ially good. Suggs had great speed in his balls, and did effective work, he recieved but poor support. The battery constituted the bulk of the visitors team.

The work of the home team was very good, there were many brilliant plays intersticed however by many errors. the work of Sweeney in the box was alright and the support he recieved was all that could be asked. Holt, the captain was absent on account of sickness in this way the nine was of course handicapped.

The feeling tonight is widely different from that experienced after the visit of O.R.I. boys two years ago. On that occasion Lawson was absent and Caroilna was defeated by a score of 8 to 4. But compensation always comes and Thursday was our time.

At the beginning of the game it looked as though a re-actment of the old tragedy was to take place when two men were fanned out and another thrown out but the complexion of things soon changed to a more agreeable hue.

The game was called at 1:45 in order to finish by the P.M. train. Long before this time the seats were all filled, and the trees adjacent to the athletic park were thronged with chattering students. The fence near the campus was also buried with a living mass of students, boot blacks and hack driver. so that all told there was a goodly turn out.

The game began with Carolina at the bat. Carr and Graham first up fanned out. Donnelly and Smathers make first on errors of Suggs and Wilcox gets hit, but Donnelly is thrown out at home.

Renfrow first up for O.R.I. gets to first on hit to third but is thrown out at second. Taylor out to Donnelly. Seterson base on b a l l s. Warren up but Sitterson out at second.

Smathers comes up for N.C. and is out on bunt. Council hits. Cocke gets first on error, but Council is out on second. Henderson comes up but Cocke is thrown out at second.

O.R.I. Warren gets first on error of Wilcox. Suggs gets first. Cool fanned out: Markhorn and Ogbern out on flies.

In third Sweeney, Carr, Graham score for Carolina, while O.R.I. still remains at zero.

In fourth inning Council hits 2 bagger. Cocke follows with hit and Council scores. McDonald fans out. Sweeney gets first on error of Taylor, Cocke scores. Carr hits and Sweeney scores. Donnelly makes first on error of Markhorn and Carr scores, Wilcox gets first on error of Yelverton and Donnelly scores, Smathers hits, Council hits, Wilcox scores, Cocke gets first on error and Smathers and Graham score. McDonald gets hit and Smathers and Council score. Sweeney hits and McDonald scores. Carr hits. Graham hits and Sweeney and Carr score. Donnelly out on fly. Again O.R.I. failed to score.

In fifth inning Carolina scores two runs O.R.I. 0.

In sixth neither side scores, and score stands N.C. 20: O.R.I. 0
