The Carolinians were on top. They arrived in Danville on Friday, the 24th. at 1:40 and were in it from the start. That afternoon they put up a very pretty practice on the Danville Diamond where the great game was won.

The Virginians arrived on Friday night and at the sight of them, the Carolinians put on a more determined look and prepared to do or die. Saturday morning was dark and cloudy and it looked like more hard luck for Manager Carmichael. But the Fates were kind and about noon the clouds sailed away, giving us a pretty afternoon.

The N. C. boys were also much grieved that their star first baseman was sick and in bed, but with the drifting of the clouds, he, too pulled round and came upon the field with grit enough to stick until the game was ended.

On the field, the Virginia team was first and they did good snappy work. But they were eclipsed in this too. The Carolinians were there to do their best and they did it. Manager Tilton, of Virginia, remarked, "If we could'nt beat that team, I'd take the boys right back to Charlottesville." Well, "he laughs best who laughs last."

The game with the exception of Virginia's fielding was superb, and was won by superior batting, fielding, and base running. The infield played a better game than the one against Yale, and the out field deserves much credit for their good snappy work. The battery work was fine and especially at critical moments did they work together.

The game was worthy of the team whose record for the Spring of '96 will always be remembered.

field amid hurrahs from their many sympathizers.

Fred Pearsall smiled when the umpire called three balls and he smiled still more when McGuire sat down, out on strikes. Then Marshall gave Grex a "pod-up" and Dillard retires the side at first on Johnson's pretty throw.

Stanly came up from short and let an easy one hit him and ofcourse stole second. Winston flew out to Dillard and Gregory made a sacrifice hit advancing "Cap" to third.

Bailey gave Hoxton a hot one which he threw wild to first, as Stanly crossed the plate, scoring our first run. Marshall caught Brem's foul fly.

E. C. GREGORY.

Second inning. Garnett goes out, Stanly to Winston and Hoxton hits a pop-fly to "Grex." Bonney drives it for three bases but dies at third when Stanly takes in McKim's fly.

Graham is out from McGuire to Cochran and Whitaker on a foul to Marshall. Johnson and Pearsall walk to first but Pearsall is out at second on Stanly's grounder.

Third inning. One, two, three for Virginia. Cochran and Kern pop up flies to Stanly and Johnson, and McGuire goes out easily on a grounder to Winston.

F. H. BAILEY.

But Carolina is in it. Winston can't find the ball. Gregory gets Carolina's first base hit, a two-bagger to right. Bailey bunts safely putting Gregory on third and then steals second. Brem gets first on attempt to put Gregory out at home.

Graham's two bagger to left sends Bailey over the plate and Brem and Graham follow him on Whitaker's hit. Johnson flies out to Dillard and Pearsall strikes out.

Fourth inning. Marshall got a safe one to third but goes out at second on Dillard's grounder. Dillard steals second, goes to third on Garnett's out at first, and scores on Hoxton's hit. Bonney ends the inning with a grounder to Gregory.

Stanly is out from Hoxton to Cochran. Winston gives Garnett a fly. Gregory makes a hit but dies at second on Bailey's grounder.

S. H. HILL.

Fifth inning. McKim hits safely to left but he and Cochran succumb to a pretty double play from Stanly to Winston. Kern gets first on Carolina's only error, Johnson's wild throw to first, but McGuire retires the side with a drive to Graham.

Brem is out by a beautiful catch of a foul fly by Garnett. Graham lets four bad ones go by and steals second. Whitaker's hit puts him on third. Whiakar is out at second on Johnson's grounder. Johnson steals second and Pearsall walks to first.

Three men on bases, but Stanly has hard luck and is out on a foul.

Sixth inning. Marshall hits safe. Dillard's grounder to Pearsall retires him. Garnett gets to first on a hit to center and Hoxton gets first by a ball in the ribs. Bonney drove a long one to center but Whitaker pulls it down by a long run, Marshall scoring on the hit. McKim hits safely, scoring Garnett, and Cochran flies out to Gregory.

Winston gets hit with the ball and Gregory forces him to second with a base on balls. And then the slaughter began. Bailey hits safely and fills up the bases. Brem makes a sacrifice, sending Winston ver the plate and "Grex" and "Fletch" follow him when Graham puts one over second. Graham goes to third on Whitaker's hit and scores when Marshall makes a poor throw to catch Whitaker. Johnson hits safely, Whitaker scores and Johnson lands on second. Hill takes Pearsall's time at the bat and flies out to Kern. Stanly's two bagger sends Johnson home with the sixth run and Winston retires the side by a grounder to short.

Seventh inning. Kern, McGuire and Marshall can not do more than give three flies to Gregory, Whitaker and Hill.

F. L. PEARSALL

McGuire goes to right field and puts Lockett in the box. But he gets poor support and is rather wild. Gregory starts off with a fly to Lockett. Bailey draws a base on balls. Brem hits to Garnett who throws wild to second, advancing Bailey to third and Brem to second. Cochran's error puts Graham on first, Bailey scoring. Graham steals second and Brem scores on Marshall's passed ball. Whitaker goes out from McKim to Cochran, but Johnson hits safely, scoring Graham. Hoxton throws Hill out at first.

J. D. WHITAKER.

Eighth inning. Dillard flies out to Gregory, Garnett hits safely and Hoxton gets first on an attempt to catch Garnett at second. Bonney hits safely, scoring Garnett. Mc-
