

not be. A man who expects to do anything or to improve in form or endurance must-simply must prac tice often, and apropos of this, we wish to say that the proper way to train on the track is not to try do your utmost every day, but to practice form in those events where form plays so large a part and endurance in the long races such as ed that we can obtain some stop watches, a sort of preliminary conoccur from time to time during the season. The events will be the 100 vard dash, 120 yards high hurdle, high jump, pole vault, . hot put and mile run.

We are pleased to note the organization of a team among the "Meds;" followed up by similar action among the college classes.

Dr. Mangum held a meeting and elected Mr. Kornegay Capt. and Mr. Kendrick Manager, the two departments of medicine and pharmacy students uniting as usual.

gestion that so far only a few men have begun training for the running high and running long jump; a good opportunity is offered to some one, for the winning of a prize or the "Varsity" sweater in these events.

That well known Photographer, J. D. Brinkley, of Oxford, N. C., will be on the Hill from the 6th to the 15th of April. He can be found at the gallery recently occupied by Mr. Parker. If first class work is what you want, it will pay you to date.

"Pat" Stanley our famous baseball player of past years is playing second base on the University of Georgia team.

Mr. John Webb on account of ths failure of his eyes has gone to his home in BelleBuckle, Tenn.

Mr. Frank Cooke, ex '96, whe recently graduated from West Point, spent Wednesday on the Hill, the guest of his brother, Mr. Fred. Cooke. Med. '00.

Mr. A. H. Vann, '02, on account of sickness, was compelled to go to his nome at Franklinton last week.

TAR HEEL editors on Friday after- ers. noon in the Chapel at 2:30 o'clock.