ANDERSON NOTES

A large crowd attended the Hallowe'en party given at Anderson school Monday night. Every one looked his best and lots of fun was enjoyed by old and young.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stanfield, Mrs. J. M. Baynes and Mrs. Ella Baynes spent Tuesday in Danville shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Florance visited relatives at Hightowers Thursday afternoon.

Mr. A. S. Huse, from Babson Park, Florida, is spending some time visiting his sister, Mrs. B. B. Vaughn.

Mrs. W. D. Florance and Mrs. Thomas Smith left Tuesday morning to attend the State Parents-Teachers convention in Charlotte and will be gone until Thursday.

Mrs. R. H. Norris' little folks have been shut in at home with the measles, but they are recovering nicely and will soon be back in school.

Little Miss Louise Baynes, from Burlington, spent the week-end visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Vaughn.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Miles and sisters, and Mr. B. B. Vaughn enjoyed the birthday dinner given at Mr. M. B. Miles in Mebane, Sunday.

Mr. W. M. Miles, from Danville, spent the week-end visiting his brother, Mr. M. W. Miles.

Mrs. F. B. Goodson and Mrs. Maggie Barnwell spent Saturday in Burlington shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Walker and children, Mrs. Roy Page and Mrs. T. E. Smith spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Florance.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Standbach, Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Norris, Mr. and Mrs. John Miles and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Miles, from Danville, were pleasant dinner guests at Mr. J. M. Baynes Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Harrelson spent Sunday afternoon visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Smith.

Mr. James Kimbro has been real sick the past week but we hope he will soon be able to get out again.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Kimbro and family spent Sunday visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. L. Bradley.

SEMORA NOTES

Mr. L. E. Pickard, of Durham, was in town Tuesday.

Mesdames J. H. McAden, W. L. Taylor, O. H. Winstead, and E. E. Talley spent Thursday in Danville.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Allen visited Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Chandler Friday evening. After a pleasant game of Rook and listening to the radio refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. Lloyd, of Duke University, was a pleasant visitor here Sunday.

Mr. Carver, of Oak Ridge, visited friends here Sunday.

Mr. Winstead, of Roxboro, visited here Sunday.

Mrs. W. C. Wilkerson, of Ridgeville, visited here Sunday.

Home-Coming Day was observed at Red House Presbyterian church Sunday. A good program was rendered. Representatives were there from Bethesda, Griers, Yanceyville, Milton, and Danville Presbyterian churches.

Dr. Dunganson, of the First Presbyterian church of Danville, preached a splendid sermon in the evening. A good crowd was in attendance and a beautiful dinner added to the pleasure of the occasion. Red House is rich in history. It has been a place of worship for more than a hundred years; in fact, it is one of the oldest churches of Caswell county. It was here before Cornwallis with his ruthless gang came.

Messrs. Hunter and John Baxter Kersey, of Lawrenceville, made a short visit here Thursday, stopping by to see their aunt, Mrs. T. M. Allen.

Miss Vida Lee Stephens, of Durham, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stephens.

Mr. J. A. Kersey, of Lawrenceville, Va., spent Friday night with his sister, Mrs. T. M. Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Otha Johnson and Miss Liller Ray, of Emporia, Va., and Mr. Math Rainey, of Baskerville, Va., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Winstead. Mr. O. H. Winstead went to Burlington Tuesday on a business trip.

COBB MEMORIAL SCHOOL AND COMMUNITY NEWS

(Crowded out last week)

Mr. Wilson Nethery, of Nicaragua, Central America, is visiting in the community. Mr. Nethery was a member of the class of 1923 of Cobb Memorial school. He has been in the United States navy for the last three years.

Gertrude Daniel and Lily Jones gave Miss Louise Gatewood a surprise party last Friday night. There were twenty or more young people present. The guests played many interesting games after which the hostesses served apples and candy.

Last Friday afternoon the Cobb Memorial girls met the Prospect Hill girls on the latter's court. The game was hard played by the Prospect team but they were unable to get anywhere as the Cobb team was superior in passing and good throwing. The game was very interesting, though the score stood 52 and 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Daniel, of Roxboro, were the week-end guests of Mrs. Daniel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Daniel.

Miss Wilson Gatewood spent the past week at Burlington, N. C. Miss Lavinice Anne Green and Miss Ola King spent the past week-end in Greensboro.

On last Friday evening at 10:15 o'clock Mr. P. H. Carroll died at the home of his son, Mr. R. H. Carroll. Mr. Carroll was 76 years old. He had been in bad health for some time but his death was very unexpected. He was buried Sunday afternoon at Providence church. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Tom Hodges, A. T. Sykes, T. M. Walker, W. W. McFarling, John Goodson, W. S. Loftis. Flower-bearers: Bertha, Minnie and Nettie Carroll, Lessie Carroll, of Richmond, Glades Morgan of Winston-Salem, and Mrs. Ola Burrow of High Point.

The boys in the Agriculture Class are making some rustic furniture. They have samples on exhibit in the auditorium. This furniture is for sale at any price you think it is worth. They are thinking of having an auction sale soon. Don't miss it.

Miss Mary Owen Blackwell spent last week-end at her home, Alton, Va.

Dr. Badget and Mr. John Ragland attended the Wake Forest-Davidson game in Greensboro Saturday.

The following alumni, of Cobb Memorial school were at home from college this week-end: Elizabeth Gatewood of N. C. C. W., John White, Glenn Williamson of Duke University, and Tom Neal of Davidson.

The boys' basketball team of Cobb Memorial school wishes to apologize to the Prospect Hill boys' team for their failure to play them last Thursday. There are so few boys in high school this year that it is almost impossible for them to have a team.

The Parent-Teacher Association of Cobb Memorial school gave a Hallowe'en party Friday night. Fifty dollars were cleared. This amount will be used to pay for teachers' dishes which were bought through the association this year.

Mr. R. H. Carroll and family wish to thank the neighbors and friends for their kindness shown during the sickness and death of their grandfather.

PROVIDENCE ITEMS

We are glad to note that the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Louie Goodson, who has been very sick, is improving.

Mrs. Belle Neal is spending the week with Mrs. Louie Goodson.

Among the visitors at Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Yarbrough's last Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Slaughter and son, Eugene, of near Milton, N. C., Lem Yarbrough, of Danville, Va.

Mrs. John Danridge, of Martinsville, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Lucy Lovell.

Miss Gladys Wilson, of Shady Grove, spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Louie Goodson.
