LAFAYETTE 4 CAROLINA 9

Carolina Takes the Second Game From Lafayette.

The second LaFayette game played last Wednesday, resulted in another victory for Carolina. It was a more snappy game than the previous one; but was by no means a fast one.

Carolina played excellent ball both in the field and at the bat, with few errors except in the last inning. The visitors did not play the game they played in the first game and errors were frequent at the times when they counted most. Lawson's pitching was fine, but he was a little wild in the first few innings before he got his curves under control. Johnston's pitching was slow but our men not being accustomed to a left-handed pitcher, did not hit as much as they otherwise would.

The following is a detailed account of the game:

CORNELL SHUT OUT.

Carolina 6; Cornell 0.

Undoubtedly the prettiest game of the season was played Monday with Cornell. It is the strongest team we have met and one of the strongest we will meet this season, so the showing made by our team against them is quite pleasing to the lovers of the Varsity.

Both sides played beautiful ball and very few errors were made by either. Our boys got on to the pitcher's curves too much in the first inning and piled up too many runs to give the visitors a chance, keeping them under a cloud during the whole game.

The game was full of exciting incidents and close decisions, but the umpire kept both teams on good terms. For Carolina the pitching of Lawson and the good playing of Carr were especially noticeable. Whinery's batting and the fielding of Castello and Robertson were the specialties for the visitors.

The prettiest and most exciting portion of the game was in the eighth and ninth innings, when it seemed as if the Ithacans were determined to score, but Lawson's curves were too much for them.

The cheering of the bleachers was especially noticeable when the team was in a hole and it was very efficient in getting them out.

The game was called at 3:35 P.M. with Cornell in the field. Sanders cuts off Allison's bunt and gets him out at first. Lambeth singles to left field. Lawson finds a safe place over second. Woodard also gets a hit, scoring Lambeth and moving Lawson to third. Graves is hit by ball and the bases are full. Graham sends a stiff one to Robertson, who catches Graves at second, but Lawson scores. Wilcox gets a single over second, scoring Woodard and Graham, but gets out trying to make second.

Lambeth throws Stratton out at first. Bole gets a hit. Robertson fails to find the ball and Newton is out from Lambeth to first.

Score—N. C. 4; Cornell 0.

Holt is out on a fly to left. Carr makes first on Castello's error. Allison is out to Stratton. Lambeth retires the side on a pop fly to Castello.

Castello is out by Carr's pretty pick-up and throw to first. Sanders gets his base on balls. Warner fans. Brown is out from Dawson to Holt.

Lawson hits a slow one to Brown and is out. Woodard is out on a grounder to Warner. Graves lines out a double to centre, but is called out for cutting first.

Whinery gets a single. Stratton hits to Woodard and Whinery is out at second. Bole hits to the same place and Stratton is the victim. Robertson walks and Newton is out on a fly to Allison.

Graham's bunt is cut off by Sanders to first. Willcox lines out another pretty single. Holt is out to Robertson on a fly ball. Willcox goes to second on a passed ball. Carr fans.

Castello fails to get on to the ball. Sanders hits a hot one to Lawson and is out at first. "Pop" Warner does not touch the ball.

Allison singles to center. Lambeth sacrifices Allison to second. Lawson hits to Castello who throws the ball away, letting Allison come home and Lawson go to second. Woodard out to Brown. Graves hits a pop in the diamond which no one is anxious to catch. Lawson is caught off third.

The Ithacans came to the bat with a determination to score, but Brown fans. Whinery hits safe. Stratton out on a pretty catch by Holt of his foul fly. Bole hits the umpire and is given his bag. Lawson tries to catch Whinery out at second but ball goes to the outfield and Graham throws it too low at third, but Whinery is out trying to go home on it.

Score—Carolina 5. Cornell 0.

Graham is given hit base on balls and moves to second on a sacrifice by Wilcox. Holt out from Castello to first. Robertson gets Carr out at first.

Robertson out on Carr's pretty play to first. Allison bunts and makes first. Lambeth out on fly to Robertson. Allison steals second and quickly moves to third. Woodard out from Brown to first.

Sanders is out from Carr to first. Warner fans again and Brown is out by Lawson to first.

Brown gets Graves' infield fly. Graham makes his base on Brown's error and steals second. Wilcox lines out another single and Graham moves to third but is out at home. Holt makes first on Newton's error and Wilcox scores. Holt moving to second. Carr retires the side.

Whinery flies out to Graham. Stratton gets a single and goes to third on Graham's error, making their chances of winning great, but Lawson strikes out Bole and gets Robertson out at first by a grounder in his hands.

Score—Carolina 6. Cornell 0.

Allison out at first, by Brown. Lambeth out on a fly to Brown and Sanders gets Lawson at first.

The visitors make a last effort to score and start off by Newton getting his base on balls. Castello hits to Carr and Newton out at second. Sanders gets first on Woodard's error. Warner by accident hits a slow grounder to Lambeth forcing Castello out at third. Lambeth throws to first but Sanders in trying to make third is called out for cutting at second base the Ithacans losing their last chance to score and giving them a shut out.
