Tennessee

A Good Game in Knoxville. Score Was 22 to 5.

In Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 1st., our boys met and defeated the University of Tennessee football eleven by the score of 22 to 5. In commenting on the game the "Journal and Tribune" says:

"Carolina's interference was the most impenetrable ever seen on the local field, and old time football men who have seen the best teams in the country, say they never saw it excelled. Time after time the interference whipped around between end and tackle, boxing the ends out into the field, while the Tennessee backs flung themselves desperately in to stop the breach, sometimes to be met with a rush of Tar Heels in which it seemed the whole Carolina team was interfering."

Logan kicked goal from the field in the first half, making the University score. Hamilton, Logan, Newman, Knappe, Jarnagin, Hollopeter, French and Schenck deserve special mention for the good work they did for Tennessee.

McRae, Bennett, Donnelly, Berkely, and Makely did especially well for Carolina, but every man on the team played safely.

Brem kicks goal.

Newman again kicked off to Carolina's 20 yard line and held in return at the 25 yard line. Carolina was held for two plays and kicked on the third. Logan promptly returned with a kick to the 25 yard line. Tennessee again held. Carolina kicked. Logan did not get to

To the Freshman.

The following by a student is published with pleasure:

When across the campus
For you the Sophs come,
No matter their motive
There's no place like home.
When safe from the Soph'more
You keep yourself there,
You rather prefer it,
To being elsewhere.
Home, home! sweet, sweet home.
When off from the campus,
There's no place like home.
But if they have caught you,
With chills do you shake
And wonder how long
The blacking will take;
Anticipation is dreadful,
The deed itself worse,
And when all is over
You run home to curse.
Home, home! sweet, sweet home.
Stay 'way from the campus!
There's no place like home.

Carolina 48 Vanderbilt 0.

The "Nashville American" and "Vanderbilt Hustler" tell of the Great Game.

On Saturday, the 3rd of the month, Vanderbilt University team lowered their colors to the Tar Heel boys. The Nashville American telling of Vanderbilt's victory over Carolina three years ago says: "48 to 0—that was the bitter pill of revenge which Carolina forced down the throats of the Vanderbilt boys. The hope of defeating the gold and the black stimulated them to work with the result that one of the best teams ever turned out by a southern college sports the white and blue colors of the University of North Carolina. They went into the game yesterday with the spirit of the lion that has his prey covered. The visitors were conscious of their strength. They went into the game with a jump and never let up till time was called. The visitors played one of the strongest games of foot ball that has been witnessed here in some time. They were always in the game and had their knowledge box with them. Fumbles were rare and misplays seldom. Their play was like clock-work in its regularity and perfection." The Vanderbilt Hustler, says, "North Carolina has a well balanced, well developed team. The strongest point in the line is the tackles. The team seems to build up around Bennett, the big tackle who was always called behind the line when gains were needed. Osborne and McRae did good work and Graves punted well and kicked goals with great accuracy." The Hustler furnishes the following detailed report of the game:
