

HERE AND THERE.

Mr. C. C. Shull of Stroudsburg, Penn., who has been on the Hill for sometime, the guest of his brother, Mr. S. E. Shull, left on Tuesday afternoon for his home. Mr. Shull made many friends while here and they regret greatly his departure.

B. G. Empie Esq., of Wilmington who was a member of the law class here last year, arrived on the Hill Tuesday.

The Co-op is again open, and ready to serve the students as heretofore. Special bargains in many things.

Open 1/2 hour before prayers, 2-4 and 7-8 P. M.

The Monroe Male and Female Institute now has one hundred and ninety students enrolled, and is in an all round flourishing condition. With its corps of four assistants, under the very excellent leadership of Prof. J. G. McCormack, it is giving the town the best school by far that it has had in a long time. The boys of the debating society will give a public debate soon—Monroe Enquirer.

That well known Photographer, J. D. Brinkley, of Oxford, N. C., will be on the Hill from the 6th to the 15th of April. He can be found at the gallery recently occupied by Mr. Parker. If first class work is what you want, it will pay you to give him a trial. Remember the date.

The best debater in the Phi. Society last Saturday night was Mr. Avent, in the Di., Mr. Swift.

Mr. R. L. Godwin '02, war suddenly called home last Friday by the serious illness of his father.

Mr. W. E. Hearn '00 has resigned as sub-marshal for Commencement, and Mr. Frank W. Hollowell '00 has been appointed to fill the place.

The Literary Societies have accepted the proposition of the Literary Societies of Vanderbilt University to establish an Inter-Collegiate debate for three years. The first of these debates will take place next year in Nashville, Tenn. This is an excellent arrangement, for by it we have the Vanderbilt Debate here the years when Georgia debate is not here, and so by this means our students will have the opportunity of hearing one of the Inter-Collegiate debates each year.

Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, dean of the faculty of Philosophy of Columbia University will deliver the annual address here Commencement.

Miss Susan Moses spent the Easter holidays with her parents in Raleigh.

Next Faculty Lecture

On next Tuesday evening in Gerard Hall Prof. W. D. Toy will deliver the next faculty lecture, to which both the students and the public generally are invited to attend. The subject of Prof. Toy's lecture will be "Prince Bismarck," and a rare intellectual treat may be promised those who will be present to hear Prof. Toy on this occasion.

Bids for the contract of the erection of the Carr Building have been opened. As all the bids must be in by April 14, we will soon know to whom the contract will be awarded and when work will be commenced on the building.
