

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Coming, Tom Dixon.

Miss Kirkland spent Sunday in Durham.

Dr. Baskerville spent Sunday in Raleigh.

Arthur Cobb and Messrs. Carr spent Sunday in Durham.

We are sorry to hear of the sickness of Mr. Shannonhouse.

Bishop Cheshire preached at the Episcopal Church Monday night.

Mr. John Stanley Thomas is attending the Newberne Fair.

Mr. Sol Mason of Durham, visited his home in Chapel Hill on Sunday.

Mrs. Williams has been unwell for the past week, but is improving.

Mr. Nobles, Supt. of Wilmington Graded Schools, spent Saturday on the Hill.

J. F. Shaffner, Jr. '96 and Peter Gorrell '99, spent Saturday in Durham.

Miss Morgan of Durham visited Miss Mary Harris last week, and attended the dance.

Mrs. J. H. London gave a reception on Tuesday evening, complimentary to the S. A. E. fraternity.

Prof. Alderman left Saturday for Jacksonville, Fla. to lecture before the Southern Educational Society.

Mr. T. G. Empie left Wednesday for Lynchburg, after spending several weeks in our midst hunting.

R. H. Lewis, father of R. H. Lewis Jr., '98, lectured in the Chapel Tuesday evening on "The Care of the Eyes."

Miss Eliza Busbee returned to her home in Raleigh Monday, after spending a few days as the guest of Miss Isabella Winston.

Misses Brem and Rankin and Mrs. Hill, who attended the German, remained on the Hill until Monday, the guests of Prof. Wm. Cain.

We have been requested to announce that Messrs. J. S. Williams and W. J. Weaver are prepared to furnish their friends with nice stationery.

Would it not be well to move the mound of clay in front of the New West Building? The mound is unnecessary and it gives that part of the campus a ragged appearance.

Mr. Mahan of Charlotte will speak before the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon at 3:30, on "The Secret Sins of Men." It will be a practical talk to men only.

Mr. J. H. Faber of Norfolk, the photographer selected by the Senior Class, will be on the Hill during next week, prepared to do work in his line. His fine work is his best recommendation.

Dr. Hume went to Raleigh Monday to lecture before the Monday Evening Club, but the weather prevented him from fulfilling his engagement. The Doctor is in quite a demand as a lecturer.

Rev. Thos. Dixon, the well-known lecturer, will deliver a lecture on "Backbone," Feb. 26. Mr. Dixon has a wide reputation as a speaker, and this lecture is considered by many to be his best.

On Saturday morning, Feb. 22, Washington's birthday will be celebrated by appropriate exercises in the Philanthropic Hall. Mr. R. R. Jenkins will deliver the oration on that occasion, and music will be furnished by the Glee and Mandolin Clubs. The occasion promises to be an interesting one.

The following gentlemen from a distance attended the Valentine German: R. L. Gray, Raleigh; F. L. Williamson, Burlington; Henry Gilliam, Tarboro; P. C. Sneed, Durham; W. J. and A. B. Andrews, Jr., Raleigh; and George M. Graham, Durham.

On Thursday night, a Society, for the discussion of Philosophical and Psychological Questions, was formed.

Officers were elected as follows: President, H. H. Horne. Vice Pres., J. W. Canada. Sec. and Treas. John A. Moore. We will give a full account in our next issue.

A Suggestion.

[Communicated.]

Why is it that our ball room, standing within twenty feet of the electric plant, still has to be lighted up with oil lamps?

It is a shame that this should be the case, where for the small sum of thirty-five dollars, electric lights could be put in and much money saved.

A very feasible plan is: that the ball managers for the commencement of '96 invest their surplus funds towards gaining this end. This should have been done last year, but most probably it was not thought of by the managers, and now we beg the present managers to look into the merits of the plan and carry it through, instead of pocketing the balance for their own individual benefit.

A Card.

On and after March 1st 1896 my books will be closed, and I will sell goods for CASH, and CASH ONLY. If you do not like to be refused credit don't ask for it.

Positively I will credit no one, friend or foe, for one cent worth of goods under any circumstances.

To save that little reminder call at once and settle up, I mean what I say, I shall sell goods cheap for cash, giving my customers the benefit of "Low Cash Prices."

Yours truly,

W. L. TANKERSLEY.
