The Game With Georgia.

[Concluded from first page.]

opportunity to touch the ball. Goal was kicked and the score was Ga., 18; N. C., 12. Here endeth the first half.

SECOND HALF.

Belden kicked to Georgia's ten yard line. Nally, Blanch and Wight advanced the ball, and Gammon kicked to Carolina's five yard line. Belden tried to punt but Blanch and Kent blocked the ball, and scored a touchdown. Lovejoy kicked goal. Score: Ga., 24; N. C., 12.

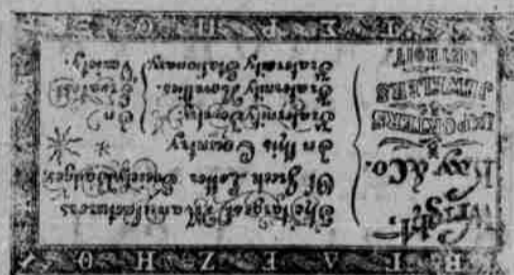

It was now almost dark. Belden kicked to five yard line. Lovejoy gained fifteen yards and Nally ten, but the ball was lost and Carolina secured it. The ball was quickly rushed to Georgia's five yard line. At this point the referee desired to call time but Carolina objected. Said the referee, "Make a touchdown this rush or I call the game." Carolina pulled herself together and Haywood plowed through the Georgians, making the necessary five yards and scoring a touchdown. Belden missed goal. Final score: Georgia, 24; Carolina, 16.

Kittie Lee and Willie Gray.

Two brown heads with tossing curls,
 Red lips shutting over pearls,
 Bare feet white and wet with dew,
 Two eyes black and two eyes blue.
 Little boy, and girl were they,
 Kittle Lee and Willie Gray.

They were standing where a brook
 Bending like a shepherd's crook,
 Flashed its silver and thick ranks
 Of green willows lined its banks,
 Half in thought and half in play,
 Kittle Lee and Willie Gray.

They had cheeks like cherries red.
 He was taller, most a head;
 She with arms like wreaths of snow,
 Swung a basket two and fro
 As she loitered half in play
 Chattering to Willie Gray.

"Pretty Kittie," Willie said.
 And there came a dash of red
 Through the brownness of his cheek.
 "Boys are strong and girls are weak,
 And I'll carry, so I will,
 Kittie's basket up the hill."

Kittie answered with a laugh,
 "You shall carry only half,"
 And then tossing back her curls,
 "Boys are weak as well as girls."
 Do you think that Kittie guessed
 Half the wisdom she expressed?

Men are only boys grown tall,
 Hearts don't change much after all,
 And when long years from that day
 Kittle Lee and Willie Gray
 Stood again beside the brook,
 Bending like a shepherd's crook,

It is strange that Willie said,
 While again a dash of red
 Crossed the brownness of his cheek,
 I am strong and you are weak;
 Life is but a slippery steep
 Hung with shadows cold and deep,

"Will you trust me, Kittie, dear?
 Walk beside me without fear?
 May I carry, if I will,
 All your burdens up the hill?"
 And she answered with a laugh,
 "No, but you may carry half."

Close beside the little brook,
 Bending like a shepherd's crook,
 Washing with its silver hands
 Late and early at the sands,
 Is a cottage where today
 Kittie lives with Willie Gray.

In the porch she sits and lo
 Swings a basket to and fro;
 Vastly different from the one
 That she swung in years ago.
 This is long and deep and wide,
 And has rockers on the side.

A Wonderful Invention

Zoology teaches that the hairs of the head are hollow, and contain an oil that gives them life. In clipping the hair with scissors, this hollow is left open, and the hair loses its life-giving properties. I have a Machine named the Singeing Machine, which removes the hair and at the same time closes up the hollow, causing the hair to retain its life-giving properties, and therefore stopping the hair from falling out or dying, and giving it a soft growth. Call and examine this machine and have your hair singed. Special attention given to dressing Ladies' hair. Cutting done with exquisite and artistic skill by the old University Barber of twenty years' experience. The singeing machine is highly recommended by scientists throughout the country. Very Respectfully,
T. D. DUNSTAN,
 Professor of Tonsorial Art.
