LAFAYETTE LOSES TWO GAMES TO CAROLINA,

Although She Beat Virginia With Eleven to Nine.

SCORES ELEVEN TO NINE AND SIX TO THREE.

Mangum and Williams Pitch Great Ball. In the Second Carolina Played in Grand Style a Game With But Two Errors.

On Wednesday the 'Varsity won the first game with our Lafayette College friends, by the score of 11-9. Altho' there was loose playing at times, the game was, on the whole, a good one. Both sides batted well, but made several costly errors and showed lack of team work. Mangum pitched a fine game for the 'Varsity, striking out eight men and giving only three bases on balls.

Among the features of the game were Walbridge's two fine home run drives over right field fence, and Barclay's catching, on the part of Lafayette; and Belden's batting and Stanley's base running for Carolina.

Lafayette went first to the bat, but was not able to score as the 'Varsity was playing "championship" ball. In the second inning Clark was given base on balls, Hendleman struck out but made first on Bailey's passed ball. Reese hit to left field, scoring Clark, and Walbridge lined out his first home run, scoring Hendleman and Reese, giving Lafayette five runs altogether.

The Pennsylvanians were again shut out in the third and fourth innings, but scored three runs in the fifth on Johnson's error, Lauer's two-bagger, and the base hits of Hendleman and Reese. In the sixth inning Walbridge, who was first at the bat, made his second home run, but Lafayette was soon retired without scoring any more.

Lafayette made one run in the seventh on Nevins' two-bagger and Reese's hit to centre field, but was shut out in the eighth and ninth, as the 'Varsity had "pulled together" again with their old-time "grit."

Carolina made six runs in the first inning, by the hits of Stanley, Belden, McKee and Rogers, a base on balls to Bailey, and several costly errors by Lafayette. In the second a hit by Belden and several more Pennsylvania errors gave Carolina two more runs, and still more errors of the like kind, as well as hits by Johnson and Stanley brought one more Tar Heel across the plate in the third.

The 'Varsity was shut out in the fourth and fifth innings, but Bailey's three-bagger and Whitaker's hit bro't in one more run in the sixth.

The Tar Heels went out in one, two, three order in the seventh, Lafayette playing an up-hill game, but made one more run in the eighth, when Stanley made first on a bunt, stole second and came in on Walbridge's error.

As we said above, the 'Varsity at times showed what good ball they can play, though several rank errors rather marred the pleasant impression at first made.

THE SECOND GAME.

Carolina played ball in Thursday's game, and no mistake! From beginning to end there was no let up, and the way they fielded, batted, and did everything else, was a "caution".

Lafayette played well too, with the result that the game was one of the prettiest seen here in many a day.

Williams pitched a beautiful game, with excellent support, and the team work was good, as can well be seen when we say that the 'Varsity made only three double plays.

Lafayette was first at the bat, but went out in almost one, two, three order for the first six innings.

In the seventh, Walbridge was given a base on balls, and Bray made a home run over centre-field fence, giving the Pennsylvanians two runs. Her only other score was made in the ninth inning, when Walbridge was given another base on balls, advanced to third on Barclay's hit to centre field, and crossed the plate on Johnson's error, one of the two to Carolina's credit during the entire game.

Carolina began scoring in the second inning. Whitaker made a two-bagger, was advanced to third by McKee's sacrifice, and scored on Johnson's hit to right field.

The 'Varsity did not again score till the sixth inning, when Bailey hit to centre field, went to third on Whitakers hit to right field, and stole in home. McKee made first base on a bunt, and crossed the plate on Walbridge's error a few moments later.

The Tar Heels' next scoring was in the eighth inning. Bailey hit a grounder to Hendleman, went to second on the latter's wild throw to first, and scored soon after on Walbridge's error. McKee hit grounder to Sigman, safe on his wild throw to first, and Whitaker came in. McKee went to second on passed ball, to third on Roger's sacrifice, and scored on Williams' hit to centre field.

Barclay played a fine game for

Lafayette, and Lauer's catch of Whitaker's fly in the fifth inning was a feature of the game. Bailey's hand was hurt in the sixth inning, but with admirable grit he played the game to the finish, although suffering intense pain. The tabulated score is as follows:

THE DRAMATIC CLUB

In "She Stoops to Conquer."

Will Make its Long Expected Appearance To-night.

The University Dramatic Club about which much has been said and written will at length appear to-night.

So much of the TAR HEEL's space has been given over to it of late that little new can be said in the matter except to announce finally its definite first night. The boxes and parquettas are now on sale and the baldheaded habitués of the front row will do well to engage seats at once. Serpentine dances are advertised between acts. Admission 35, 50 and 75 cents.

Captain Pat Stanley is Presented with a Handsome Dress Suit Case.

The admirers of Captain Pat Stanley, our brag base ball captain, who is a team unto himself, took occasion the other day to present him with a handsome dress suit case as a token of the great regard in which Captain Pat is held, and as a small proof of the high appreciation we all have for the work that he has done.

Stanley's return meant much to the team this spring, and it is a source of great self-congratulation that we have him with us. May Captain Stanley and his team win many laurels during the season that is but just begun!

A Distinguished Alumnus.

Jas. Philips, formerly of Tarboro and now of New York City, who was a student here several years ago, has for the third time been elected Resident Physician at Jekyl Island, Ga. which is owned by one hundred multimillionaires.

Messrs. J. B. and B. N. Duke of Durham have made a valuable contribution to Guilford College in the shape of a $10,000 check, the money to be used in the erection of a building for science. We extend congratulations.

Graham Woodard '00 spent Sunday in Raleigh as the guest of his classmate, Mr. Boykin.

THE RALEIGH GAME.

Wake Forest Not In It.

The University Team Plays Good Ball in Wet Weather.

Our team last Saturday defeated Wake Forest College in a 5 innings game of ball by a score of 7 to 2. The team, with a few loyal supporters, left the Hill while a heavy rain was falling and like the fish "from the frying pan to the fire" they reached Raleigh where a perfect deluge flooded the streets.

The Wake Forest team arrived shortly after the 'Varsity, bringing with them about 125 student supporters. Both teams were quartered at the Park Hotel and after an early dinner were driven to Athletic Park. Here the game was delayed for some time waiting for three bases to be manufactured, for it was discovered that the 'Varsity bases had decided to go on a pleasure trip to Norfolk thinking perhaps we would not need them in the Wake Forest game.

About 250 enthusiasts stood in the constantly falling rain and watched the game which finally showed the true merits of the two teams, as usual—Carolina on top. The team left in the afternoon with one more scalp on the hook.

Captain Stanley and Captain Mills were both highly pleased with the clean ball playing and impartial umpiring. Now that the two institutions have met again, let it be an annual affair with the same spirit manifested.
