The Hellenian this past year, through the courtsey of the Editors, was dedicated to the Hon. Julian S. Carr, cf Durham, an honored alumnus of the University and one of its firmest friends, As all the men at the University know, the Hellenian was a decided failure, financially. At the beginning of the present session there was nearly $200, 00 owing to Mr. Whitaker, the agent of Charles H. Elliott & Co., of Philadelphia, the publisher of the book. Through the efforts of one of the Business Managers, Mr. Carr, very generously donated the sum of $100,00 toward defraying the expenses of the book. The Hellenian and the University appreciates beyond expression the kindness of Mr. Carr. This action on his part is but one of the many noble gifts and donations which have made him universally loved by the people of the state as a philanthropist whose pocket is open to all just appeals for aid, and where charity is so great that it is not abridged by creed; race or

The above picture represents either Mr. A. H. McFadyen or Mr., B. Bush Lee. It is not positively known which it is, the artist who took the picture says it was dark in the room and he only got a snap shot. The picture was taken at King's mountain this last summer while Mr. McFadyen and Mr. Lee were studying geology under Prof. Cobb.

2. What Shall a Young Man Do? Papers on different professions by young men who have won success in their professions. The series begins with a paper on JOURNALISM, by Amos P. Wilder.

3. Undergraduate Work of Famous Men. Began in April, with an essay by James K. Polk, President of the United States, written while he was a student at the University of North Carolina in his Junior year. Others are to follow.

4. Valuable Historical Documents, Papers bearing on our colonial history will be published for the first time. Several eminent men are now at work upon the notes and annotations. Valuable letters from the Swain collection, with even more valuable annotations by a distinguished student and teacher of history will appear from time to time. Our Magazine is the only college paper quoted in Winsor's Narrative and Critical History of America, and it is taken regularly by the great libraries of the country for its historical articles.

5. The Bester Schools for Women. A series of interesting papers beginning with old Salem Academy which has educated the wives and mothers of so many eminent men.

6. A Japanese Nobleman will contribute one or more articles on the Recollections of a Japanese Childhood and A Jap Boy's Im-
