

Coker

THE TAR HEEL.

THE OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE UNIVERSITY ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION.

Vol. 4.

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA, CHAPEL HILL, N. C., SEP, 28, 1895.

No. 1.

Foot Ball Prospects.

"What are the foot ball prospects?" Write a number of our alumni to the penner of these lines. Well, let's see.

Sharpe, Collier, Baird, Gregory, Moore of last year's Varsity are back and will play this year. Stevens, and Stanley are in College, Keanan of the '64 team also is here; but none of the latter will play for the eleven this year. White and Wright, subs last year, are here—Little, J. E. sub. with old "Towser" in '94, is 30 or more pounds bigger and should play since his health is good again.

The class teams give Rogers, a likely candidate, who will captain the "Scrubs" this year, Joyner, Allen, McRae, McAlister, Haywood and several other good fellows—Dockery is back too.

Now of the new material, Butler from Georgia, Whitaker from A. and M. will help matters a good deal.

These men were captains or star players on their respective teams.

Carson, Nicklin and Breese should do well, we will not name all of the good material.

The mean hot weather is disagreeable for training.

Last year we began the season with two old Varsity men. The team was creditable. There are five this year and just as good raw material. North Carolina grit should tell. Will it?

Guion and the others will be greatly missed, but we should feel that any man's place can be filled.

Yale lost Heffelfinger, but Hickok came in; Princeton lost Jesse Riggs to get "Beef" Wheeler. We lost Little to get Baird, Whedbee to get Moore.

Now these vacant places can and must be filled by just as good men as have hitherto occupied them.

There are men here who are thoroughly capable. Come out men and work. All College join in and boost up the clumsy, cheer the team every day.

Gregory is a good successor to Guion and Mr. Trenchard's reputation as a player and coach is too high to require anything from the writer in praise. Let all college know that the coach alone, nor a dozen coaches can turn out a team without work, hard conscientious, faithful work, no shirking on the part of the candidates.

The college as an entire united body must stand by, cheer, yes! just force the men to victory.

The prospects are good. Come everybody and help. We must win.

Y. M. C. A.

On Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Chapel, Dr. Battle will address the student body and citizens of the town on "Family Life in the Bible." As this paper was prepared for the Southern Biblical Assembly at Asheville and received with highest praise there, you cannot afford to miss it. Note the hour and come. The Association will welcome you.

The Summer School.

The Second Session of the University Summer School began on Tuesday morning, June 25, and closed on Friday, July 26. All the advantages of the University, save dormitories, were offered to those present.

There were two departments, Academic and Pedagogic, offering twenty-two courses of instruction. The Academic courses were intended for those desiring riper scholarship and broader base of knowledge. It brought university education within the power of all. Classes in Latin, Mathematics, and Modern Languages had the same instruction as is offered in the Fall Term of the University. Applicants for entrance into the University as well as regular students after examination and approval of the professors in charge, were allowed to count their work towards graduation.

The department of Pedagogy taught many for the first time that there was a scientific method in presenting knowledge to a learning mind.

There were 140 registered students, besides 19 instructors. There were about twice as many ladies present as men. A model primary class in spelling and reading by the phonic method was conducted throughout. The children in the class are not counted in registration.

As is known, both men and women were here. The fact that the women showed such zeal and interest in higher learning, coupled with the ability of those present, led the faculty of the Summer School to enquire towards the close whether the doors of the University should not be opened to women.

Fifty-six members of the school came from the city public schools. Thirty-five from private schools. Fourteen from the University. Twelve from colleges and high schools, Ten from public schools. Five states were represented, S. C., Va., Tenn., Penn. and N. C.

The profit was none the less because of the pleasure attending such a company. In fact, the seriousness, the earnestness, the spirit of work which prevailed was marked by the visitors. Yet such diversions were afforded as made the work healthful. No cases of sickness were reported.

Considering the second term of the school and the number almost three times that of last year, we may well predict for it a future of usefulness and helpfulness to the cause of higher education in our State.

The fact that such a large proportion of those licensed to practice law in this state are prepared for their profession at the University is indeed gratifying to the many friends of the Law Department. The rapid increase in attendance also goes to attest to its superior worth and merit.

Managed so efficiently as it is, its permanent success is assured.

The Centennial Commencement, Ball and Germans.

Since last June nothing but praises have been for the grandest and most complete success of the University, her centennial commencement. Chief among the elements of its success and pre-eminent among its pleasant features, stand its Ball and German. For weeks the Chief Ball Manager and his assistants had been attentively and busily engaged in preparing for the Centennial dances, the greatest social event of U. N. C. The magnificent gymnasium floor, famous throughout our State, and indeed the entire South, was never in a better condition.

Long before the Glee Club Concert on the evening of June seventh was over, many were the impatient and radiant faces turned with expectancy toward the dancing hall, where at 10:30 sharp the First Regiment Band pealed forth the Grand March which ushered in the lovely and long-expected Senior Ball of the '95. Centennial. It was a beautiful sight to look in upon that dazzling, palpitating throng of Southern Beauty and manliness. The unequalled beauty of Southern women is a universally admitted fact; and amid this throng were to be seen the loveliest of the lovely, the pick of that Southern Beauty.

"There was a sound of revelry by night,
And Carolina's Varsity had gathered there
Her Beauty and her Chivalry, and bright
The lamps shone o'er fair women and brave men;
Three hundred hearts beat happily; and when
Music arose with its voluptuous swell,
Soft eyes looked love to eyes which spoke again,
And all went merry as a marriage bell."

The white and blue costumes of the young ladies betokened their sincerest interest and most intense loyalty for our beloved Varsity. The large white and blue sleeves were thoroughly typical of the patriotism and magnitude of the occasion. In short, fans, slippers, gloves, dresses and all bore our adopted colors—white and blue.

The Germans of the afternoon and the evening of June, seventh, were a repetition of the Ball, only on a much grander scale. The figures led by the Chief Ball Manager, Mr. E. C. Gregory, were especially beautiful and intricate, showing supreme skill and easy mastery of the leader's art.

At three o'clock on the morning of the last German, the Ball Managers presented their rosettes as follows:

Chief, E. C. Gregory, to Miss Sallie Kenan; Sub. J. C. Eller, to Miss Sadie Bitting; Sub. J. H. Andrews, to Miss Lillie Hoke; Sub. J. H. Dangerfield, to Miss Mary Conrad; Sub. W. G. Clark, to Miss Mary Calder; Sub. S. H. Hill, to Miss Lucy Young; and Sub. W. H. Woodson, to Miss Elizabeth Gibson.

Just as the first rays of the morning sun appeared the last strains of the last encore of "Home Sweet Home," faded away, and to the sorrow of all the delightful German was over. One and all of the participants declared this to be the most successful and enjoyed occasion ever attended; and, with congratulations to themselves on being able to be present and to the Ball Manager, and the regrets that the dances were over, they vowed to one another their intention of returning again next commencement. May the Centennial Commencement dances of 1895 be as pleasant and successful as were those of 1895!

The following is a list of the young ladies present:

Misses Sallie Kenan, Wilmington, N. C. Sadie Bitting; Lillie Hoke, Raleigh; Jesse Gregory, Halifax; Kate Prescott, Weldon; Blanche Edwards, Franklin, Va.; Janie Andrews, Raleigh; Augusta Strupper, South Carolina; Julia Daggett, Wilmington; Isabella Graham, Hillsboro; May Harrison, Rockingham; Lucile Reid, Reidsville; Cora Williamson, Orlando, Fla.; Lizzie Morehead, Lizzie Tucker, Henderson; Hattie Walker, Danville, Va.; Kate Cohen, Weldon; Mary Polk Davis, Wilmington; Cary Davis, Wilmington; Cammie Lord, Wilmington; Mary Calder, Wilmington; Elsie Skinner, Waynesville; Mary Conrad, Winston; Mary Turner, Raleigh; Kate Wood, Edenton; Alice Collins, Hillsboro; Lizzie Taylor, Florida; Lila Carr, Durham; Nora Patton, Pennsylvania; Sosnie Busbee, Raleigh; Louie Busbee, Raleigh; Julia Alexander, Charlotte; Mary Steele, Charlotte; Fannie Davis, Georgia; Violet Alexander, Charlotte; Matilda Heardt, Durham; Bessie Atkinson, Franklin, Va.; Eliza Williams, Fayetteville; Eulah Holt, Richmond, Va.; Lila Jones, Charlotte; Bessie Robertson, Charlotte; Lou Robertson, Charlotte; Carrie Holt, Raleigh; Lucy Young, Washington, D. C.; Fannie McAden, Charlotte; Fannie Butt, Charlotte; Dora Carr, Snow Hill; Mina Brcm, Charlotte; Louisa Todd, Atlanta, Ga.; Mattie Phillips, Tarboro; Annie Peebles, Raleigh; Pennie Whedbee, Hertford; Lottie Tomlinson, Durham; Madaline Douglass, Greensboro; Sadie Webb, Demopolis, Ala.; Dora Webb, Alabama; Katherine Bryan, Newbern; Lillian Staples, Greensboro; Blanche Haase, Wheeling, West Va.; Sadie Jones, Lenoir; Lucy Taylor, Catherine Lake; Willie Bumgardner, Stanton, Va.; El Green, Wilson; Beulah Wilson, Morganton; Caddie Fulghum, Goldsboro; Kate Farris, Canada, Elizabeth Gibson, Concord; Laura Payne, Washington, D. C.; Fan Rogers, Concord; Louise Norwood, New York; Fannie Lake, New York; Helen Hampton, Illinois; Carrie Rollins, Asheville; Annie Carrier, Asheville; Nina Johnson, Asheville; Lizzie Hinsdale, Raleigh; Mable Kase, Greensboro; Louise Jones, Patterson; Lilla Young, Winston; Mable Tomlinson, Durham; Della Lamb, Williamston; Mary Waddell, Greensboro; Kate Waddell, Greensboro; Sadie Graham, Washington, D. C.; Carrie Furman, Asheville; Lucy Steele, Asheville; Alethea Collins, Hillsboro; Kate Broadfoot, Fayetteville; Sally Cotton, Cottondale; Bessie Henkle, Baltimore, Md.; Blanch Blake, Raleigh; Belle Means, Concord; Kate Means, Concord; Pauline Means, Concord; Daisy Smith, Goldsboro; Sallie Tull, Kingston; Mary Pescud, Raleigh; Florence Glenn, South Boston, Va.; Lizzie Craw, Raleigh; Annie Busbee, Raleigh; Lillie Small; Greensboro; Kate Haywood, Raleigh; Mary Harris, Chapel Hill; Ruth Ferebee, Portsmouth, Va.; Mary Ferebee, Portsmouth, Va.; Kate Badger, Raleigh; Janet Badger, Raleigh; Clyde Mason, Chapel Hill; Ethel Roberts, Durham; May Pegram, Charlotte. Ethel Bagley, Raleigh; Ella Burwell, Raleigh; ——— Burwell, Raleigh; Margaret McCall, Greensboro; Mary McCauley, Chapel Hill.

Our Exchanges.

This being our first issue for this year, our exchange list is rather small this week.

The following, however, have been received:

The Raleigh Press-Visitor, The Vanderbilt Hustler, The F. & M. Weekly, and The Sewanee Purple.

The Hustler says that foot ball prospects are better than ever before; seven of last year's team are in training with an abundance of material from last year's scrub team and the freshman class. Upton of U. Pa. has been secured as coach. The Hustler says: "Our first game will be with North Carolina if the plans now made can be carried out."

The Purple says that: Foot-ball at Sewanee is in a precarious condition."

They have not yet secured a coach and foot-ball affairs seem to be in a very unsettled and unsatisfactory state at present.