

THE TAR HEEL.

Vol. 11,

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA, CHAPEL HILL, N. C., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1902.

No. 3.

THE OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE UNIVERSITY ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION.

OAK RIDGE BEATEN.

Varsity's Interference the Feature of the Game.

CAROLINA, 35; OAK RIDGE, 0.

Carolina Wins her Second Game of the Season in a Walk—Beautiful Interference and All Round Team Work of Carolina dazed the Oak Ridge Boys

Over three hundred students, filled with enthusiasm and college spirit, saw Carolina in a snappy, gingery game, administer a severe and crushing defeat to the Oak Ridge team last Saturday afternoon by the overwhelming score of 35 to 0. Of course we expected to defeat the visitors; it was but natural for us to form such a belief. We are a University with an enrollment of over 500 boys and have therefore a larger number from which to choose than a preparatory school. But we cannot refrain from expressing the opinion that the score was really larger than was anticipated by the most sanguine, and the magnitude of the defeat indicates one of two things: either Oak Ridge has an inferior team as compared with that of last year or Carolina has decidedly a stronger one.

This game has been productive of much good in that it has forcibly demonstrated the telling effect of Carolina's efficient coaching received during the week prior to the game. One feature of the game was strikingly noticeable. Every blow against the enemy was well planned and admirably executed. The interference was of a high order and simply bewildered the visitors. Continue your good work, Mr. Olcott, and you may rest assured that if Varsity continues to make such marked improvement the annihilation of the Virginia football team will be a dead certainty.

The Oak Ridge team was the first to reach the scene of the struggle and upon its arrival was greeted with loud applause. But when Capt. Foust and his men made their appearance the students went wild with enthusiasm and the applause that followed was loud and inspiring.

Two men ran to the center of the field, a bright coin was tossed in the air, heads fell and Capt. Foust came away with a silly smile, while the Oak Ridge boys went merrily away to defend the east goal. The whistle was blown and there was a dead stillness in the air. Graves bunted the leather slowly to Oak Ridge and the struggle began.

Ross attempted to scoop up the pig skin but Captain Foust unceremoniously made his appearance and claimed the earth and the contents thereof. Carolina having the ball,

Berkeley skirted left end for 12 yards and on the next pass "Farmer Newton" with amazing rapidity, which caused the visitors to stare, circled left end for a touch down amidst rounds of applause. Jones kicked goal.

Time 35 seconds. Score Carolina 6; Oak Ridge 0.

Glenn, for Oak Ridge, drove the ball far into Carolina's territory and Forest advanced 15 yards. Then there was a stillness, then a rush and Berkeley passed by left end for 35 yards. By consistent gains Carolina rapidly approached the Oak Ridge goal. "Now for a touch down," said Graves. Oak Ridge believed what he said. The signal was given, the visitor's ends came together and stared at our proceedings. So there was a pair of stairs and Berkeley walked over for a touch down. Jones placed the leather between the posts.

Time 2 minutes 25 seconds. Carolina 12; Oak Ridge 0.

Glenn punted the ball forty yards and Ingle advanced 15. Newton was given the leather and ran twenty-five yards. In order to give Varsity some relief, Graves kicked the ball far into the visitors territory. This was the first time Oak Ridge gained possession of the ball. They ran against our line but it proved impregnable. Being unable to advance Glenn stepped back for a kick but made a fluke. Varsity took the ball and by hard line plunging and cleverly skirting of the ends, Newton was pushed over for another touch down.

Time 4 minutes, 8 seconds. Jones failed to kick goal. Score, Carolina 17; Oak Ridge 0.

Glenn punted 40 yards and Ingle returned the ball 35. On a fumble Carolina obtained the ball and Newton made a sensational run of 45 yards. Berkeley by strong interference, skirted left end for 15 yards. Newton then crossed the line for another touch down.

Time 3 minutes. Score: Carolina 23; Oak Ridge 0.

Ingle, after receiving the kick off, sent the ball back 40 yards. Here Oak Ridge for the first time made a few gains but was finally held on downs, and Greene thought, after making two miserable efforts to plunge into the vitals of our men, he could make a drop kick for the goal but his plans were frustrated. The ball being in Carolina's possession, Berkeley made the run of his life, cleverly dodging the Oak Ridge bones, and scored another touch down amid thundering applause. Jones kicked goal.

Time 4 minutes. Score: Carolina 29; Oak Ridge 0.

SECOND HALF.

At the beginning of the second half the following men were substituted: Allen, Harris, Endicott, Jacocks, Mc Neil, and Carr.

Oak Ridge being unable to make the required distance drove the ball to Carr who made a sensational run of about 45 yards, making a touch down. It did not count, however, as "Billy" ran out side of the line in making the attempt. Jacocks was given the ball and rushed over for a touch down. Jones kicked goal.

Carolina had started steadily up the geld for another touch down when time was called.

Final score: Carolina, 35; Oak Ridge 0.

Referee, Frank Smathers; Umpire, J. H. McRae. 15 and 10 minute halves.

LINE-UP.

Carolina—Stewart, C.; Parker, L. G.; Farlow, R. G.; Foust, L. T.; Jones, R. T.; Fisher, L. E.; Townsens, R. E.; Graves and Carr, Q.; Ingle, and McNeil, F.; Newton and Jacocks, R. H. B. Berkeley and Allen, L. H. B.

Oak Ridge—Kirkpatrick, C.; Hester, L. G.; Dixon, R. G.; Monship, L. T.; Stockard, R. I.; Lyon, L. E.; Bunker, R. E.; Ross, Q.; Glenn, F.; Rodgers, R. H. B.; Markham, L. A. B.

Public Lectures at The University for Session 1902-1903.

October 9th, Rev. Dr. J. William Jones.

October 23rd, Prof. H. F. Lin-scott.

November 6th, Prof. C. Alphonso Smith.

November 13th, Mozart Symphony Concert Co.†

November 20th, Dean, J. C. McRae.

December 6th, Mr. Willoughby Reide.†

January 6th, Dr. C. D. Verner.

January 15th, Prof. J. W. Gore.

January 22nd, Dr. Garrett P. Serviss.†

January 30th, Hon. George Wendling.†

February 6th, Prof. W. H. Deurden.

February 14th, Dr. John B. De-Motte.†

February 19th, Mr. Alton Packard.†

February 28th, Dr. George W. Cable.†

March 5th, Dr. W. J. Holland.

March 19th, Prof. Charles Baskerville.

March 26th, Prof. R. H. Lewis, M. D.

April 4th, Prof. J. D. Bruner.

† Star Lecture Course.

With the Societies.

The query discussed by the Phi. Society last Saturday night was, Resolved: "That an offensive and defensive alliance with Great Britain would be to the best interest of the U. S." The negative won, and Mr. McFadyen made the best speech.

The query discussed by the Di. was Resolved: "That President Roosevelt's position with Trusts is justifiable.

The affirmative won, and Mr. Hudson made the best speech.

FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

In the Colleges and Universities of the South.

SEVERAL HEAVY TEAMS.

Present Season Will See the Most Splendid Array of Football Material, Coached by the Most Talented Experts, that the Southern Grid-iron Has Known.

The most reliable information that is to be had indicates that the present season will see the most splendid array of football material, coached by the most talented football experts, that the southern grid-iron has ever known. Every southern college where the great college game is allowed has its eleven hard at work on the field every afternoon, and the time is fast drawing near when the long-haired man with the football togs will be the hero of the athletic field.

VANDERBILT DANGEROUS.

There is much of the old material returned at Vanderbilt and the university has been particularly fortunate in getting some of the best new material that has ever entered there.

Several of the preparatory schools which are feeders for Vanderbilt have sent up their most experienced football players, and Coach Watkins banks considerably on this material. The team undoubtedly looks dangerous at this distance and unless an unequal chunk of tough luck in the shape of accident happens to the Commodores their chances for again taking the South's championship are very bright.

NASHVILLE LOOKS BRIGHT.

The University of Nashville eleven is another that threatens to give its opponents trouble before the season has passed. Some half a dozen of last year's eleven have returned, besides several good substitutes and promising new material. Coach Snow, from the University of Michigan, is in charge of the team. He played on Michigan's wonderful eleven last year that scored over five hundred points to their opponents' nothing. Thus far the reports from Monteagle, Tenn., where the team has been practicing, indicate that the men lack speed and that it will take lots of hard work to get them into championship form. Nashville lost a golden opportunity last year to win the championship, and she lost it largely by the failure of her team to grind out the plays with sufficient speed and regularity. Nashville and Vanderbilt will not get a chance at each other's throats this year, and the relative merits of the two teams will have to be figured out

(Continued on 4th page.)