The Y. M. C. A. Convention in Durham.

The following gentlemen attended the State Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association as delegates from the Y. M. C. A. of the University: Messrs. T. G. Pearson, L. R. Wilson, J. M. Greenfield, W. B. Speas, H. H. Kapp, J. G. Crawford, Allison, Webb, S. W. Reaves, W. S. Crawford, and George Stephens.

The delegates report a good time for all. The Durham people were very hospitable, doing everything in their power to make the men enjoy their stay. The faculty and students of Trinity College gave a reception to the visitors and they showed their appreciation of their kindness by enjoying themselves to the fullest extent. The students of the Southern Conservatory of Music gave a complimentary concert to the delegates. This was a very enjoyable occasion and the young men left regretting that they had not longer to stay in so pleasant a place. We note that Mr. T. G. Pearson was given the honor of addressing the Convention on the "Work of the Young Men's Christian Association in the Schools and Colleges."
