The team left yesterday afternoon for Atlanta where the games with Georgia and Sewanee are to be played. The one tomorrow, the other on the Saturday following. As we all know the Championship of the South rests upon the result of these two games and Carolina must and will retain it in spite of the series of misfortunes which this season has pursued the White and Blue like an evil genius. We all recognize the strength and skill of our opponents and are sure that the contest will be close but we are equally sure that Carolina will win, and the stronger the enemy, the greater the victory. Carolina has the men, the captain, and the true Tar Heel grit which never gives up, and this combination should be sufficient to down any team in the South and will do it. The entire college has implicit confidence in the team and in its ability to do whatever may be required of it and will turn out in force when it returns to hail the again Champions of the South. Nine Rahs for Carolina and Capt. Shull!!!

Again The Tar Heel has to mourn for one who has been taken from among us in the first flush of young manhood. Life and a bright future were all apparently before Howard Alexander, "Pete", we all affectionately called him—but the Great Ruler of Life and Death decreed otherwise, and we miss him greatly, generous, merry, kind-hearted "Pete". We do not wish to intrude upon the sacredness of personal grief but to the stricken father, our dearly beloved Dr. Alexander and to the other members of the bereaved family we offer our most heartfelt and tender sympathy.

Those who were so fortunate as to hear Dr. McGuire deliver his lecture upon Stonewall Jackson enjoyed what was indeed a treat. Most of us had had for Jackson the feeling of awe and reverence that one feels is due a superior being, had honoured his courage and nobility, had wondered at his genius. But few knew anything of Jackson, the man, with human ambitions and passions, who was so implacable to the enemy but who had the tender heart of woman for a friend.

Dr. McGuire had the rare good fortune of being Jackson's close personal friend and of serving with him until his death after Chancellorsville. He knew as did few, the manysidedness of the great leader's character and in his lecture lovingly showed him not alone as he is presented in histories, the very Incarnation of War, but as he was to his few intimates, courteous, gentle, tender-hearted, loving.

Those who heard Dr. McGuire were charmed alike by his address and his personality and we are sure that all join in the heartiest gratitude to him for his coming among us and in trusting that he will favor us again.

yet he can easily be mentioned among the quickest. Height 6 ft., age 21 years.

At left tackle is Capt. Shull, (Law), who as we all know is one of our best and steadiest players and who is the best man we have for breaking up mass plays at the line, especially the "guards back" formation. Weight 169 lbs., height 6 ft. 1/2 inch, age 21 years.

At left end will be played Craig, of '03, one of our sure tackles and one who can be counted on in both offensive and defensive playing. He is a good sprinter and always keeps up with the ball. Weight 144 lbs., height 5 feet 8 inches, age 20 years.

At left half-back is Koehler, Law, who is good for long end runs and for hitting the line for telling gains. He also plays a defensive end and few teams have yet succeeded in cinching him. On punts he always has the man just as he catches the ball. Weight 153 lbs., height 5 ft. 10 1/2 inches, age 25 years.

At right half-back is Bellamy, Med, who can always be depended on for making steady gains and is a sure and safe tackle. On defensive work he is also very good at breaking up the interference. Weight 142 lbs., height 5ft, 8 1/2 inches, age 18 years.

Martin, '01, holds down quarter back's position as well as any one could wish. He is the surest tackle on the team, weighing only 128 lbs., no men ever getting by him. He never loses his head and shows excellent judgment in calling signals. Height 5 ft. 7 1/2 inches, age 20 years.

Graves, of '00, still holds his position at full back. He also is one of our steady ground-gainers and he charges the line harder than any other back. On defensive work he is at his best when filling up holes in the line. At punting he can hold his own with the best of them, averaging between 30 and 35 yards. Weight 160 lbs., height 5ft. 10 1/2 inches, age 19 years.

Howell is one of our best halves. He is always good for long end runs and seldom fails at the line. Weight 138 lbs., height 5ft. 10 inches, age 26 years.

Richardson, of '03, plays both at right half and full. At either place he is very good, always playing quick, snappy ball. On punting he is above the average. Weight 152, height 5ft. 11 inches, age 21 years.

Brem, of '02; is a sub-guard, but can easily be played at any position. He is a steady, safe player and will give trouble to the guards of our opponents. Weight 190 lbs., height 5ft. 9 inches, age 19 years.

As a sub-left-tackle we have Singleterry. Tho a new man at the game he is a strong player all around. Weight 184.

McIver plays as substitute left end and tackle. He is a good all around player and few men get over him wherever he plays.

Phifer W. is also a sub guard and fills the position well.

Average weight 162, height 5 ft. 10 inches, age 21 years.

The Forum.

tation of the English side was given fairly and as unbiased as it could possibly be. Mr. Whitehead Kluttz very ably presented the Boers. They absolutely refused suzerainty of England. Convention of London gave them their absolute freedom. Since 1884 the Transvaal has been reorganized as a free state and England has recognized its freedom. It has made its own treaties, has its own army, levies its taxes and has its own flag. The legality of the franchise which the Boers have made against the English is indisputable.

The Uitlanders are people of England who have no sympathy with the Boers and their institutions. By the time they get the money and wealth for which they are seeking, they will return to England. The Boers have made a gallant fight and are making a heroic stand.

If England gets a franchise goodbye to the little Dutch Republic.

Both of these short talks were full of interest and gave much knowledge of of the situation to the audience. They were delivered free from any spirit of debate, but only to get at the truth of the subject. The rest of the meeting was devoted to short talks on the subject. The first meeting was in every way a success and much credit is due to Mr. E. K. Graham who first proposed the plan and the Committee who helped him to make out the programme of the meeting.

From every indication the University Forum was a great success.
