CORBETT
 Mrs. T. A. Boland charmingly entertained the members of her Sunday school class at her home at Corbett, on Saturday evening. Summer flowers made the home inviting and attractive.

The hostess was assisted in the entertaining by her sister, Mrs. J. Bascom Hurley, of Rougemont, N. C., who was her house guest at the time.

Two interesting contests were enjoyed. Boxes of fudge were given as prizes, one going to Miss Elizabeth Dailey and Mr. Howard Stainback and the other to Miss Georgia Smith and Mr. Oswald Hooper.

After some games a delicious salad course followed with mints was served by Mrs. Boland, Mrs. R. A. Hooper, T. E. Smith, Mrs. G. C. Satterfield and Miss Daisy Miles.

Each member of the class was allowed to bring a friend so there were about forty guests present.

Lieutenant Peerman Moore, of Washington, D. C., formerly of Milton, will be married to Miss Pender, of Norfolk, on Saturday night, July 2nd. Miss Annie Dailey Connally will attend the wedding.

Authorities say they think prices of farm products will be good.
