

LOCAL NOTES.

Dr. K. P. Battle lectured in Greensboro last Friday night, before the State Normal and Industrial College.

Prof. Noble returned today from a business trip to the eastern part of the State.

Prof. and Mrs. J. W. Gore will leave Thursday or Friday for a short visit to Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia. Prof. Gore goes north on University business.

Dr. Chas. Baskerville will lecture in the Chapel tonight on "Air and Ventilation."

Mr. L. H. Smith, of Liberty, spent Tuesday night here with his son, Mr. T. H. Smith, '06.

Messrs. Lassiter, Smith, Stuart, Mann and Dortch went to Durham Tuesday to witness the Trinity-Lafayette game.

Mr. Tom Rice, of the class of 1900, now in the U. S. Soil Survey, after spending several days here, left Monday for Washington, D. C.

Mrs. W. S. Bynum and Miss Mary Bynum, of Lincolnton, are spending several days here visiting at Dr. A. Henderson's.

Prof. E. K. Graham returned Friday night, after being away several days on business connected with the University.

Mr. Paul Faison spent several days on the Hill this week.

Messrs. H. M. Emerson and T. Hill went to Durham Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. W. C. Rice spent Monday night in Raleigh.

The Y. M. C. A. was led Tuesday night by Prof. Gore. His theme was the New Building.

The new Baptist pastor, Rev. C. A. Jenkins, will be inducted into office and deliver his first sermon this coming Sunday.

Dr. Thomas Hume has been invited to deliver a course of lectures on Shakespeare before the A. & M. Summer School and will render this service the second week of the school. Dr. Hume is an authority on Shakespeare and we feel sure his lectures will be thoroughly appreciated.

Mr. Frank W. Mack, recently Superintendent, Eastern Division of the Associated Press, will deliver a Star Course lecture in the Chapel April 7.

Prof. Collier Cobb returned Sunday afternoon from a business trip to Raleigh.

Dr. C. W. Coker has been confined to his room for several days with grip.

The University has just purchased an additional telescope for the use of astronomy students. It is a very fine instrument of its kind.

Miss Pattie Lewis returned to Raleigh Saturday, after a visit of several days at Dr. K. P. Battle's.

Mr. J. W. Turrentine, S. M. '02, associate professor of Chemistry at Lafayette University, spent several days on the Hill this week. Several from Durham were here Friday afternoon to witness the game with Lafayette.

Past Week's Work.

The University students who are canvassing for the Young Men's Christian Association building have met with remarkable success. In one week they have secured two thousand dollars in subscriptions from the faculty, students and townspeople. Many of the subscribers have made sacrifices that they might have a part in the erection of this building which is destined to be a power for good in our University life. One thousand dollars more is needed to complete the edifice. When this amount is subscribed, an additional thousand dollars will be available to the committee through the generosity of an unknown friend. Mr. W. D. Weatherford, who addressed our student body last fall secured this gift for our college. This gift will enable the committee to furnish the building handsomely. The soliciting committee is confident that the necessary one thousand dollars will be secured this week, as every student in college has a desire to encourage this University movement.

Summer School.

The next session of the University summer school will begin June 13th and continue until July 8th. The prospects for a successful session are bright. The teaching force has been selected from the University faculty and from the faculties of about a dozen other prominent Educational institutions. There will be some thirty specialists on the regular teaching staff, and besides these a number of special lectures.

Do You Want to Make Money?

You can easily earn at your home during your vacation enough money to take you through college next session. No canvassing. Clean hightoned business. If you expect to work at all, it will pay you to investigate this proposition. In writing give age and home address. For full particulars, address Box 28, Charlottesville, Va.

Japan and Russia are fighting it out on the other side of the earth but the boys here are busier than they are buying spring suits from Parker and Johnston and guessing at the number of beans in the bottle. Take a guess at the number you may get the pants. Near 200 guesses have been registered in the last ten days. Come early and avoid the rush.
