W. N. LEA, OF BLANCH VERY ILL AT MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

W. N. Lea, who has been making his home for three years with his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Farmer, at Blanch, has been in declining health for some time. Recently he became so ill as to make his removal to Memorial hospital, Danville, necessary. The doctors are said to be puzzled about Mr. Lea's malady. But he is now improved and ready to return home soon.

Mrs. Bertha Lea Chapman and Miss Fannie Lea, both teachers at the Bartlett Yancey high school are the daughters of Mr. Lea. Other daughters are: Miss Lessie Lea, now teaching at State Teachers College, Troy, Alabama; Miss Stella Lea, now teaching at Wilson, N. C., and Miss Ola Lea, of Soco, Va., who has been teaching there as a missionary for about three years prior to the revolution, but who has been since the school was closed by the revolution in China, doing evangelistic work.

Miss Lessie Lea graduated and taught for four years at the State Teachers College, Farmville, Va. Since that time she has won her "B.S." and her Master's degrees at Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn.

Mr. W. N. Lea and his accomplished family own a home at Ringgold, Va., and lived there prior to coming to Caswell three years ago.

MESSRS. MCCONNELL AND MOOSE IN YANCEYVILLE

M. P. McConnell and M. A. Moose, of Burlington, respectively the manager and assistant manager of the J. C. Penny Company's store at Burlington, were visitors in the village last Monday, stopping in while here to greet the Messenger folks and to take a peep at the print shop. The Messenger appreciates the friendly call very much, and all the more so because these friends took part of their Christmas holiday to make an excursion up into Caswell. We trust that they will come often now that they have found the way.

A TURKEY DINNER AT THE WILLIAMSON'S

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Williamson served a delightful turkey dinner with all the trimmings to a small company of the home folks, on Wednesday of this week. Those partaking of the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Williamson were: Mrs. Lelia Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Williamson and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Turner and family, Mrs. J. H. Buck and child and W. C. Jones.

BRINGING SOME FINE COWS TO CASWELL

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dailey, of Blanch, and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Henderson and daughter, Florine Henderson, have returned from a motor trip to the valley of Virginia, seeing the sights of that wonderful stretch of country. Messrs. Dailey and Henderson were enraptured with the fine stock farms and herds of beautiful cattle. They were successful in purchasing a number of highly bred Guernsey cows, some of which they hope to dispose of to other farmers of this county.

MRS. BASON HOSTESS TO Y. P. MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Mrs. S. M. Eason was hostess to the members of the Presbyterian Young Peoples' Missionary Society Thursday afternoon. A much enjoyed contest was entered into. Mrs. S. J. Henderson won the prize a dainty powder puff. Each member received a gift from the beautiful Christmas tree. Refreshments, consisting of hot chocolate and sandwiches were served. The hostess was assisted in serving by Misses Elsie Hooper and Florine Henderson.
