

HERE AND THERE.

Wescott Roberson will practice law at High Point.

Mr. T. C. Quickel has returned to college and registered as a second year med.

Mr. H. R. McFadyen made the best debate in the Phi Society Saturday night.

Colonel George E. Pond, of the staff of General Fitzhugh Lee, is on the Hill this week visiting his wife and daughter.

Mr. John T. Thorne, ex-'99, has a very desirable position as assistant cashier in one of Baltimore's leading banks.

Misses Blanche Pickard and Pearl Cheek left Chapel Hill last week to enter the Normal and Industrial College.

Dr. Hume attended the Mt. Zion Baptist Association last Wednesday where he delivered an address on missions.

The many friends of "Shug" Pritchard are glad to see him on the streets again after a severe attack of malarial fever contracted while in camp at Jacksonville.

We are glad to learn that Mr. Saddle, '01, who has been quite sick at his home in Charlotte, is much better, and will soon return to resume his studies.

I. E. D. Andrews is teaching at Farmer. W. T. Usry is principal of the Sanford Graded Schools. E. S. Sams is teaching in Wilkes county. The class of '98, is at work.

The Monthly Record, a little paper edited by members of the Chapel Hill School, came out for the first time last week. It reflects much credit on the youthful editors.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Louise Hall Manning to Mr. William R. Webb, A. B., 1896. The ceremony will take place at the Episcopal church on Wednesday, Oct. 19. We extend our congratulations to Mr. Webb.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation from Mrs. Eunice Adams to be present at the marriage of her daughter, Elizabeth Estelle, to Rev. Frederick Louis Cleveland, October 11, at Hingham, Mass. Brother Cleveland is the popular pastor of our church at Chapel Hill. We shall be glad to welcome his bride to North Carolina.—Biblical Recorder.

Dr. Alderman addressed the Senior Class in mass meeting Saturday morning. After congratulating the class on being the largest in numbers in forty years, and on the wise election of its officers, he discussed the methods by which Senior Day commencement may be made more attractive, both to the class and the visitors. His object is to make Senior Day more important, because the day belongs wholly to the students, and Commencement Day does not. His suggestions show his wisdom, and he may be followed to advantage both by this and succeeding classes.

Quite a number of University students have been invited to act as Marshalls at the State Fair.

H. G. Connor Jr. who has received his law license at last meeting of the Supreme Court has formed a partnership with his father at Wilson.

Any information in regard to old students especially of the '98 class will be gladly received by the TAR HEEL. All of us here are interested to know what these old friends are doing and we can best learn through the columns of the TAR HEEL.

"Harry Lake's Romance" was the heading to a clipping from the New York Herald in the News and Observer of last Tuesday. Mr. Lake is now in Paris, and the article was written in regard to his engagement to a beautiful young Parisian belle. Mr. Lake was a member of the class of '98, but left college before graduation for a tour of the world. He has many friends in college who wish for him much happiness.
