THE TAR HEEL.

Vol. 11.

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA, CHAPEL HILL, N. C., SATURDAY, APRIL 11, 1903.

No. 25.

THE OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE UNIVERSITY ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION.

CAROLINA DEFEATS CORNELL.

Game Close and Spirited-An Enthusiastic Crowd Cheers the University Team.

It was Carolina's day in Raleigh at the ball park yesterday.

For a while it did not seem so, but finally the Tar Heels overcame Cornell's lead and the blue and white fluttered in victory.

There was a splendid gathering at the Fair grounds to see the contest with bat and ball between the teams from the State University and Cornell University. Over 800 people were out.

The game was full of interest. The ground was in poor shape and this caused some errors. The two teams were pretty evenly matched, though Cornell showed up as a heavier looking set of ball players. Carolina began the game with some nervousness visible but it soon wore off, and despite the lead of Cornell it pulled steadily to the front.

THE GAME IN DETAIL.

It was with the University at the bat that the game began. Oldham was up. With a strike called, one struck at and a ball, he presented a nice fly to short, who gobbled it up. Carr drove to Costello at third, who fumbled but got it to first in time. Donnelly made a clean hit past second into centre, but Holt died from pitcher to first. In Cornell's opening half Bigler batted an easy one towards third, which Pitcher Green tried to han- fly to center which Bigler ran for, dle. He fell down on the ball and but the wind drove it back and it Bigler was glued to the initial sack. fell near short. As the ball rose in Brewster struck out. Lewis batted the air Oldham started for home to short, who with Carr's help, re- from second and got there. Donneltired Bigler at second. Bramen ly passed in his checks and retired was an easy victim from third to the side with fly to left. In Corfirst.

Giles began Carolina's second inning by a clean hit over second into center, but he was retired at second when Cheshire batted to Costello at third. Smathers was up, but third he was caught. the ball he whacked went first to Pitcher Chase, next to second, and the throw to third to stop Bigler then to first, the double retiring the side. Ferguson, for Cornell, hit a clean and hard one in left. He was advanced by Drake's sacrifice bunt handled by Green, and reached third on a passed ball. It looked like a run, as only one hand Holt banged a grass-cutter in left; was down, but Costello lifted a fly in left which Giles took in after a hard run, and Welsh could not find executed a double. With two down the ball with his bat.

both Green and Oldham were retired from pitcher to first. good luck and Carolina errors gave Carr and Smathers scored. The ball Cornell its only three runs. Chase came back from center wild to pitchstruck out. Bigler batted to Carr er and Noble went to second, where off second, but Holt at first dropped the ball and Bigler was safe. base, pitcher to second. In Cornell's Brewster gave Green an easy one, half Ferguson and Drake were out but the Carolina pitcher lost a dou- on foul flys to the catcher, while Cosble by throwing too low to second, tello retired by the pitcher to first both men being safe. Chase reachput a single between first and sec- favor.

ond, which Carr did not reach and Giles in right field let it get away, allowing both Bigler and Brewster to score. Bramen lifted a fly in right which Giles captured, but Lewis scored on the throw in. Ferguson retired the side with a fly to left field, but Cornell had three runs and Carolina had none.

Carr began Carolina's fourth half by waiking to first. Donnelly batted to third and Costello sent it to second for a double, but Bramen was too far from base to get the ball, and both men were safe. Carr keeping on to third. In a wild return of the ball from the field to the pitcher he scored. Holt hit clear in left, Donnelly reaching second. Giles batted to second and was out at first, but the runners advanced, With men on second and third and none out, Cheshire died from pitcher to first and Smathers met the same fate when he batted to Ferguson off first, that sack being covered by the pitcher. In Cornell's half there was nothing doing, as Drake went out from short to first. Costello flied in center and Welch was retired from short to first. The score was now three to one in Cornell's favor.

Carolina's fifth began with Noble striking out, followed by Green giving a fly to Ferguson at first. Oldbam batted near first, and that baseman got the ball, but the pitcher, who was covering first, dropped it and as it rolled away Oldham sprinted to second. Carr lifted a high nell's half Chase drove a ball past second, who fumbled and let Chase reach first. Bigler bunted to Green but Holt at first dropped it. Chase went to second, but in trying for Brewster fanned. Lewis hit in right and on went to second. Bramer retired the side with a fly to center. The score was now 3 to 2 in Cornell's favor and Carolina was creeping up.

In the sixth Carolina increased its lead with the run that won the game, but Giles presented and easy one to short, who, with second and first, Cheshire hit in right. Smathers In the third the Tar Heels did was in luck, as Cornell's left fielder nothing. Noble flied to left, while dropped the fly, while Carr made third on dead run. Smathers stole Then second and on Noble's hit to center with Green up he was caught off route. This left Carolina in the ed third on a passed ball. Lewis lead, the score being 4 to 3 in its eight. For Carolina, Holt struck committe three typewritten copies out, Giles flied to short, Cheshire of the competitive essay, signed in a reached first, as Ferguson dropped pseudonym. He shall also, at the the ball thrown him by Bramen, but Smathers was out, pitcher to the committee a sealed envelope first. In Cornell's half Bramen containing his name and address, was out, pitcher to first, Ferguson hit a good one in right field, Drake walked and the side was retired on a double when Costello batted to Chase at the slab, second and first finishing the play.

Green was out short to first, Old- consented to act as judges of the esham flew in left, Carr walked and says submitted for the prize of $50 .-Donnelly flied out to deep center. 00, which is to be given for the best For Cornell, Welch fanned. Chase essay on "The Effect of the Fratermade a clean hit in left and advanc- nity on American College Life." ed on Bigler's hit past second. Brewster flied out to center, with nized degree in any American col-Lewis up Chase stole third, but lege or university may compete. Lewis died on a fly in left near the No essay shall contain more than foul flag, which Donnelly captured 3,000 words. Each contestant shall in splendid form.

The ninth was easy. struck out, Green batted to second who fumbled, allowing Green to go safe. Oldham batted to short, who threw Green out at second, and Carr ended Carolina's game by getting thrown out at first when he batted to third. It was Cornell's last chanse now, but it did no good. Welch was out from second to first, Chase flew in left and Bigler ended the agony by batting to Cheshire, who quickly shot the ball to Holt at first and the game was over with Carolina the victor by four to three.

TABULATED SCORE.

	CA	R	oi	JIN	A.

	A.B.	R.	H.	P.O.	A.	E.
Oldham, cf,	5	1	0	3	0	0
Carr, ss,	3	1	1	2	3	0
Donnelly, 1f.	4	0	1	3	0	0
Holt, 1b,	4	0	2	9	1	2
Giles, rf,	3	0	1	- 2	0	1
Cheshire, 2b.	4	1	1	1	2	1
Smathers, 3b,	4	0	0	0	2	0
Noble, c,	4	1	1	7	0	2
Green, p,	4	0	0	0	4	2
Total,	32	4	7	27	12	8
	C	ORNE	LL.
Bigler, c f,	5	1	1	1	0	0
Brewster, 1 f.	4	1	0	3	0	1
Lewis, 88,	4	1	2	4	4	0
Bramen, 2b,	4	0	0	2	1.	2
Ferguson, 1b,	4	0	2	12	1	1
prake, r f,	2	0	0	0	0	. 1
Costello, 3b,	4	0	0	1	3	0
Welch, c,	4	0	0	3	0	0
Chase, p,	4	0	1	1	7	2
Total,	35	3	-6	27	16	7

RHE Carolina 0 0 0 1 1 2 0 0 0-4 7 8

Score by Innings:-

Cornell 0 0 3 0 0 0 0 0 0-3 6 7 Batteris-Carolina: Green and Noble: Cornell: Chase and Welch. Summary-Passed balls, Noble, 2; bases on balls-off Green, 1; off Chase, 2; struck out by Green 5, by Chase 3; left on bases-Carolina 7, Cornell 7; sacrifice hits-Giles and Drake; double plays-Carolina 1, Green to Carr to Holt; Cornell 2, Chase to Lewis to Ferguson; time of game 1:30; umpire J. Sherwood Up-

> -News and Observer, April 10, 1903.

Prize Essay Contest.

The New York Alumni Association of the Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity wishes to announce that Ex-President Grover Cleveland, President Benjamin Ide Wheeler of taithful. the University of California, and won't you come out for the honor of Chancellor E. Benjamin Andrews Carolina?

In the seventh for Carolina, of the University of Nebraska, have Any student working for a recogon or before the first day of May, There was no change in the 1903, mail to the chairman of the same time, send to the chairman of with his pseudonym on the outside.

> Arrangements have been made whereby the essav successful in this contest may be submitted in competition for a prize of $150.00, to be given by the College Essay Publish-Noble ing Company, of Boston, Mass.

H. W. PITKIN, Chairman. 521 West 123d St., New York City.

Athletics.

The time for our track meet with Virginia is drawing near aud but few men have, as yet, come out for the various events. The meet comes off May 19 at Charlottesville. This gives us a little over five weeks for actual training. We will carry about fifteen men.

While only a few have been out for work those few have been coming up in good shape. There is a a general lack of form in most of the events and the starting is a little slow, due perhaps, to the condition of the track.

For the various events, Irvin is the fastest on the 100 and 220, while Newton and Wilson in the 220 and 240 bid fair to be speedy and strong. Altho Oldham is tangled up in base ball it is hoped he will make fast time in the 440 and some of the other runs. Mangum, Cash, Calder and Reynolds are the mainstay for the mile and Mangum and frost for the half. But four men are out for the hurdles. Chief of these are Wilson, who did good work last season, Haynes, Smith and Oldham. Cox will be in these if his knee will permit.

In the field events we are especially weak. No one has as yet come out for the running broad leap. Wilson and Newton are up on the high jump and bid fair to do five feet and a half or more. Mann and Crawford are the best matured in the pole vault, with the possibility of Newton working it up. The weight men are Newton, Seagle, Oldham and Jones.

It is urged upon every man that is athletically inclined to come out and work for the glory of his Alma Mater and help us "do" Virginia. There is a place for every man who comes out. The reward goes to the We need more men-