Varsity vs. Hobart.

The first game with Hobart on Friday afternoon April 10, resulted in a victory for the Varsity by the score of 16 to 14.

Score by innings.

Hobart 2 0 0 2 0 1 6 3-14.

Varsity 2 0 4 0 0 5 5 0 x-16.

The final score is scarcely an index to the character of the game, as the visitors piled up 10 runs in their last three innings on Stephens' wildness, careless playing by the Varsity and timely hitting by Hobart.

The game in detail is as follows.

First inning. For Hobart Schoenhut gets a base on balls, reaches second on Stanly's fumble of Case's hit, and scores on Hooker's hit over second. Choinard gets a base on balls. Scofield fouls out to Bailey and Carr is out from second to first, Case scoring. Vorhis hits to second and is out at first.

Stanly gets a base on balls, and steals second. Winston is out from catcher to first, Stanly going to third whence he scores on a short passed ball. Gregory gets a base on balls, and steals second. On wild throw home of Bailey's safe hit to left Gregory scores, Bailey taking third. Stephens is out from second to first and Brem flies out to left. Score Hobart 2, Varsity 2.

Ewing is out from Johnson to Winston; Tull is retired from Gregory to Winston and Schoenhut is out from third to first.

Johnson fails to find the ball. Graham is out from third to first by Schoenhut's pretty stop. Pearsall gets a base on balls, and reaches second on wild pitch. Schoenhut makes a nice catch of Stanly's foul. Score 2 to 2.

Third inning. Case flies out to Stephens' and Hooker is out from Gregory to Winston. Choinard reaches first on Johnson's error, but Scofield strikes out.

Winston hits a beauty to right, Gregory and Bailey are given bases on balls. Stephens flies out to right. Winston scores on infield hit of Brem's being fielded home too late. Johnson hits to second and is out at first, Gregory scoring.

Graham's fly to left falls safe and Bailey and Brem score. Pearsall makes first on Carr's fumble. Stanly strikes out. Score Hobart 4, N. C. 6.

Fourth inning. Carr fouls out to catcher. Vorhis hits a nice two-base hit over third, and Ewing gets a base on balls. Gregory touches out Vorhis on Tull's hit to him. Schoenhut's long fly to Brem is muffed and Vorhis and Tull score. Winston captures Case's fly.

Winston is out from second to first, but Gregory is safe on short's error. Bailey flies out to right, and Gregory is thrown out trying for second. Score 4 to 6.

Fifth inning. Hooker is safe on Johnson's error, but is forced at second on Choinard's hit to Pearsall. Scofield flies out to Stanly and a double play resulted before Choinard could get back to first.

Stephens strikes out; Brem flies out to short, and Johnson is out on strikes. Score 4 to 6.

Sixth inning. Carr taps up a foul which is gathered in by Johnson. Stanly gets Vorhis' fly and Bailey does the same for Ewing's foul.

Graham hits to first and is out. Pearsall cracks a safe one to left.

Winston bangs a hot one to "Tornado" who fumbles and Winston is on first. Gregory waltzes up to the plate with a vicious look in his eye, picks out a good one and drops it in right, Pearsall and Stanly scoring. A moment later "Wince" scores on a wild throw to third.

Gregory gets third on passed ball and scores on Bailey's beautiful hit to right. Stephens hits by second.

Bailey scores on Brem's nice single to right. Brem steals second, Johnson is out on strikes and Graham ends the inning by putting a fly in Vorhis hands. Score 4 to 11.

Seventh inning. Stephens goes into the box, Belden to left. Tull hits to Stephens is out. Schoenhut draws four bad ones, but is forced out at second on Carr's hit to Winston. "Tornado" steals second, goes to third on wild throw and scores on Hooker's corking single over second. Choinard bunts ball which hits him and Carolina is at the bat.

Belden makes three vicious swipes at the ball and takes his seat on the bench. Stanly hit by pitched ball, and steals second. Winston gets a bunt hit. Gregory gets a base and Bailey's hit to right scores Stanly and Winston. Stephens stepped up to the rubber, picks out a nice one and lands it over right field fence. While the people in Western N. C. are hunting for the ball, Bailey, Gregory and Stephens score. Brem beats out a slow hit. Johnson flies out to center and Graham to left.

Eighth inning. Schofield hits to Grex and is out. Tornado gets a single, steals second and scores on Vorhis' single to left. Ewing reaches first on Stanly's error. Tull singles to right. Vorhis scores on wild pitch and a similar move puts Ewing safe at home. Schoenhut gets a base on balls, steals second and lands safe at third on Bailey's wild throw to Johnson, Tull scoring. Case gets a base on balls and steals second. Hooker hits to Johnson and throws wild to first, Schoenhut and Case scoring. Choinard fans the air thrice. Scofield bangs a safe one into center. "Tornado" breaks his back over three "draps", and is out.

Belden makes first on error of second. Stanly is out by a hit to Hooker, and Winston does likewise. Gregory hits to second but does not make first.

Ninth inning. Vorhis gets a two-bagger. Ewing fails to find the ball. Tull hits to Stanly who fumbles, allowing Vorhis to reach third. Schoenhut's fly is gathered in by Stanly. Case swipes a beauty to left. Vorhis and Tull scoring. Hooker hits to Gregory, who juggles the ball and Case scores.

Choinard hits to Brem and the game is over. Score University 16, Hobart 14.

The Second Game.

The second game against Hobart last Saturday resulted in another victory for the Varsity by a score 12 to 10.

This game was a better exhibition of base ball than the first game, both teams playing steadily and with spirit though the game was by no means errorless.

First inning. Schoenhut is safe at first on Winston's muff of Johnson's throw. Case flies out to Stanly, and Graham, making a pretty catch of Hooker's drive, throws out at the plate by a nice throw.

Stanly gets a base on balls and steals second and third. Winston fails to find the balls, and Gregory walks to first on balls. Bailey is out on strikes and Brem is out from second to first.

Second inning. Choinard hits to Winston and is out. Schofield flies out to Graham, Carr singles to center and Vorhis flies out to Brem.

Carolina now starts piling them up. Graham flies out to left, but Johnson's fly is muffed by pitcher. Belden hits safely to left, but Hill is out on strikes. Stanly, Winston and Gregory now follow each with a safe hit and Johnson, Belden, Stanly and Winston score. Bailey retires the side on strikes.

In the third inning Hobart fails to cross the plate but on Stanly's two-bagger and Gregory's hit to center, Carolina scores another run. There was no scoring in the fifth inning, the feature being a neat double from short to second by Hobart. In the sixth inning N. C. scored four more runs on singles by Hill and Winston, a two-bagger by Gregory and a hit by Bailey. Hobart's half resulted in a goose egg.

Two runs were added in the seventh on hits by Hill and Stanly, an error by center, and Winston's sacrifice hit to first. In Hobart's half of the inning they scored five runs on two bases on balls, a double by Schoenhut, a single by Case and a sacrifice hit by Hooker and Schofield. Graham's two bagger was of no avail for N. C. in the eight.

Hobart scored their last run in the eight on a base on balls and a pretty double by Choinard. The ninth inning did not help Hobart, and the game is over by a star catch by Brem. Score Hobart 10, N. C. 12.

The Glee Club.

The clubs left Chapel Hill in company with the team on Monday morning, and gave their first concert in Winston for the benefit of the Twin-City Hospital. Their second concert was in Greensboro on Tuesday night, at Bogart Hall.

At both places they met with success, singing to good houses; and they deserved to do so, as their performance was of a high order, the mandolin and banjo solos of Messrs. Dey and Lake being especially enjoyable.

After their concert in Winston, the clubs and the team were tendered a very pleasant reception by the Twin-City Club. It was enjoyed to the fullest, and many were the struggles before the team could be pulled away to bed.

The boys are loud in their praise of the hospitality and pretty girls they met in the Twin City; and no doubt few future seasons will pass without another visit to this pleasant town. May they all accept our President's invitation and give us the pleasure of returning their hospitality.

Dr. Hume will lecture in Washington, D. C. on April 20th. before the National Congress of Religious Education. The theme assigned him is "Education in the family."

The Mask and Wig Club of the University of Penn. will give a performance at New Haven. The proceeds will go towards replenishing the treasury of one of Yale's most needy departments.
