Carolina Defeats the Agricultural and Mechanical Boys by a Score of 34 to 0.

The Varsity played its second game here last Saturday against the team from the A. & M. College. The A. & M. boys were heavy and played snappy ball but were no match for the better trained Varsity team. Carolina showed marked improvement in her condition and playing since her game with Guilford College two weeks ago.

A. & M's. ball. Whitley gains 2 yards and Person kicks. Time is called with the ball on A. & M's. 25 yard line.

For A. & M. Ramsay's playing was conspicuous, while for Carolina, besides the all round good rushing and defensive work, the work of Bennett and Shull in assisting the backs, the steady gains of Buxton and the long runs of Copeland may be especially mentioned. Captain Rogers as usual played hard, fast, and snappy ball and handled the team in his usually strong way.

Decidedly Carolina is improving. Let the good work go on. We meet some strong teams soon, and we'll need fast ball to win.

About 250 students were on the field and not a yell was given. What's the matter? Have we forgotten how to give a good rousing yell to encourage the team?

University Day.

President Alderman gave a delightful reception to the Faculty, Senior, and professional classes. Last Wednesday was the 104th anniversary of the founding of the University, and, according to a time honored custom, it was a general holiday. The day was spent quietly but pleasantly, and every body gained new strength and vigor for the work that lies before them.

The evening was a very enjoyable one. President Alderman had announced a few days before that he would give a reception to the seniors, professional schools and co-eds. All expected a great deal of pleasure and they were not disappointed. At the appointed hour Dr. Alderman, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Toy, received the guests. The seniors were first introduced by the president of the class, Mr. J. S. Carr Jr. Next come the medical class introduced by Dr. Mangum. Next the law class by Prof. J. Crawford Biggs, following them came the school of pharmacy introduced by Prof. E. V. Howell. After the general receiving a short while was spent in pleasant conversation. Everybody was well entertained and time passed rapidly. Later on in the evening the college quartette composed of Prof. Harrington, Dr. Mangum and Messrs. H. Anderson and J. K. Dozier, sang several beautiful selections. Each was a gem and the hearty applause showed the deep appreciation of the listeners. Scarcely had the echoes of their music died away when cake and cream began to be served. This feature too was a perfect success. The refreshments were exceptionally fine and were well served. They were prepared by Mrs. Hunter and that means they were the best that could be had.

In a short while the evening had come to a happy close. The University was ready to begin a new year. Her day of rest and pleasure had filled her with zeal and gave her new life for her duties.

Tar Heel Meeting.

At the meeting of the board of editors last Wednesday evening Mr. Walter S. Crawford was chosen to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. J. A. Caldwell, our former local editor. We regret very much to lose Mr. Caldwell. He was a moving man in the right place.

Medal for the Inter-Collegiate Debaters.

The Chamber of Commerce of Raleigh has recently appropriated a sum not to exceed $40.00, for a medal or other suitable token, to be given to the college whose representatives win the inter-collegiate debate, in Raleigh Thanksgiving day.

This contest is between Trinity and Wake Forest, and the medal is to be held by the winning college as a badge of championship until some other college wins it from it.

It is gratifying indeed to see the people of the state taking such an active interest in the literary work of these two colleges and endeavoring to encourage these colleges to develop and turn out as many good speakers as possible. People are realizing more and more the need of representative men, men who are not only educated, but men who can use their education to some practical advantage. The whole country is crying aloud for men to teach the people—for good speakers, They are wanted in the pulpit, They are wanted on the stump. They are wanted in the halls of Congress. There is an abundance of room at the top, for men who know a few things, and who can express them accurately, clearly, and forcibly.

Nothing affords a greater stimulus for good work in the literary societies than inter-society and inter-collegiate contests. They create a spirit of rivalry that is invigorating, and spurs every man to do his best. We feel it in our contests between the societies, and in our contest with the University of Georgia, and we hope the day is not far distant when these contests will be carried on between every college and preparatory school in the state.
