Roanoke College Defeated.

Our Base Ball Team Wins by a Score of 15 to 1.

The game yesterday between our base ball team and the Roanoke College team was won by a score of 15 to 1 in favor of the home team. Weddington pitched well for Roanoke but was poorly supported by the out-field. Winston went in the box for Carolina and by his good work and the ready support of the whole team made an excellent showing. Carolina played an errorless game until the ninth inning, and until this time prevented her opponents from making a run. Rogers' fielding and Woodard's brilliant play at short stop are worthy of mention.

The Game. Carolina first to the bat.

1st Inning. Both teams retire without runs or hits.

2nd Inning. Graves given base and goes to second on Allison's hit but is out on Lambeth's line to short stop. Alston sacrifices and Donnelly fans.

Roanoke. Hampton walks, Fox and Crobell fly out and Williamson is struck out.

Score, Carolina 0, Roanoke 0.

3rd Inning.

Rogers flies out. Winston hits safe and scores on hits by Lawson and Woodard. Allison hits to 3rd base and Lawson goes home. Lambeth is hit by ball and Woodard forced home, scoring the third run for Carolina.

Roanoke drops the stick in short order and leaves the score Carolina 3, Roanoke 0.

4th Inning.

Donnelly flies out. Rogers scores on left fielder's error and passes ball. Winston hits safe and Lawson pounds a three bagger which scores a run. Lawson then steals home and Woodard is placed on first from whence he journeys home on Graves' hit and 3rd baseman's error. Graves then makes home on Allison's hit to short stop and Allison is on first. Alston hits safe, Donnelly brings in two runs by a 2-base hit and then scores on Rogers' hit.

Roanoke fails to reach first.

Score, Carolina 11, Roanoke 0.

5th Inning and 6th Inning net one hit for Carolina, by Allison, two hits for Roanoke by Kemmiter and Jennings, a double play for Carolina (Woodard to Alston to Lawson) and a double play for Roanoke but the score remains

Carolina 11, Roanoke 0.

In the 7th inning Rogers scores on Weddington's error and Winston's hit.

Roanoke scores two strike outs and Hampton flies out.

Score, Carolina 12, Roanoke 0.

8th Inning.

Allison walks to first, is out at second, and Lambeth safe on first. Alston hits safe and steals second. Alston and Lambeth score on error and Donnelly goes to second on same error (fumble of line drive). Catcher muffs Rogers' high fly and Donnelly scores. Winston gets to first on Cunningham's error and Lawson retires the side.

Williamson secures Roanoke's third hit.

Score, Carolina 12, Roanoke 0.

9th Inning.

Carolina quickly retires and Roanoke comes to the bat to score her only run and prevent a shut out game. Jennings is struck out. Cunningham hits within diamond, ball is thrown to first base but first baseman's foot is not on the bag. Balthis hits safe and Cunningham reaches third. Hampton sends a long drive to Rogers in right center. Rogers catches the fly and makes a beautiful throw to the home plate, but Winston and Graves both try for the ball and in the mix up Cunningham scores. Fox is out at first.

Carolina 15, Roanoke 1.

Colonel Creecy on Benton.

Col. R. B. Creecy, A.B., 1835, has published in the Economist an account of the appropriation by Thomas H. Benton of the money of a fellow student. The account was derived from the recollections of Governor Branch, who graduated in 1801, and others. Col. Creecy does not believe Benton could have insulted, as reported, the Committee of the Philanthropic Society, who, thirty years after his expulsion announced to him his restoration to membership, because, after the time of the insult, he (Col. Creecy) wrote Benton asking a contribution to the Library, and Benton answered very kindly and donated twenty dollars.

Choral Society Concert.

The Chapel Hill Choral Society will give its second concert of the season in Gerrard Hall on Friday, May 5th, and a musical feast is promised all who attend. An oratorio will be given and the management has gone to considerable expense to procure musical artists for the occasion. It is not often that the students or residents of the village can attend a high-class musical production, such as this, and every one should support it by at least their attendance.

TRACK ATHLETICS.

The past few days of fine weather gave the track team a splendid opportunity to limber up and get into condition again after a long seige of cold weather and vaccination which nearly wiped out both the gymnasium classes and the track team.

It is a painful fact that the track work meets with very small support on the part of most of the students and some openly sneer at the idea of attempting anything of this sort. This is an extremely narrow minded view and is pretty good evidence of ignorance or ungrounded prejudice.

Let us hope that in the future our sprinters and jumpers will hold a high place among the athletes of the South. And let us put forth our energies to establish such a condition of affairs in the near future.

The time for Prep-School Meet to be held on the 29th inst. is drawing near. Some of the Schools have already got their teams permanently together.

The Annual Society Contests.

The results of the contests in the two Literary Societies last Friday evening were quite gratifying, because of the high order of the work done by the contestants. The contest in the Dialectic Society was for the Declaimer's medal only; the Debater's Contest will be held later. For the Declaimer's medal there were eleven contestants; the medal was won by R. R. Williams, '02.

In the Philanthropic Society the contest was for both Debater's and Declaimer's medals; the former was won by Mr. Connor, '99, and the latter by Mr. Jacocks, '02. There were four of the debaters all of whom did themselves credit. The query for discussion was the Anglo-American Alliance.

The declamations in both Societies showed evidences of the careful training given by our teacher of Expression, Mr. McKie.

A very gratifying feature of the contests is that so many freshmen took part in them.

This shows the great interest taken in Society work by the lower-classmen, and is a marked sign of increasing interest in this kind of work in the future.
