

Carolina 8, Bingham 1.

Carolina let down the boys from Bingham School, of Asheville, yesterday afternoon by the score of 8 to 1. The game was one-sided and rather uninteresting. Capt. Stem did the twirling for Carolina and did it to the Queen's taste, allowing only four hits and two of these being scratches. He was well supported, the team making only two errors. Bingham' single run was made in the seventh inning on a run in from third after the catch of an outfield fly. Harris, Bingham's slab artist, was touched up for thirteen hits, among them a three-bagger each by Patterson and James, and two-baggers by Thompson and Story. Stem struck out 6 men, and gave no free-passes.

Earned runs, Carolina 5, Bingham 0. Stolen bases, Carolina 8. Left on bases, Carolina 10, Bingham 6. Bases on balls off Harris, 1. Umpire, Meade. Batteries, Stem and Rogers; Harris and Caraway.

The Track Athletes.

The preliminary trial for the annual dual track and field meet with Virginia was held Tuesday afternoon and the team that will represent Carolina Saturday in Charlottesville was selected. The successful candidates with their time and events are as follows:

100 yard, McNeil, 10. Davis, 10.4
220 yard, Davis, 25; McNeil, 25.4
440 yard, Winborne, S., 58.8,
Pittman, 9.

880 yard, Bridgers, 2-23.2.

Mile, Hampden Hill, 5-20.

High hurdles, Phillips, 17.6.

Low hurdles, Phillips, 31.

Shot Put, Pittman, 36 ft. 8 1/2 in.

Hammer Throw, Dickson, 95 ft.

Broad jump, Dunlap, 20 ft. 1 in.

The pole vaulting will be done by Crawford, and the High Jumping by McNeil, unless Singletary is in condition. With the exception of the hundred yard dash there was no exceptionally good time made, the majority of the men not coming up to previous records. The team is weaker than that of last year, owing to a number of losses. Virginia, however, is also weaker, by the loss of Council, Pollard, and Murphy.

Notice.

We wish to call attention to the advertisement of the Southern Life Trust Company of Greensboro. This company has formulated a splendid plan which requires the services of a number of first class young men who will be paid a regular salary, and the advertisement in this issue invites our good men to drop them a line.

This company is endorsed by the best men of the State and a number of University men are connected with it in profitable positions. It would be well to write at once and make your arrangements for the future.
