

THE TAR HEEL.

Vol. 14.

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA, CHAPEL HILL, N. C., THURSDAY, MAY 3, 1906.

No. 28.

OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION.

GEORGETOWN ON TOP.

Catholic Curves Captivate Carolina—The Game Might Have Been Won But For Errors.

Georgetown took the last of the games on Carolina's Northern trip in Washington Saturday by the score of 4 to 1. Cunningham pitched his usual good game. The contest was close until the eighth inning when Georgetown cinched the game.

With one out in the first inning James got a free pass and stole second. Story failed to connect, but Cunningham rapped a grounder past first, and James returned to the starting point. This was Carolina's single tally.

Georgetown completed the circuit for the first time in the fourth. With Smith down, Mahoney was passed and Simon skied to center. Mudd singled to left and Monohan followed with a safety in same direction, which scored Mahoney, but Mudd was out at second on a return throw from home.

In the sixth with two out, Harris dropped Simon's high fly over second. The Georgetown man stole second, and counted on a pair of errors by Harris in attempting to field Mudd's chance.

In the eighth Capt. Smith led off with a clean home run smash, which rolled by the track in the deep left, Mahoney singled to center, and reached third where Hanes fumbled. On Simon's fly to center Mahoney came home. Carolina was in the dust of defeat once more.

N. CAROLINA	R.	H.	P.O.	A.	E.
Calder, rf.	0	1	1	0	0
James, 3b.	1	0	2	3	0
Story, cf.	0	0	3	2	0
Patterson, 2b.	0	1	0	4	0
Stem, 1b.	0	0	7	0	0
Harris, ss.	0	1	1	1	4
Rogers, c.	0	0	8	2	0
Hanes, lf.	0	0	1	0	1
Cunningham, p.	0	2	1	2	1
Total	1	5	24	14	6

GEORGETOWN	R.	H.	P.O.	A.	E.
Devlin, 2b.	0	0	1	0	0
Schellley, ss.	0	1	1	1	0
Smith, 3b.	1	1	0	2	0
Mahoney, 1b.	2	1	14	0	0
Simon, cf.	1	0	2	0	0
Mudd, c.	0	1	5	2	0
Monohan, rf.	0	1	0	0	0
Duggan, lf.	0	0	1	0	0
Mayock, p.	0	0	3	3	0
Totals	4	5*	27	8	0

*Called out on Hanes's interference.
Score by innings:
Georgetown 0 0 0 1 0 1 0 2 x - 4
Carolina 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 - 1

Earned run, Georgetown 1. First base by errors, Georgetown 3. Left on bases Georgetown 5, Carolina 4. Bases on balls off Mayock 2, off Cunningham 3. Home run, Smith. Two base hit, Calder. Stolen bases, James, Harris and Simon. Hit by Cunningham 1. Wild pitches Cunningham 2. Umpire Betts. Time 1 hr. 40.

—The Golden Fleece has extended invitations to membership in it to the following members of the Junior class: Messrs. H. L. Sloan, J. H. D'Alemberte, J. J. Parker, D. P. Tillett, J. B. James, H. H. Hughes and W. H. Pittman.

—The Seniors forfeited to the Freshmen yesterday, 9 to 0.

DR. MANNING WEDS.

A Quiet Yet Beautiful Home Affair in Raleigh Last Wednesday.

A social event of particular interest to University people took place last Wednesday night in Raleigh when Dr. Isaac Hall Manning, of Chapel Hill, and Miss Martha Battle Lewis, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Richard Henry Lewis, of Raleigh, were married. The News and Observer, 26th, said:

The wedding was a quiet but lovely home event, and there were in attendance only intimate friends and relatives. At Cloverdale, the suburban home of Dr. and Mrs. Lewis, the decorations in the room in which the wedding took place were in white and green, ferns, palms and smilax being used. The bay window before which the wedding took place was artistic in its decorations.

There were no bridal attendants, and for the happy event the bride was gowned in white silk, her bouquet being of bride's roses. After the wedding, refreshments were served and later Dr. and Mrs. Manning left for Washington and points north. After their trip they will go their future home at Chapel Hill.

The bride is a charming and talented young woman, and is highly esteemed by a large circle of friends. Dr. Manning is the son of the late Hon. John Manning, of Chapel Hill, long-time professor of law at the University, and is the dean of the Medical Department at Chapel Hill of the University of North Carolina.

The Juniors Laughed Last.

The Juniors defeated the Seniors in the game of the season last Thursday afternoon, the score being 16 to 15. The umpire said, "Play ball," some time in the neighborhood of four o'clock, and the shades of evening were rapidly falling around (without injuring anybody, however) when, in the ninth inning Houck crossed the home plate for the sixteenth and the winning run for the Juniors.

The game started off like a walk-over for the Davie Poplarites, having at one stage a lead of five runs. But the Juniors kept on playing and the crowd kept on leaving, a large portion making their exit at the sound of the supper bell. The few truly faithful on both sides, mingled with a sprinkling of Freshmen, Sophs and law students, remained and rooted to the last.

Crawford described the curves for the rope descenders, holding the Juniors to twelve scattered hits and sixteen scattered runs. He was accorded gilt-edged support, only eighteen errors being made behind him. Brinkley pitched six innings for the Juniors, giving way to Hutchison.

Score by innings:
Seniors 3 1 0 0 7 2 1 1 0 15 14 18
Juniors 2 0 0 4 0 5 1 1 3 16 18 11

Batteries: Crawford and Hoyle; Brinkley, Hutchinson and Rankin.

STUDENT CONFERENCE.

A Most Important Gathering up in Mountains, Where Balm Breezes Blow.

Every summer for the past thirteen years a large number of picked men from the Southern colleges and universities have met for ten days in the mountains of North Carolina in Southern student conferences of the Young Men's Christian Associations. This conference has been a powerful factor in moulding the lives of the men who attended, and in shaping the voluntary religious activities of Southern students. Attendance on at least one of these conferences during the four years in college is regarded by many Christian students as a very necessary part of their education.

This year the conference will meet from June 15, June 25, inclusive, at the Asheville Farm School, near Swannanoa, on an elevation commanding a magnificent view of some of the most imposing scenery in the Western North Carolina mountains.

The well known purpose of the conference is to deepen the spiritual life of students, to train them for leadership in organized Christian work in their institutions, and to open up to them larger opportunities for service in life. The speakers, teachers and leaders have been chosen because of their especial fitness in life, scholarship and experience to help college men grapple with problems which they are meeting, both in their own lives and in their associations. Prof. Edward J. Bosworth, of Obeslin University, Mr. Robert E. Speer, the great Princeton scholar and athlete and Rev. John Timothy Stone, of Baltimore, are among the leaders this summer.

The session of the conference are held each morning and evening. The afternoons are devoted to athletics and other forms of recreation. A series of baseball games, a track meet, and a tennis tournament will be "pulled off" to determine the conference championship of the South.

In 1904, Carolina had a delegation of fourteen men, which included a baseball team that won the championship. Last year Davidson College won the championship in baseball and V. P. I. came second.

This year the Association hopes to have about twenty men at the conference. Of course it will be a pleasure to have a baseball, a track and a tennis team that will win athletic honors for the University and bring back the handsome banners offered. But more important is the fact that the Y. M. C. A. work for next year will need conference trained men to work out the new problems that will arise because of the building and the enlargement of the work, and to make the association work the strong, vitalizing agency in the University that it ought to be.

Catholics Get Even.

St. John's College evened up things Thursday by defeating Carolina on the Annapolis grounds by the score of 5 to 1. The first game between the two teams this season was won by Carolina 7 to 6 in Winston on Easter Monday. It was an evening up also from another standpoint: St. John's lost to Carolina in Annapolis last year by the same score 5 to 1. Although the score this year was a good deal of a surprise there was no special reason why it should have been, for St. John's this year is a notably fast aggregation, downing Trinity twice on the Durham diamond.

Carolina started the scoring early, but stopped equally early, being shut out after the first inning. Rouse, the Marylander southpaw, was at his best and, backed by a speedy infield, he held down the Tar Heels well.

The Catholic boys didn't get started until the second, when they tallied one, but they kept the good work up till the last, adding one or two whenever the opportunity offered itself. In the third inning Rouse knocked out a clean home run, the longest hit of the game.

Score by innings:
North Carolina 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 5 1
St. John's 0 1 1 0 2 0 1 0 x 5 7 5
Batteries: Patterson and Rogers; Reynolds and Rouse.

Johns Hopkins Downed.

Carolina defeated Johns Hopkins 9 to 5 last Friday in Baltimore. It was a mysterious sort of game, somehow, and we wouldn't make affidavit that it was ever really played. It appears that THE TAR HEEL is the first paper to record it, even the Associated Press allowing it to slip by unnoticed. The only score kept was of the Carolina men.

Score by innings:
Carolina 0 1 7 1 0 0 0 0 x-9
Johns Hopkins 0 2 0 1 1 0 0 1 0-5

TABULATED SCORE.

N. CAROLINA	A. B.	R.	H.	E.
Calder, rf.	4	2	2	0
James, 3b.	5	1	1	0
Story, cf.	4	1	1	0
Patterson, p.	4	2	0	0
Stem, 1b.	3	1	2	0
Harris, ss.	4	1	2	2
Rogers, c.	2	0	1	0
Montgomery, 2b.	4	0	0	1
Hanes, lf.	3	1	1	0
Raney, c.	2	0	0	0
Totals,	35	9	10	3

Seniors Downed Again.

The Seniors met their Waterloo Saturday when they faced the Sophs on the diamond. It was a tragedy, with lots of slaughter, in nine acts—a cumulative tragedy, mathematically expressed by "22 to 9".

Four hits which netted a home run each, whatever you choose to call them, by Hassell, Dunlap, Rand and Singletary, combined with the playing of Fountain at short and Dunlap in center was the feature for the Sophs.

Score by innings:
Sophs 8 0 0 0 1 2 1 1 0 0
Seniors 2 0 0 0 0 0 4 0 0