CLEMSON OUTCLASSED.

Carolina Defeats Clemson by a Score of 11 to 6 in the Face of Difficulties. Foust, Newton and Jacocks Stars.

In a most exciting game Carolina beat Clemson last Saturday on the University gridiron by a score of 11 to 6. Uneasiness for the Varsity was felt at the beginning of the game on account of her crippled condition, and because of Clemson's trick plays. And, in fact five of Carolina's men were "knocked out" while Clemson played the same eleven from beginning to end. The visitors were well trained and they played exceptionally hard, snappy ball. This, however, the Varsity offset, for, to use the language of an old Carolina player, "none of the team had cold feet." And the balance tilted in Carolina's favor because the Varsity as a team played hard, honest ball.

Clemson's playing was characterized by fouls: off-side plays, and by holding in the line. In fact, the Referee on one occasion was forced to call time to say: "Gentlemen, the rules state that all such playing is unsportsmanlike and must be penalized, and it will cost you every time I see you foul." But Clemson—and the facts must be recorded—continued to play "unsportsmanlike" ball, and Carolina, we regret to say, finally met them halfway.

The noticeable feature of the game was the team work on both sides. Yet there are some who must be given special mention: for Clemson—Sitton, Wood, Furtick and Harvey; for Carolina—Foust, Berkeley, Engle, Jacocks and Newton. Newton, with a constantly bleeding eye, played a brilliant game, and he was taken off the field at the close of the game, amid cheers on the shoulders of enthusiastic rooters.

THE GAME.

Clemson wins the toss and chooses to defend the east goal. Berkeley kicks to Clemson's 10-yard line and Clemson returns it 5 yards, then fumbles but regains the ball and goes over Foust for 3 yards; then Clemson goes around same place and is tackled by Newton for 2 yards. On next play Clemson fumbles but regains the ball. Next two plays net 3 yards. Clemson loses 3 yards around Cox, second down. Clemson kicks 35 yards and Berkeley returns it 5 yards. Newton makes 3 yards. Clemson is off-side and loses 5 yards. Donnelly makes 20 yards around Sitton. Foust on like play makes 3 yards and a Clemson man is hurt. Newton makes 2 yards over tackle. Foust adds 2 1-2 yards over tackle, placing the ball on Clemson's 32 1-2-yard line.

Hester misses signals and Engle runs with the ball, making 1 yard. Berkeley is hurt. Donnelly makes 3 yards but is called back as Clemson is off-side. The ball is on the 25 1-2-yard line and first down. Newton goes over the line for 1 1-2 yards. On tackle back Foust makes 1 yard. On same play Newton makes 3 yards. Berkeley makes 1-2 yard. Special Train to Richmond.

A special train will be run to Richmond Thanksgiving, to carry all students wishing to go to see the game. The train will leave Chapel Hill station at 5 or 5.30 A. M., returning leave Richmond at 12 midnight. The fare will be $2.50 per capita for round trip. In order to have this train run the Athletic Association has to guarantee the railroad people a sale of 150 tickets or more. For this reason it is urged that as many as can, go. Unless this number go, and communicate their intention to do so in time to charter the train, it cannot be run. Sign the list in the University Pharmacy and come out to the mass meeting to be called soon to find out the number intending to go. On to Richmond.
