HATS off to the ladies! The TAR HEEL wishes to express the appreciation of the student body for the consideration the ladies showed in removing their hats at the lecture.

LAST week we reprinted an article from the Washington Gazette-Messenger which was unbelievably absurd. Our comment conveyed the impression that it was inspired by the person referred to in it. There was no intention that we should be understood as accusing the gentleman of writing the article or having it written. We simply thought that he had—the editor did not know him, by the way—written home perhaps boastfully of what is an honor but is yet one frequently won by freshmen. Since the paper was issued we have been convinced that the gentleman was quite innocent of the affair. We regret that an injustice has been done.

Men in the old dormitories will be sorry that the fire places are to be closed. They have done service many a time when the radiators failed to do what they were paid to do. Perhaps it is best that they should be closed as a safeguard, but the authorities should not forget that the radiators will have to bear the whole burden alone now. A good many nights last year the rooms were so cold that men would leave their own rooms and go to other rooms to get near a fire. Especially was the case last spring when cool, damp days would follow a period of warm weather and the heat would not be turned on. A deal of sickness was the result. It is a great pleasure to say, however, that this fall those in charge of the heating plant have been a lot more thoughtful.

A Mistake in the Directory.

President Miller, of the Y. M. C. A., has a serious proposition on his hands. It was all caused by an error in the Directory published by the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Miller was accosted a few days ago by a stranger whose countenance showed great perturbation of mind. "I just wanted to tell you," said the stranger, "that you made a mistake in the Directory. My name is ———."

You put me down as a first year medical student and I am a second year man." There was a look of expectancy on the injured man's face. President Miller assured him that everything possible would be done to correct the error. There is strong probability that a new edition of the Directory will be issued without delay.

CHORUS TO "GOODBYE TO MY BLUE BELL."

All hail Carolina, three cheers for thee,
 Soon we'll be singing of your victory.
 Your line men charging, your back field fast
 Will lick Virginia as they've done in the past.

Play ball Ca'lina, you're bound to win,
 Break through Virginia's line and down her men.
 Va. can't score today, that must not be,
 Three cheers for the team that comes from old N. C.

Good-bye, Virginia; farewell to you!
 Sing one last song for poor old Orange and Blue!

Furl all your banners, bid hope adieu;
 Hear all the chorus yelling N. C. U.!

Hail Carolina, noble and true;
 All up and sing a song for White and Blue!
 You've seen Virginia vanquished today—
 Hail Carolina—down with U. V. A.
