CAROLINA 5. MARYLAND 3.

Carolina wins easily the game played here Saturday with Maryland, by piling up four runs in the first inning. But had the visitors not allowed so many passed balls in this inning it is certain that the game would have been more interesting. The game was without features up to the seventh inning, when Maryland placed the first three men on bases and it looked as if they would tie the score, if not win the game, but Lawson's beautiful pitching saved the day for Carolina. No prettier playing has ever been seen on Carolina's grounds. The first man fails to get on to the curves of the little sphere, the second man hits one down the third base line and the man on third dies at home, the third man goes out easily at first.

The pitching of Wilcox in the first six innings was also very good and there is no doubt but that he will make a star pitcher for Carolina next season. Woodard's playing was also a feature.

The game was called at 3:55 with Maryland in the field. Lawson is given his base on balls, easily steals second and moves to third on a pass ball. Oldham strikes out. Lambeth is out from Kroft to first. Lawson scoring on a wild throw to third. Graves lines out a two-bagger to deep left and moves to third on a pass. Bennett walks and steals second and both score on Whitaker's wild throw over first of Graham's third strike, Graham goes to third on it, scoring on a passed ball. Holt gets a pretty single over third. Wilcox flies out to Smith.

Whitehurst W. gets his base on balls and steals second. Whitehurst H. fans. Whitehurst scores on Smith's single. Woodard gets Whitaker out at first. Kroft is out from Woodard to first.

Score—Carolina 4. Maryland 1. Kroft goes in behind the bat. Whitaker moves to center and Drewry goes to third.

Lambeth cuts off a hit for Sheely and gets him at first. Lawson easily gets Drewry at first. Horn is safe on Woodard's fumble, but Taylor hits at the air three times and accomplishes nothing.

Historical Society Meets.

Monday night in Gerrard Hall the last meeting for this year, of the North Carolina Historical Society was held. It was presided over by Dr. Battle and the occasion proved an unusually profitable one. Mr. Lockhart read a paper on Chief Justice Ruffin, telling the many incidents in this great man's life and of the numerous offices of public trust held by him. He told of his connection with the confederacy and his work on the Peace Conference.

Dr. Battle made a few interesting remarks about Mr. Ruffin whom he knew personally.

"The Career of Gen. William Gaston" was the subject of a paper read by Mr. J. S. Cook. He briefly sketched out the life of Mr. Gaston and told of his remarkable career in the House of Representatives where he was a recognized leader of the Federalist party. He gave several of the important questions which were before the house at that time and in which Mr. Gaston was closely connected. He described the personality of the man, telling of characteristics peculiarly his own.

Professor Noble closed the evening with a particularly interesting paper. His subject was "Battle of Moore's Creek Bridge." He drew a map of Moore's Creek and the country lying around and briefly told the story of that early morning fight on Feb. 27, 1776, the first hand to hand fight of the Revolution that turned out victorious. He told of the correspondence that took place before the fight and showed what a remarkable effect this victory had. He gave some interesting incidents and amusing anecdotes of how our men got ahead of the enemy.

The meetings of the Historical Society this year have proved very enjoyable and highly instructive. The papers as a rule have been excellently prepared and the subjects have been interesting.

To Dr. Battle is due the life of the organization, as is due also most of its unusual success.

Mr. Skinner Alston '99 visited his brother and friends on the Hill last Sunday and Monday.

Several Durham people were over to see the Maryland game last Saturday.

DR. ALDERMAN RESIGNS

His Letter to Hon. R. H. Battle.

May 5th, 1900.

Hon. R. H. Battle,
Secretary Board of Trustees.
Raleigh, N. C.

My Dear Mr. Battle:

I beg to offer to the Board of Trustees my resignation as President of the University of North Carolina to take effect on June 15th, 1900. I take this step after patient study in order that I may accept the presidency of Tulane University of Louisiana to which I was elected on April 5th 1900. This decision has been reached in the belief that it is just to my professional life and to opportunities for educational service that I make the change. I have tried very hard to do the right things along large lines and to eliminate from this problem the commonplace and the sordid. If I have seemed to take undue time to it is because time has been needed to see even with partial vision the path to tread. I have a firm belief that every thoughtful man who has this matter in mind at all will know something of the hurt of heart and mind through which I have passed, and the conflict of duty and emotion in which I have struggled. It is the hardest thing I have yet had to do in my life. It is needless to say my heart has been touched by the evidences of appreciation, all too generous and undeserved, from the people of the State for whom I have labored since manhood, from your honorable body so helpful and just to me always, from the body of Alumni and from the faculty and students of this institution in whose service I have known the joy of striving. I count this appreciation of the finest reward of a life of some toil and struggle for the upbuilding of my native State.

With assurances of my personal esteem I have the honor to remain,
Very sincerely yours,
Edwin A. Alderman.

For Season of 1900.
