

HERE AND THERE.

Geo. Vick went to Selma last week to register. We are to play Oak Ridge here on Saturday the 29th.

If you go to Raleigh to the Fair be sure to call on Whiting Bros, Clothiers.

Prof. A. W. Mangum came over from Mebane Saturday to register preparatory to voting Tuesday.

Quite a crowd of fellows went down to the Fair last week and another crowd will attend the Winston Fair during this week.

If subscribers who fail to receive their TAR HEEL will notify the Business Manager promptly, the fault will be gladly corrected.

One pair of Regals will convince you that they are the best shoes made.—Give your order to Broadhurst and Wilson—College agents.

Capt. Bob Wright of the '95 foot ball team now a Professor in Oak Ridge Institute was on the Hill Saturday with the Oak Ridge team.

We see by the papers that Hon. Walter Page, Editor of the "Atlantic Monthly" will deliver a lecture to the young ladies of the State Normal some time during the winter. They have a treat in store. Why can't he be persuaded to give us a visit at the same time? He is one of the most distinguished of living North Carolinians and would draw a large crowd here.

The two Societies will send a challenge to Vanderbilt University for a debate. It's a good move. In order to stimulate better work in speaking and debating, rivalry is necessary, just as in athletics. We trust that arrangements can be made to have the contest.

Our Georgia-Carolina debaters have sent in their query to the Georgia societies. It is: "Resolved, that the United States Senators should be elected by a popular vote." It will be remembered that this query was discussed in the last Inter-Society debate.

Saturday in Atlanta. We should all be interested in this game as we have to tackle Georgia soon. This is Georgia's first victory over Vanderbilt.

TAR HEEL exchanges can be found in the library on a table reserved for that purpose. We urge those who read them to handle them carefully and not destroy them, so that all may get an opportunity to read them.

Owing to the resignation last Saturday night of Mr. H. P. Harding as one of the Phi. Editors of the Magazine, Mr. Brevard was elected to fill his place.

Mr. F. W. Bryan resigned as Phi. representative of the Junior-Soph Inter-Society debate and Mr. Greening was elected to fill his place.

Owing to the resignation of Mr. C. C. Brown as Di. Editor of the Magazine, Mr. H. M. London was elected to fill the vacant place.

Messrs. G. N. Coffey and A. E. Woltz have been elected to represent the Di. Society in the Junior-Soph semi-annual debate.

The query to be discussed is:—

Resolved: That Imperialism should form the future policy of the United States.

The Phi. representatives will discuss the affirmative.

Messrs Bowie and Broadhurst Carolina's representatives in the annual debate with the University of Georgia have sent this query to the Georgians. It is "Resolved that United States Senators be elected by a popular vote". The Georgians have the privilege of choosing side. They have not yet been heard from.

Mr. H. M. Wagstaff spent several days in Raleigh last week; attending the Fair, and visiting his brother, who is a student at the A. & M. College.

Mr. E. D. Broadhurst went to Raleigh to attend the Fair. He went from Raleigh, to Goldsboro to spend a few days at his home.

Messrs. Hearne and Plummer went to the State Fair on Thursday.
