CORNELL UNIVERSITY MEDICAL COLLEGE

NEW YORK CITY.

The course covering four years begins during the first week in October and continues until June.

A preliminary training in natural science is of great advantage.

All the classes are divided into small sections for recitations, laboratory and clinical bedside instruction.

Students are admitted to advanced standing after passing the requisite examinations.

The successful completion of the first year in any College or University recognized by the Regents of the State of New York as maintaining a satisfactory standard is sufficient to satisfy the requirements for admission which have lately been raised.

The annual announcement giving full particulars will be mailed on application.

Historical Society.

The Historical Society met in the History room Monday evening at seven thirty. The meeting was well attended by the members of the Society and students of the University. Talks were made by Drs. Battle and Raper and Mr. Sawyer. Dr. Battle spoke of "Slavery in North Carolina Just Prior to and During the Civil War." He spoke of the kind treatment of the slaves who did not try to rise against the women and children. He spoke of legislation in North Carolina concerning slaves before the war, and the friendly relations between the whites and the negroes.

Dr. Raper spoke on "The Influence of Quakers on Slavery in Middle North Carolina." He discussed briefly the anti-slavery movement in North Carolina, particularly among the Quakers of Guilford county. Dr. Raper's address was exceedingly interesting and instructive.

Mr. E. L. Sawyer made the third and last address and gave some biographical sketches of some of the North Carolina members of the Confederate Congress. Mr. Sawyer's address was very entertaining. This was the last meeting of the Historical Society for this term.

Questions and Replies.

(On Ethics).—Prof. Williams—What do you think about it, Mr. Newton?

Newton (waking up)—Ah—er—no, sir [wrathfully]. Now, professor, these fellows that are laughing so big think I was asleep, but I was listening to every word you said.

Johnston, A. H.—Dr. Alexander, how is it that you blow those rings so nice. I don't see how you do it.

Dr. Alexander—Well, you do it with your cheek—and you have plenty of that, you know, Mr. Johnston.

Bohannon—Dr. Zerban, do you Germans drink beer before or after meals?

Dr. Zerban—Beer? Beer? Oh—ach—vy, all der time; yah, all der time.

Spring Tennis Tournament.

The Spring tennis tournament will begin next Monday. Those who are not members of the Association will be allowed to play by paying fifty cents to Mr. Wilson at the Library. Hand your names to him before Saturday at dinner, as the schedule will be made out then. As usual Spalding's best racket will be given to the winner. A match will consist of two out of three sets and balls will be furnished free of charge. The admission fee to the association is $2.00 and this gives you entrance to the Tournament. The contract for three good courts is in the hands of Long Bill Jones and nobody but members can play on these courts.

Mr. Weatherford Coming.

Mr. W. D. Weatherford, of New York City, will address the University students next Tuesday evening at 7:15. His subject will be "The Universal College Sin." Mr. Weatherford is pleasantly remembered here, having spoken before the student body last Fall.

Handsome Floral Designs

Our designs are well made, carry well, keep, keep well. They have a distinctiveness unlike all others. They are in just the one class—by themselves. Nothing ordinary, but just the proper thing every time. Not just a conventional design, but something better than the ordinary. Changelessness and sameness for ever in design work is something we have learned to eliminate. Order funeral designs by telegraph or telephone.
