Ode to the Pony.

Friend of our fathers, known of old,
Steed of student of every clime,
We fain would have thy praises told;
Thy hoof prints left in sands of time;
Friend of our fathers, bear us yet,
Lest we forget, lest we forget.

The college halls grow gray with age,
The Presidents and Profs. depart;
Few still live on, save thee and Page,
Thou idol of the Freshman's heart,
Pride of our course, trot with us yet,
Lest we forget, lest we forget.

The cribber bold that puts his trust
In printed cuffs or pony's word,
No tough exam. by him is cussed;
No vain regret from him is heard.
And ages still to come, you bet,
Will ride on thee, lest they forget.
