CAROLINA 11, OAK RIDGE 0

Carolina Plays a Slow and Uninteresting Game Against Oak Ridge.

The game with Oak Ridge was played here on Saturday afternoon. It had been raining all day and the field was left in a very muddy condition.

No doubt this accounts, somewhat, for the smallness of the score owing to the inability of the players getting a foothold on starting. The game was very disappointing to the student body and if we expect to win the games that are to be played in the next few weeks Carolina will certainly have to improve.

Special features are few. Rogers made a beautiful run at the beginning of the game which brought forth loud applause from the spectators. Gregory made some beautiful tackles and Bennett played well in the line.

For Oak Ridge, Bennett at full-back played a beautiful game. His line bucking was splendid and he seldom failed to gain through the line. Phifer at right guard also played well.

Two fifteen minute halves were played.

The line up was as follows:

U. N. C.	O. Ridge.
Klutz	R. E. Taylor
Bennett	R. T. Brown
Phifer	R. G. Phifer
McIver	C. Kirkpatrick
Miller	L. G. Homer
Shull	L. T. Joyner
Gregory	L. E. Ricks
Rogers (Capt)	Q. B. West
Watson	R. H. B. Herbert
Howell	L. H. B. Morris
Graves	F. B. Bennett (Capt)

Subs. for Oak Ridge. Anderson, O'Berry and McArthur. Touchdowns. Graves 1, Rogers 1. Goals. Graves 1. Officials. Referee Dr. Baskerville, Umpire Mr. Stephen. Linesman Gruver and Land. Time Keepers Lawson and Woodard.

Oak Ridge wins toss and chooses kick off. Carolina defending west goal.

Oak Ridge kicks off 35 yards to Rogers who catches and runs 90 yards through whole field for a touch down. Graves kicks an easy goal.

Georgia 4--Vanderbilt 0.

SPECIAL TO THE TAR HEEL.

ATLANTA, GA.,

Saturday, Oct. 30th, '98.

The result of the game this afternoon between Vanderbilt University and the University of Georgia was a genuine surprise for the Georgia constituency. The Vanderbilt men were giving heavy odds and caused the Georgia team to go into the game scared green.

Vanderbilt kicked off and sent the ball spinning over the line square between the goal posts. The pigskin was brought to the 25 yard line and by repeated end runs Georgia worked the ball to within 30 yards of Vanderbilt's goal. Here Jones, the Georgia full-back, failed in attempt to score five points from a drop-kick. The Georgia line did not hold well and the kick was blocked.

By small gains attained by line bucking, whirling mass plays and tandem formations Vanderbilt placed the ball on Georgia's fifty yard line. Here it went over and Georgia punted high and far. Vanderbilt's full-back fumbled and Georgia recovered. Georgia signaled for her crack right half to take the ball. McCutcheon responded to the call and with the assistance of beautiful interference he carried the pigskin round left end for a touch down. Georgia "rooters" went wild and didn't seem to mind Jones' failure to kick the goal.

Vanderbilt rallied and by pounding Georgia's line time and again carried the ball to within 20 yards of the coveted goal. On third down she tried a fake tandem play and sent Corlett round right end, but for an untimely fumble Corlett would certainly have scored. This was her only chance.

Vanderbilt had evidently depended too much on gaining ground through the line. She found Georgia's line especially strong on defensive work and it was late in the game when she discovered her ability to make headway round right end.

Georgia had the lighter but faster team and won the game by beautiful punts coupled with the work of fast ends. McCutcheon her right half in offensive work and end in defensive was decidedly the "star."

Vanderbilt was crippled by the necessity of playing her sub-half-backs, and more especially by the absence of Phil. Connell at full. Vanderbilt lacked ginger, while Georgia played an unusually snappy game.

Jones, Georgia's full-back, was much complimented for his splendid punting. The ball was passed to him directly from the centre. He used the side step and gave the ball a spinning motion opposite in direction to the famous Jack Belden corkscrews. This motion was attained by striking the ball with the inner instep.

Assistant Coach Nalle stated tonight that Jones punted eighteen times and averaged 43 yards.

Mercer College won the Georgia Inter-Collegiate Oratorical contest here tonight.

Historical Society.

The first regular meeting of the Historical Society was held in the Chapel in the evening of Oct. 24. Mr. H. M. London was elected Secretary to succeed Mr. McCormick '98.

Dr. Battle read a very interesting paper by Mr. Donald McIver on the "Scotch Settlement of the Cape Fear". This paper tracing the growth of the Colony from the Battle of Culloden to the present time, gave us an insight into the life of a people who, remarkable for their christian fortitude and integrity, constitute the best element of citizenship in the Cape Fear Section of our State.

A paper on "Hatteras in '61" showing the value of this point to the Confederacy and describing the first Union Naval victory was read by Mr. H. P. Harding.

Dr. Battle then entertained the club for the remainder of the hour with some amusing reminiscences about the early teachers of what are now "defunct schools".

Philological Club.

Prof. Harrington entertained the Philological Club Tuesday evening, Oct. 25, with a very interesting paper on the "Letters of Lipsius."

The characteristics of Lipsius, the writer, as well as some very amusing peculiarities of the man were well brought out in the paper.

A very old volume of his published letters were presented and examined with good deal of interest by the members of the Club.

Papers by Prof. Toy and Dr. Linscott were on the programme, but were postponed until the next meeting as these gentlemen were unavoidably absent.
