARE WAITING FOR THE TOBACCO SALES

(For night emergency—to be pulled in—call Danville 4563 or 2259. Prompt Service).

SEMORA

Mrs. W. T. Bryant, Miss Elizabeth and Frank Bryant spent the week-end visiting Mrs. W. D. Fullington and W. A. Jordan.

Miss Gertrude Nglson, who is teaching music in Hillsboro, N. C., spent Thanksgiving with homefolks.

Mr. R. E. Jordan, of High Point, spent Thanksgiving with his sister, Mrs. W. D. Fullington.

Miss Mabel Stephens left Sunday for Thomasville, N. C., to resume her school work. Miss Stephens has been home for some time recuperating from an attack of typhoid fever. Her many friends will be glad to know she is able to take up her work again.

A marriage of much interest was solemnized on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, when Mr. W. A. Jordan, and Mrs. Kate Yarborough Teague motored to Chatham, Va., and were united in marriage by Rev. H. B. Hardaway. They were accompanied to Chatham by R. E. Jordan, brother of the groom; Mr. Irvin Jordan, and Miss Mary Emma Jordan. Mr. Jordan is a prosperous farmer of this section, and Mrs. Teague is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Allen Yarborough of Milton, N. C. The best wishes of their many friends are extended to this happy couple.

Mrs. Luellyn Davis, who has been living with Mr. W. A. Jordan for several years, leaves to make her home with her sister, Mrs. Doras Page, near Yanceyville. Mrs. Davis will be greatly missed, for she has endeared herself to every one in this community during her stay among us.
