

THE DELEGATES RETURN HOME.

A Great Trip, A Fine Time and a Big Meeting They Say They Had, For a Fact.

The University delegation to the Nashville convention returned Tuesday and report that the convention was a great success in every way. There were at the convention 4,188 accredited delegates besides hundreds of students who came on their own responsibility with the hope of gaining admission to some of the sessions. Of the 4,188 delegates, 3,060 were college and University students, and 286 were representatives of faculties, 700 institutions of higher learning in the United States and Canada being represented. One hundred and forty-four returned missionaries were there and one hundred and forty-nine representatives of missionary boards and societies and young peoples' movements, were given delegates' credentials. Nineteen thousand people went through the missionary exhibit.

One of the most pleasant features of the convention for the University delegates was a meeting on Saturday night of all the University of North Carolina men who were at the convention. The alumni gave strong messages and sound advice to the delegation. Besides the ten delegates from the University, there were at the convention the following old University men: Dr. A. L. Phillips, of Richmond; Ralph M. Harper, Travelling Secretary for the Student Volunteer Movement; E. S. W. Dameron, College Secretary of the Kentucky Young Men's Christian Associations; W. J. Gordon, theological student at the University of the South; Geo. Stevens and Reid, theological students at the Presbyterian Seminary at Louisville; Starnes, medical student at Northwestern University; Hazleton, theological student at Vanderbilt University; Prof. J. R. Baggett, of Buie's Creek Academy; and Hall Johnson, lawyer at Asheville.

The delegates will make a report to the students at a special meeting on Thursday night, and it is hoped that a large number will show their interest by attending.

Concerning the Yackety Yack.

The contract for printing this year's annual has been finally awarded to Messrs. Edwards & Broughton, of Raleigh, the lowest bid having been made by them. This is the first time a State company has been given the contract, at least for some time, and it is confidently expected that the work done will be of a higher class than that done heretofore.

One thing appears to be certain. The annual this year is coming out without any deficit. Already more than twice as many have been sold as were sold last year and three or four times as much advertising has been secured. Many alumni and friends are sending in their two dollar bills, among them four of our Congressmen and Governor Glenn, who wants two.

The material is now in the hands of the publishers but those who have not given their names for a copy and those who want extra copies have still about four days to see the business managers and place their orders.

At a meeting of the faculty committee on athletics Tuesday the committee, considering the case a second time, reaffirmed their former decision, debarring Mr. W. D. James, catcher, from the Varsity. Mr. James testified to having received money as rewards for timely hits. The committee held that, even though the money was all spent during the trip, this was receiving pay for athletic services and rendered the receiver ineligible.
