UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA, CHAPEL HILL, N. C., March 9th, 1899.

NO. 19

OUR FIRST GAME.

Carolina defeats Horner by a Score of Twenty-four to Two.

A good crowd was present at the game here yesterday afternoon. The weather had been cold for a few days previous and it was heard that the game would be a poor one. But Wednesday turned off warm and the weather was perfect until the latter part of the game.

Our team played a very good game both in fielding and batting and the game as a whole was satisfactory to all. Horner did not show up as well as was expected and errors by the infielders made the score large.

Both Harkins and Battle did well considering that it was their first game and we may expect good work from them later in the season.

For Carolina there were no particular stars. All played well.

For Horner Jackson at second base played the best fielding game. He also made two out of three hits made by the Horner team. Capt. Carr also played a good game in left field.

The game was called at 4:25 with Carolina at the bat.

Below will be found the game in detail.

1st Inning—Carolina up.

Rogers the first man up hits to short and on wild throw by Turrentine, is safe at first. Rogers then scores on a wild throw by Oldham, J. Winston's fly to R. F. is caught in a puzzling act by Jackson. Lawson is caught out by Long. Woodard hits to l.f. for a beauty two-bagger, but is left on 2nd as Lambeth's fly to l.f. is caught by Carr.

Oldham hits to Battle and is out at first. Carr strikes out. Oldham, W. hits to Battle and is out at first.

Score—Carolina, 1; Horner, 0.

2nd Inning.

Graves hits to second and on Jackson's error reaches first. Alston gets base on balls. Allison hits to short, but Turrentine holds the ball and the bases are full. Battle makes a pretty hit to l.f. and Graves and Alston score. Rogers reaches first on bunt. Winston makes a pretty single between first and second and Allison and Battle score. Lawson sacrifices Rogers home. Woodard's line drive is muffed by Carr and Winston scores. Lambeth hits to third, but Graham throws wild and Woodard scores. Oldham, J.'s wild throw then allows Lambeth to score. Graves flies out to left. Alston hits to third but Long muffs the throw. Oldham, J. catches Alston napping on first and the side is retired.

Lanier reaches first on balls. Graham is hit with ball and goes to first. Jackson makes a pretty hit over second and Lanier scores. Jackson is touched out at first. Long strikes out. Graham steals third, but Pennington strikes out and side is retired.

Score—Carolina, 9, Horner, 1.

3rd Inning.

Allison hits to first and is out. Battle hits to Lanier and is thrown out. Rogers goes to first hit by pitched ball. Winston hits to first and the side is retired without any scoring.

Turrentine is up for Horner and strikes out. Oldham is caught out prettily by Woodard. Carr is caught out by Winston.

Score—Carolina, 9; Horner, 1.

4th. inning.

Lawson hits to Long, is out at first. Woodard knocks a pop fly to Long and is out. Lambeth hits to l. f. for two bases and scores on Graves's hit over short stop. Alston then brings Graves home with a beautiful two bagger over the left fielder's head. Allison beats out a hit to Long and then steals second but both Alston and Allison are left on bases as Battle strikes out.

Oldham W. flies out to Lawson, and Lanier follows him with a fly in the same place.

Graham hits to Battle and is out at first.

Score. Carolina 11, Horner 1.

5th. inning;

Rogers gets hit again and goes to first. "Dicey" singles through short and Rogers goes to third, Lawson hits to short but Turrentine fumbles and Rogers and Winston score, Lawson goes to first. Woodard hits to Turrentine and a pretty double play is made by Turrentine, Jackson and Long. Lambeth hits to Graham but is safe on first because of error. Oldham has a passed ball and Lambeth goes to second. Graves gets first on error by Turrentine and Lambeth goes to third, but is put out between bases by Oldham J.

6th inning.

Alston singles through third and short and then goes to second on a pass ball by Oldham J. Alston then scores on a single by Allison between first and second. Battle gets first on Turrentine holding ball too long. Roger's fly is muffed by Pennington but Battle is out on second. Rogers goes to second. Winston sacrifices Allison home by hitting to Long and Lawson brings Rogers home by a beauty two-bagger to left field. Woodard advanced Lawson to third by a single over second but Lambeth retires side by hitting to Jackson who throws him out at first.

Harkins takes Battle's place as pitcher and begins well by striking out Turrentine. Oldham offsets this by a two-bagger to centre but is touched out by Lambeth on an attempted steal to third. Carr then strikes out.

Score—Carolina 16; Horner 1.

7th inning.

Graves begins this inning by hitting to left for three bases. Turrentine muffs Alston's easy pop-fly and Graves scores. Alston steals second. Donnelly, who has taken Allison's place, strikes out. Harkins reaches first on a wild throw by Graham and Alston scores while he is going to second. Rogers for the third time goes to first on being hit and "Dicey" brings Harkins and Rogers home by a beauty three-bagger to centre. Carr does not get Lawson's pop-fly and Winston scores. Lawson goes to second. Woodard's pop-fly is caught by Oldham and Lambeth retires side by a fly to Carr.

Oldham flies out to Woodard. Lanier fans the air three times and Graham is thrown out by Alston. Score—Carolina 21; Horner 1.

8th inning.

Graves reaches first on an error by Long. Alston is allowed to go to first while Oldham J. throws Graves out on second. Donnelly remains still and gets hit. Harkins fouls out to Graham. Rogers brings Alston and Donnelly home by a three-bagger to right. Rogers then scores on Winston's single between first and second. The side is then retired by Carr's pretty catch of Lawson's fly to left field. Jackson hits to centre for two bases. Long hits to Winston who throws Jackson out at third. Pennington strikes out. Turrentine hits to Harkins and is out at first. Score—Carolina 24; Horner 1.

9th inning.

Woodard's high foul is caught by Oldham. Lambeth is thrown out by Oldham J. Graves reaches first on an error by Jackson. Alston is allowed to reach first by fielder's choice. Donnelly ends the inning by flying out to Oldham W.

Oldham goes to first on four balls and then steals second. Carr flies out to Rogers who muffs and Oldham goes to third. Oldham W. gets hit and bases are full with no one out. Donnelly misses Lanier's easy fly and Oldham J. scores. Graham hits to Alston who throws to Graves forcing Carr at home. The game ends with a pretty double play by Woodard Graves and Winston.

Reverend Rondthaler With Us.

Reverend Rondthaler, Pastor of Christ (Moravian) church at Salem, is with us this week as the University preacher for March. He arrived last Saturday and preached his first sermon to the College, as is the custom of the University preachers, Sunday evening, having occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church in the morning.

After making some mention of the many representations of the Son of God in painting, he announced as his theme for the evening "Christ our Servant," which he treated in a very able and pleasing manner. He impressed strongly on his audience the fact that the whole life of Christ was spent as a servant and that he died because he is our servant. He said it is Christ as our servant now who is so helpful to us. He closed his discourse beautifully with the conception of religion being our serving as best we can the Servant. His audience was large and passed the time pleasantly and profitably.

During this week Reverend Rondthaler will hold the morning prayers in the chapel; he will also be present at the Young Men's Christian Association in the evening.

The President of the Y. M. C. A. here and a delegation of twelve of its members will attend the Y. M. C. A. State Convention to be held in Durham March 9-12.

The many friends of Mr. Percy Whitaker, '98, were glad to see him on the Hill a few days last week. Percy is travelling for the Chas. H. Elliot Co., and judging from his present looks his work seems to agree with him.

In our report of the Washington Birthday exercises contained in last week's TAR HEEL through a typographical error Dr. Battle was quoted as citing Lord Ruskin, as authority concerning Washington's greatness. It should have been Lord Erskine, whom the Doctor quoted.
