CURLEE CLOTHES

A Curlee Top Coat will feel mighty comfortable these cool days and evenings. Our new raglan shoulder coats will give you a decidedly "dressed up" appearance too, for they are as new and crisp as the weather itself.

Style and comfort stand out strong in every line, but the thing that will appeal to you most is the low price at which they are being sold.

PRYOR-GATEWOOD

(From Reidsville Review)
Striking in simplicity, and impressive beauty was the marriage Saturday night at 8:30 o'clock of Miss Bessie Lee Pryor and Willard B. Gatewood at the home of the bride's parents at Pelham.

The Nuptial color scheme of green and white was beautifully carried out by the use of white chrysanthemums and ferns. Pedestals bearing large cathedral candles cast the lovely light over the scene. Before an altar of ferns, the vows were spoken before Rev. G. W. Williams in the presence of only relatives of the bride and groom.

To the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal March skillfully rendered by Miss Frances Osborne of Danville the bride and groom entered together from the hall. "Love and Flowers" was played during the ceremony.

The bride was charming in a gown of autumn brown with matching accessories. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies. Her only ornament was a platinum pin, the gift of the groom.

Mrs. Gatewood who is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Pryor possesses a gracious and charming manner which has endeared her to numerous friends. She is a graduate of Averett College, Danville, Va., with the class of 1927.

Mr. Gatewood is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Gatewood, of Pelham. He was educated at Chatham, Va., and is a young man of pleasing personality and sterling character.

After a motor tour to Asheville, North Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. Gatewood will be at home at their attractive new bungalow near here.

YANCEYVILLE

The Young People's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church met with Miss Elsie Hooper Saturday afternoon. An interesting program on "Home Missions" was given after the business meeting. Especially pleasing reports were made by the spiritual and social service committees. During the social hour sandwiches and hot chocolate were served by the hostess. Those present were: Misses Florine and Alice Henderson, Annie Gunn, Frances Dodson, Mary Lyn Hodges, Elsie Clara and Louise Hooper and Mrs. S. M. Bason. The society will meet December 3 with Miss Frances Dodson.

Miss Elsie Hooper spent Sunday in Greensboro. Mesdames H. L. Gwynn, A. L. Florance and Misses Mary Lea Florance and Mary Johnston spent Wednesday in Greensboro shopping.

The Mission Study Class of the Presbyterian Woman's Auxiliary met with Mrs. S. M. Bason Thursday afternoon. A most interesting book, "If Ye Know These Things," is being studied. Week of prayer and self-denial is observed in connection with the mission study.

Prof. and Mrs. S. H. Abell spent past week-end with relatives at Elon.

Miss Grace Doub spent the past week-end with friends in Greensboro.

Messrs. S. M. Bason, T. J. Henderson and John O. Gunn attended the football game in Greensboro Saturday.

HIGHTOWERS DOTS

William Hightowers and C. Frank Smith spent Sunday at Ruffin.

Mr. Tom Rudd, a well known farmer of Hightowers, died Sunday morning after a brief illness. Mr. Rudd had been in declining health for several months but was not confined to his room long. The interment took place Monday, October 31, at Hebron cemetery, Rev. Mr. Hood conducting funeral rites.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Smith visited relatives near Roxboro the past week-end.

Mr. Warren and son sold a large load of the golden weed in Reidsville this week.

Mesdames Florila and W. D.

Florance and Ella Baynes called at C. C. Smith's Saturday afternoon.

W. D. McMullen, of Brown Summit, spent last week with his parents here.

Mrs. John McMullen and sons visited at Mr. Charles Barnwell's last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Florance and mother called at Mr. J. L. Warren's Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Hallie Warren and little daughter, Leatrice of High Point, are spending a few days at J. L. Warren's.

Miss Ila Warren has been sick with a cold but is much improved at this writing.

Rev. W. W. McMorries preached an excellent sermon at Griers Sunday, November 6. There was a good attendance.

Some of our people attended the afternoon service at Red House Presbyterian church at Semora Sunday and report a splendid service.

The Christian Endeavor of Griers and Bethel churches met at Griers Sunday evening, at 7:00 o'clock.

C. C. Smith sold a small load of tobacco at Farmers Warehouse, Mebane, N. C., and was well pleased.

A negro youth, George Richmond, age 10 years, was hit and instantly killed by a truck loaded with tobacco, driven by Nat Barnett, negro, in front of the negro school house at Hightowers, Wednesday, November 2, at 3:00 o'clock, during the time of the afternoon recess. The boy ran into the road to get a ball that was hit out there by another boy. It seems that the boy jumped off a bank into the road in front of the truck. All eye-witnesses say the accident was unavoidable.

LEASBURG

Mr. and Mrs. John Pulliam and daughter, Mary Catharine, of Winston-Salem, spent Sunday with Mrs. Pulliam's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Newman. Miss Mildred Connally returned with them to Winston-Salem, for a week's visit to relatives.

Miss Sallie Newman, of Duke University, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Newman.

Died October 25 of whooping cough, the 18-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frost. In-

Camel

Made for one purpose
—to promote pleasure

Camel is attuned to the mood of the smoker who seeks pleasures rather than panaceas. Offered as a cheer not as a cure.

If all cigarettes were as good as Camel you wouldn't hear anything about special treatments to make cigarettes good for the throat. Nothing takes the place of choice tobaccos.

CLEAR EYE PICTURES MEAN CLEAR UNDERSTANDING

If what you read doesn't go through your eyes right, how can it get through your mind clear? See easily and you'll understand quickly. Eyes under strain hinder understanding. You read without getting a clear picture. With correct glasses your eyes do not "muddle" your mind by calling for help. The glasses give them the strength they lack.

Nearly every acre of land planted to tobacco and peanuts in Martin county this year has been planted to a cover crop. This means that between 30,000 and 35,000 acres have been so planted.

Lousy poultry will be unthrifty this winter. Some farmers are finding their flocks heavily infested at this time of the year.

terment was in Leasburg cemetery.

Mrs. Cooper, principal of Leasburg school and son, Gerald, motored to Durham Saturday. They were accompanied back by Mr. Cooper and son, Albert, who spent Sunday in Leasburg.

Rev. E. R. Clegg preached a good sermon here on the fifth Sunday, at the close of which three members were taken into the church.

Mrs. W. E. Connally underwent a successful operation at a hospital in Durham, and was absent for a week from Olive Hill school, of which she is a member of the faculty.

There was a Halloween party at the school building October 31. The decorations were artistic and appropriate for the occasion. Fortunes were told, and eatables and other things were sold.

The Woman's Missionary Society served lunch to the Junior Order the evening of November 4. It was a beautiful moonlight night, and quite a number were in attendance.
