

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Just eighty one days until Commencement.

Mr. J.M. Oldham was on the Hill Sunday as usual.

Rev. Mr. Currie preaches in Greensboro on Sunday.

We are sorry to hear of the sickness of Mr. Nicholson, '96.

Miss Emma Harward spent the day with Miss Davies last Saturday.

Mr. Winston '99 has returned to the Hill, after having been home several days with the measles.

Mr. Harry Lake is visiting his mother at the Jekyl Island Club, Brunswick, Ga.

"Who set the sage field afire" is a question which has been frequently propounded lately. Who did?

Mr. J. E. Little, Ex. '96, is regaining health and enjoying life at his home, Long's Store Union Co. N.C.

Messrs. Browne Shepherd and Harry Lake report a very pleasant visit with Mr. Thomas during the Newberne Fair.

Contractor Norton of Durham has a large number of hands on the Hill preparing to build Dr. Baskerville's residence.

The Normalites' commencement comes on May 20, ours on June 3rd. We hope to see a large number of them present.

The side walk in front of the Post Office has been very much improved, and sprained ankles will be less numerous in the future.

We are glad to see Mr. Thomas on the Hill again. He returned Saturday night, after a brief visit to his home in Newberne.

Mr. Robt. Nourse, the lecturer, preached a most interesting sermon in the Baptist Church last Sunday morning. His theme was the "Prodigal Son."

The University Dramatic Club was photographed by Faber. The Dramatis Personae posed in the most striking tableaux from the "Little Rebel."

Dr. Hume lectured at Elon College last Sunday on the "Permanent elements in the Bible." He speaks highly of the kindness shown him while there.

Mr. Covington '98, went home last Wednesday, on account of sickness in his family. We hope circumstances will permit him to return in a few days.

The young ladies of the village are very busy with a sheme. What it is they will not tell, but the oracle says there will be some interesting developments in a few days.

The State Convention of the Y. M. C. A. meets in Charlotte next week. The University Association will send a large delegation and they have a pleasant time in store.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian Church Sunday morning and night by Rev. S. O. Hall, pastor of the Westminster Church, Greensboro. Public cordially invited.

Mr. Wiley ex. '96, is spending his spring vacation with old classmates on the Hill. He will return to Lafayette College where he is pursuing a course in advanced Mathematics.

With the advent of Spring, or rather perhaps its passing, comes the influx of poetic effusions, young man's fancies, and thoughts of the "the old, old, story." No, the literary spirit is not dead in the University.

Don't forget the Shakespere Club meeting next Thursday night. A few interesting papers will be read and moreover, we will not have the pleasure of very many more meetings this term, on account of the proximity of Commencement.

The Golf Club.

The University Golf Club was organized Feb. 29th. with 32 members.

At that time the following officers were elected:

President, Dr. Baskerville. Vice-Pres., F. A. Gudger. Sec. and Treas., W. S. Howard.

The following constitution was adopted:

The name shall be the University Golf Club. Any student shall be eligible for membership, which shall be limited to forty in number. No system of black balling shall obtain but members shall be elected as the applications are made.

The initiation fee shall be fifty cents, payable within two weeks after election. On failure to pay within the limit the membership shall be forfeited. The money collected shall be used for the preparation of the Links and the purchase of certain sticks and necessary articles. Each man must provide himself with the ordinary stick.

The Playing Rules shall be those of the Regular Golf Association.

The Officers of the Association shall be as follows; President, Vice President, and Sec'y and Treasurer to be elected annually by ballot.

None but members shall make use of the Links.

Any student may become a member until the limit of 40 is reached.

The Club has laid out a neat course of nine links, extending about one and half miles about the campus. We hope the Golf Club will prove the success other Clubs have attained elsewhere.

We think there is a place for just such a club here and hope before long to be able to announce a tournament for the Golf Chamionhip.
