Vol. 6.

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA, CHAPEL HILL, N. C., March 29th. 1898.

NO. 22.

TRINITY SHUT OUT.

Six to "Nit."

Wednesday was an ideal baseball day, and one of the largest crowds ever gathered on the Athletic Park was out to take advantage of it. The extra train from Durham arrived at 2 p. m., bringing the Trinity team and a crowd of rooters both for the Varsity and for the Trinity boys. The hearts of all the University boys were made glad at the sight of a number of the fair sex flying "white and blue," who had come over from Durham to see "Carolina play ball."

Immediately upon the opening of the gate there was a tremendous rush for the grand stand, and very soon the bleachers were filled with baseball enthusiasts. At 3:45 Mr. Sol Mason, of Durham, called the game with Carolina at the bat.

The game opened with Rogers up. He fails to find the ball and is thrown out at first. Winston takes the bat amid cheers from the grand stand. He lines out a hot one to Crawford and makes first. He makes second on McKee's bunt and they both score on Belden's three bagger to left. Amid tremendous applause Belden scores on wild throw to third. Lawson strikes out and Woodard retires the side by hitting to shortstop and being thrown out at first.

Trinity comes to the bat and gives Carolina a scare by getting the bases full, Johnson on third, Card on second and Anderson on first. Chambers hits to shortstop and Johnson is thrown out at home. North up and hits to Lawson, who makes pretty one hand stop, cutting off Card at home. Nicholson hits to second and out at first, retiring side amid applause. Score, N. C. 3; Trinity, 0.

Second Inning. Carolina at bat. Hume hits to left and makes third on North's error, scoring on wild throw. Gwaltney hits out to Card in centre. Williams hits to Chambers and out at first. Rogers hits to pitcher and makes first on Nicholson's error. Winston hits to second and out at first. Trinity at bat and Bohannon hits out from third to first and Deaver fails to find the ball. Crawford hits to short and makes first on Woodard's error. Gets second on fast ball. Johnson hit by pitched ball, takes first but Card retires the side by hitting to pitcher, who throws him out at first. Score, N. C. 1, Trinity, 0.

Fifth Inning. Carolina at bat. McKee hits out to North in left. Belden hits long fly to left and North makes a star catch. Lawson up and hits safe to right. McKee takes his place and goes to second on wild pitch. Woodard hits a beauty three-bagger to right, scoring McKee, Hume fans and Trinity comes to the bat again. Anderson hits to third and makes first on Hume's error. Chambers hits to Winston who throws to second but fails to catch Anderson. Chambers on first. North hits to first and Winston makes a fine throw to third, putting out Anderson. Nicholson fans and Bohannon is out from Woodard to Winston. Score, N. C. 1; Trinity, 0.

Fourth Inning. Carolina up. Gwaltney hits to third and makes first on Crawford's error. Williams bunts and Gwaltney is out at second. McKee takes Williams' place, goes to second on Johnson's error and makes third on past ball by catcher. Rogers hits foul, which Chambers in a beautiful play takes in. McKee scores on wild pitch. Winston hits to Johnson and is out at first. Trinity at bat. Deaver out from Lawson to Winston. Crawford fans and Johnson is out from Belden to Winston.

Fifth Inning. Carolina up. McKee pops out to Crawford. Belden fans and Lawson is out from Anderson to Nicholson who makes a pretty pick up. Trinity at bat. Card out from short to first. Anderson out on foul to Gwaltney and Chambers retires side by ground ball to Winston. Score, N. C., 0; Trinity, 0.

Sixth Inning. Carolina comes to bat. Woodard hits out to right. Hume hits out to Card and Gwaltney retires side on pop fly to Johnson. North up for Trinity and out to Belden. Nicholson hits the wind three times. Bohannon goes to first on Woodard's error and Deaver retires side on ground ball to Winston. Score, N. C., 0; Trinity, 0.

Seventh Inning. Williams strikes out but goes to second on wild throw by catcher. Rogers hits out to pitcher. Winston hits to Johnson who makes a pretty stop, throwing him out at first. McKee fans. Trinity up. Crawford out from Lawson to Winston. Johnson out on pop to Woodard and Card retires side on three hits at the wind. Score, N. C., 0; Trinity, 0.

Eighth Inning. Belden takes bat and hits safe over second but is caught stealing second. Lawson and Woodard retire side. Anderson for Trinity gets first on Belden's error. Chambers hits to Woodard who throws out Anderson at second. Chambers makes first. North hits to Lawson and a double from Lawson to Belden to Winston retires side. Score, N. C., 0; Trinity, 0.

Ninth Inning. Hume takes bat for Carolina and is out on bunt. Gwaltney hits safe over short and goes to second on Chambers' wild throw. Williams and Rogers fan. Trinity takes her last chance, but they can't find Lawson and a goose-egg awaits them. Nicholson is out from Woodard to Winston. Bohannon out from Hume to "Dicey." Deaver hits to Woodard who makes fine stop and throws him out at first. Score, N. C., 0; Trinity, 0.

The game is over with a score for Carolina "six" and Trinity "nit."

It was a pretty game, free from rowdyism and kicking. Mr. Mason makes an excellent umpire, proving satisfactory to all. Johnson played the star game for the visitors, while the battery work of Carolina and Winston's playing at first were the features for the Varsity. Carolina's coolness and headwork in tight places was extremely gratifying to her backers.

Belden led the batting at 500. The following is the "line up" of the two teams.

U N C	AB	R	1st	B	SH	PO	A	E

WAKE FOREST vs UNIVERSITY.

Twenty-eight to one.

Friday was a cold cloudy day but the disagreeableness of the weather did not prevent a good crowd of rooters from turning out to see Carolina administer to Wake Forest the worst drubbing ever given to a team on this diamond.

The "heavy sluggers and hard-hitters" from Wake Forest brimming over with confidence had come to the Hill to—well, only to have their fondest hopes shattered and their expectations cast to the wind by the Varsity boys.

Carolina put up the game of her life and never did her opponents play in her class.

Roy Williams called the game promptly at 3:30 with Carolina at the bat.

Rogers was called up to the "stick" but Camp fielded his ball well and threw him out at first. Then came Winston who started that heavy pounding of "Big Injun" which stopt only when the last man was out. "Dicey" hit safe to right and scores on McKee's pretty three bagger to centre. Belden hits to short and makes first on Camp's error McKee scoring. Lawson hits safe to left, he and Belden scoring on Woodard's hit over second. Hume fans and is followed by Graves who hits a beauty two bagger to centre scoring Woodard. Tate strikes out.

Wake Forest trots in and sends her heaviest hitter to the bat who pops out to Hume. Reid hits to third, Hume slips on wet ground, and Reid gets to first. Edwards hits to third and Hume throws Reid out at second. Coggins gets first, hit by pitched ball, and Norfleet retires side by hitting to Belden.

Score; N. C., 5—W. F., 0.
